NADINE ALLENE MIKESELL

The interest to compile this book was created by publishing two other family histories. The families appearing in this book have kept a close relationship, getting together for a reunion every summer in July for as long as I remember.

For many years as a labor of love the writer has from time to time made genealogical notes, finally as they grew in number and opportunity permitted these notes took form and the present volume is the result.

A collection of letters that my grandmother Virginia (Ordway) Young had written to her mother-in-law and sisters-in-law back in Maine were saved and given back to her years later. The correspondance started before Virgie and Sherman were married in 1895. The collection continued until 1918 after I arrived.

Much information has been compiled from family Bibles, records and notes grandmother wrote on bits of paper. Trips to the east coast searching in the archives, court houses and libraries, walking through cemeteries, trips to Salt Lake City, Utah to research and research, through the State Archives in Seattle, Washington as well as Augusta, Maine, Concord, New Hampshire and other New England States, also using the wonderful genealogical section in the Seattle Public Library.

Since genealogy is more than dates, names, charts and places it has been my desire to make the history of the Ordway-Kennedy family come alive. I feel that I truly know our people better.

In 1882 when Fannie Alice Ordway brought her two children west, Virginia Ordway was only two years old. Washington was still a Territory and Indians were a familiar sight.

Virginia was faced with one heartbreak after another but this gallent lady served her Lord, family and friends well.

The Ordway family came early to Massachusetts. The people moved up into New Hampshire and were pioneers in Maine. Many Ordway's have been prominent in war and peace. James and Abner Ordway probably brothers and sister Sarah came to America between 1635 and 1640 from England & Wales. Abner was a resident in Watertown in 1643 and in Wenham & then Rowley, in 1659 and 1660. They had a sister Sara who m. Richard Fitz. They had no children.

Since James Ordway was the emigrant to this country, coming on the "Mary & John" in May 1634, he is considered the Ordway we all descended from.

James Ordway was baptized in Bengeworth, Worcestershire, England on 5 Aug. 1621. The ships master was Robert Sayres. The "John & Mary" was moored in the River Thames in February 1634 and sailed for New England on 26 March 1634. In 1635 James sailed for Newbury, Massachusetts and disembarked from the ship in the Parker River. On the village green a monument has been erected in honor of the first settlers with a model of the "Mary & John" on the top and with James Ordway's name inscribed on one side of the monument.

We are all cousins although somewhat remote in many instances.

I devised the numbering system for all Ordways and allied families. Each generation is seperated by a hyphen. James is # 3968. James 1st child is # 3968-1: # 3968-2 is the 2nd child. The children of James first child would be #3968-1-1.

Note on your own family group sheets, an example. Note also each generation carries his and her own number. (See page 1) The numbering system may not be 100 % accurate where there are no dates to determine the birth order. In some cases we know how many children there were in the family but did not have their names or dates. Men are even numbers and the women uneven numbers.

The contents of this book consists of family group charts, letters, memoirs, biographies, pictures, records, clippings, and certificates.

You soon learn the names are similar through all the families. The names James and John are predominate in our lines.

This was a group effort. We all wish we had started earlier, so that we could sit and talk with those who have gone on, but surprisingly enough they live on as does our heritage.

T H E O R D W A Y F A M I L Y

The Ordway family in Loudon descended from Abner and James Ordway, who came from Tower Hill, in England, to Newbury, Massachusetts, about 1640. Abner settled in Watertown, Massachusetts and James in Dover, New Hampshire. Abner married, August 15, 1656, Sarah, daughter of Stephen Brown, of Newbury, Massachusetts, she being the widow of Edward Dennis, of Boston, Massachusetts.

No descendants of Abner are found. This means all of the Ordway's in America descend from James Ordway. His children were ten in number, named Ephraim, James, Edward, Sarah, John, Isaac, Jane, Hannaniah, Annie and Mary.

Edward Ordway the third child is our direct lineage. James his father and the emmigrant went with other settlers to Coeheco, now Dover, New Hampshire in 1641. He later returned to Newbury, Massachusetts. James was owner of several boats and canoes, James Ordway took a lot of Capt. Wiggens in 1636. Tradition says, Ordway's came from Wales to Newbury. He was taxed in 1639 and sold land in 1662 that had been granted him by the town of Dover. James was not taxed in 1648. James and his wife Ann (Emery) convey acres of their land at Dover to John Heard March 10, 1665. He was admitted freeman at Salisbury, Massachusetts the 20th of April 1668.

James was one of the first to obey the royal mandate to take the oath of allegiance in 1668 and again in 1678. Most of our Newbury ancestors were divided by dispute following the Clerical Party or taking part in the Revolution. Those following the Revolutionary Party were John Emery Sr. and Jr., Thomas Brown, Anthony Morse, Abraham Toppan, Wm. Moody, Caleb Moody, James Ordway, John Bailey and Robert Corker, 10 in all.

We do not know the date of James' birthday but he was baptized 21 August 1620 in Bengeworth, Worcestershire, England.

The migration pattern was traced on our various trips to the New England states. We stopped in the villages and state houses for information. Having been there made our Ordway family very much alive. We started in Boston, Methuen, Fitchburg and Lowell, Massachusetts. We also visited Forge Village where Uncle Ralph went to visit his Aunt Hannah and Uncle Wib in the early 1900's. We found Ordway's in Lyndeborough, Goffstown, Weare, Hookset. Concord, Hopkinton, Louden, Deerfield, Dover, Exeter, Newburyport,Amesbury, Kittery and Salisbury. After we left New Hampshire we spent time in Maine in Belfast, Searsport, Belmont, Searsmont, Augusta, Bangor and of course to the little town of Newport where Virgie and Robie were born.

We know the Christian name for the emigrant's father was Edward Ordway and his mother's name was Jane Webb. We find that James the emigrant is thought to be the father of all of that name in America. James was a farmer and matester.

Tower Hill in the East end of London is where the family name "Ordway" has been extant for 300 years.

James Ordway was in Newbury, Massachusetts, about 1648 as he was married there. He was made a freeman there in 1668. He married Ann Emery and had five daughters and six sons.

One of his sons, Hananiah, born Dec. 2, 1665, married Abigail Merrill. Their son Nathaniel, born July 3, 1695, married Sarah Hale, April 3, 1736. Their son was Joshua, born 18 May 1756 who married Sarah Pike Downer.

John, son of Joshua and Sarah (Downer) Ordway, after serving in the Revolutionary war, enlisted in 1777 and again in 1779 left the home of his ancestors in Newbury (that part now West Newbury) in 1788. He married Sally Rogers and located on Governor's Island, then owned by Tristram Dalton of Newburyport.

Abner Ordway had no children. He was in Wenham in 1659 and 1660 then in Rowley. Abner was the second husband of Sarah,widow of Edward Dennis.* She was married to Edward for twenty five years and borne him five children.

Richard Fitts died 2 Dec. 1672. He left a legacy to his beloved brother-in-law James Ordway and James daughter, Jane Ordway [see next page, # 3968-7.] Sarah and Richard had no children.

 Ann (Emery) Ordway # 3969 is buried in Newburyport, Massachusetts. It is said the gravestone is still standing in the old cemetery and is said to be the oldest in that enclosure.

JAMES ORDWAY # 3968, the emmigrant went with other settlers to Newbury, Massachusetts and then with other pioneer settlers to Cocheco, now Dover, New Hampshire in 1691 and owned the present sight of the Cocheco Mills, but afterward returned to Newbury and in 1648 married Ann Emery # 3969.

James was a farmer and the owner of several boats, engaged in lighterage service in Newbury for some years. He was still living after the death of his wife. He was left with one child at home.

James was still living in 1704 as REv. Samuel Sewell made mention of him in his diary.

Ann (Emery) Ordway's headstone is still standing in Newbury, Ma. She died 31 March 1687 at age 56. She was his first wife. He then married again on 4 Oct. 1687 to Johanna Corley.

ABIAL/ABIEL ORDWAY

I traced this Abial Ordway to the emigrant to learn it was not our David Ordway's father. Many, many hours lost to our Abial's research.

I was so sure this Abial was mine I had the Town Clerk in Brooks, Maine, Waldo County put her stamp on this birth document.

However all was not lost, we just gained more cousins and uncles to add to our family genealogy.

This birth record was found in Augusta Maine in the search room when we were there in 1982

James Ordway # 3968-5-3-3 and Moses Ordway Sr. # 3968-5-3-5 were brothers. James Ordway's daughter Persis # 3968-5-3-3-5 m. Moses Ordway Sr.'s son Moses Ordway Jr. # 3968-5-3-5-1 thus they were first cousins.

Moses Ordway Jr. had a marck for his cattle and sheep on July 24 1775. It was in a crook of the right ear and a slit in the saim.

28 Apr. 1778 Moses Ordway Jr's marck for cattle and sheep was in the underside of the left ear and a crop in the right ear.

A glass bottle of curious device was brought from England by one of the two brothers that first came to this country and he bequeathed to one Moses, upon the condition that it remain in the family of some descendant whose name was Moses throughout all succeeding years. Moses Ordway III rd was the last Moses & it is now in the possession of John C. Ordway whose father was the last.

Moses Ordway IIrd was the last Moses. The trials and the suffering of the 1st of the Ordway settlers were the same as those of others. Upon one occasion Mr. Moses Ordway Jr. went to Amesbury, Mass. & brought home a bushel of corn upon his back, it being a year when the crops were cut off by frost, and his family subsisted upon the ground-nut while he was gone.

Joseph Ordway served in the French & Indian War. The chief cause of the war was a dispute about boundaries and who owned the Ohio Valley. The goverment sent a company of "fifty foot" up the Merrimack River and two companies to the Connecticut River to protect the settlers.

Col. John Goffe led the 1st and with him were Jacob Jewell, John Worthley, Stephen George, Joshua Corless and Joseph Ordway, men who then or afterwards lived in Weare, New Hampshire.

In 1775 the armies were sent against 3 points. Hew Hampshire raised a regiment of 600 men, divided into ten companies. Joseph Blanchard was colonel. John Goff was captain of the 2nd Company. Nathaniel Martin was his ensign. Joseph Ordway was in the 4th Co.

Jonathan had another ch who d. young & a son Kelsey who d. 1808 at only 3 yrs. of age. It is believed that Clarissa d. shortly after the birth of her youngest ch. as Zenophon, was reared by a sister Phoebe. Jonathan came to N. Belmont in 1811 & settled on the place afterward owned by D.O. Bowen. He signed the petition of 1813.

Jonathan Ordway signed a dissolution May 18, 1841 against rum, gin, brandy and wine. To this effort no trade with stores that served such. At this time 7 public drinking places were in full operation. Up to 1845 little was said against cider, everyone drank it. It was impolite not to pass the mug to callers. Then they drank too much cider.

Family tradition says there was Indian blood in this line, and they claim descent from Queen Isabella.

In 1820 Ezra Woodman moved into the house in Belmont, Me. where Jonathan Ordway had lived.

Willam G. Ordway lived in Orono, Maine and had a saw mill there. He and his brothers and nephews were in the lumber business. The town of Orono was originally a part of Range No. 5 in the Province of Maine as laid out by the surveyors of the Massachusetts Bay Co.

In 1790 the territory of the present Orono and Oldtown was organized as a distrinct plantation under the name of Cabintown.

In 1800 the name was changed to Stillwater, the later name being retained until the present town of Orono was incorporated in 1806.

In 1850 our Abial Ordway # 124 had the first homestead in Orono. Volume 1 page 1 recorded in Penobscot's Records of Deeds.

Excerpt from a letter in the family Bible.

Gardiner, Maine
23 May 1859

Our beloved Alice is dead. How like the knell of expiring hope this solemn truth comes home to the stricken heart. A sweet but tender flower, scarce lent from heaven ere the angels claimed her back again. Our hearts are very heavy and we do not feel as though we could write a separate letter to each one of our friends at this time. (Alice passed away at 17 weeks.)

I received a letter from Suzanne Linnette (Beaulieu) Kostrub, written about 15 June 1981. The letter was from Fresno, Ca.

Dear Nadine;

I am researching my family history and got your name and address from Hilda Ordway. She is my great-aunt by marriage. My grandfather was Oliver Ordway and my mother was Laura Ordway. Would you be interested in exchanging any information on the Ordways? As I gather information I would be glad to send it to you.

I'm most interested in knowing how we are related to each other? I have a lovely daughter, Kathleen who will be five next month. I work in a small hospital part time as an Xray technician.

Hope to hear from you. (Needless to say I was happy to hear from Suzie.)

When we were in Newport, Maine in September of 1985 we found Abial Ordway and his two wives buried in the Stuart Cemetery.

The first Township meeting in Newport was called in 1812 at the house of Robert Stuart. The census that year showed nearly 100 inhabitants. The town had grown, in 1810 there were 62 people in that Township.

Newport, Maine is in Penobscot County. Pehobscot County was separated from Hancock County in 1816. It was the last county to be incorporated before Maine became a state. Newport occupies almost the entire valley of the Penobscot River, nearly the length of its main stream, the entire East branch except its farthest headwaters and many miles along the West branch. The County takes its name from this river, the longest in the state.

In 1870 the population in Newport, Maine had grown to 1,559. Newport is on the Sebasticook River. Virginia M. Ordway was born there ten years later. It must have looked very much the same then as it does now.

The principal Indian Villages on the Penobscot River were located at Mattawamkeag, Old Town and a point three miles above the mouth of the Kenduskeag. The word Penobscot means "The Rocky River." or literally "The descending ledge place." referring originally to the section of the river between Treat'a Falls and Old Town Great Falls. There are ten miles of falls in close succession.

Since our family had been buried in the Stuart Cemetery and Dolly Stuart had married an Ordway we were interested in the Nathaniel and Hannah Stuart family, parents of Dolly. Her parents were b. 1781 in Kingston, New Hampshire. Their children were:

Dolly	b. 1805
Frederick	b. 1807
Joseph	b. 1809
Moses	b. 1810
Sally	b. 1815
Nathaniel	b. 1819
John	b. later

James Stuart and wife Betty had the following children:

Charles T.	b. 1805
Lyman A.	b. 1808
Timothy W.	b. 1813
Sally E.	b. 1815

All of the children were born in Newport, Maine Penobscot County.

ABIAL ORDWAY'S HEADSTONE 1801-1877
STUART CEMETERY IN NEWPORT, MAINE...

In the autumn of 1817, the Rev. Wm. Frothingham came to this place as a Missionary; and having preached several months, the Church, on the 7th of May, 1818, gave him a call to become their Pastor. Eager to enjoy the stated ministration of those ordinances of which they had been so long deprived, and presuming from the conversation of Mr. Frothingham that he maintained, in substance, those doctrines, contained in their Confession and Covenant, usually termed the doctrines of Grace, and which they deemed of vital importance, and wishing to preserve union among the people of the Parish, who had also given him a Call, they were induced to take this step. Some time after this, however, they were led to entertain serious fears that the religious sentiments of Mr. Frothingham differed materially from those of the Church; especially in respect to the Trinity and the real Divinity of our Saviour.

(The following account came from the "Morning Oregonian" newspaper file at the Multnomah County Library, Portland, Oregon dated 29th of May 1909.) Julius died on Thursday 27 May 1909.

JULIUS ORDWAY whose death occurred at St. Vincent's Hospital Thurs. morning, was 77 years, 2 months and twenty-two days of age, one of Portlands most prominent and strenuous lumber manufactures, active and upright in business, he was for many years prosperous, but later he was pursued by financial misfortune, from the losses for which he was unable fully to recover.

The death within 2 years of each other of his two sons, young men just entering manhood was a severe family affliction, which added to his financial loss, greatly depressed his spirit and with advancing years caused him to drop out of active business competition.

He goes to his grave honored for his endeavor and leaves behind him the simple record of an upright life.

O R D W A Y

ELIOT ORDWAY was born in Portland, Oregon. He was the grandson of James H. Mc Millan, a pioneer of 1845. Eliot enlisted in the 2nd Oregon Volunteer Infantry on th 13th of May 1898 for service in the war with Spain 1898-1899. He served in the Philippine Islands and died at sea enroute to the United States of typhoid fever on 4 September 1898. He is buried at the "Lone Fir Cemetery" in Multnomah County. Eliot's company in the Inf. was called the "Flower of Oregon" as it was composed mostly of high school boys of good families and refined homes.

June McMillan Ordway was married to JULIUS ORDWAY when she was quite young. He was a native of Maine. In a small school house on the property known as McMillan's Addition they had Sunday Service in the little building and June played the organ that had been brought from Maine. June was born 11 September 1855 and was one of nine children. Three of her small brothers died in a very short time of each other. The Oregonian printed lots of her poetry, one on the 6th of November 1927 named "The Sabbath of Past Years" another "The Circuit Rider" 15th November 1927 found on page 8. The first poem on page 6 section 3.

ELIOT W. ORDWAY'S FUNERAL

Oregon Volunteer Laid to Rest in Lone Fir Cemetery.

The remains of Eliot W. Ordway, son of Julius and June McMillan Ordway, who died on the way from Manila, arrived from San Francisco yesterday morning, and the funeral took place in Centenary Methodist church, at 2 o'clock. Over 2000 people were present, and many were turned away. It was one of the most imposing funerals ever occurring in Portland.

The remains were escorted from the parent's home by relatives and friends, and at the church the casket was brought in front of the chancel, as the entire audience arose and the grand organ peeled forth a solemn dirge. On the casket were snowy white flowers of beautiful design, conspicuous among them was the magnificent design of a warship.

The impressive funeral discourse was delievered by Dr. Thomas L. Eliot, after whom the soldier-boy had been named, and who performed the wedding ceremony of his parents.

Dr. Eliot said that such an occasion must fill the mind of every one with reflections of his country, the soldiers across the sea, and the causes that took them there. He spoke of the great civil war and the alacrity with which the ranks of the Union army were filled with the young men of the country. Some had responded from varied emotions, but most had gone forth because of pure love of country. And the young soldier-boy had gone from his Portland home to the far-off city of Manila from pure, self-sacrificing patriotism . Dr. Eliot said he had been shown a letter from young Ordway, written to his parents from Honolulu, which was full of manly expressions but he said there were words in that letter that were grandly inspiring. He wrote his father and mother, "Tell grandpa that I shall do my duty to uphold the flag." Dr. Eliot said he could conceive of no grander words than these, but they were to be expected from Eliot Ordway, who was inspired by love of country to make any sacrifice. In speaking of the young mans early life, the speaker said he was more than ordinary. He had a touch of genius. Dr. Eliot read a letter from Dr. Hill, of the Bishop Scott academy, in which a very high estimate was placed on the character of young Ordway. His teacher spoke of him as a sincere, earnest, young student, with many admirable qualities, whom he loved to point out as worthy of imitation and admiration. After reading the letter the speaker said the young soldier was as much a hero as if he had fallen in the din of battle, for he had made the sacrifice of his young life on the alter of his country, and that was all the most exalted patriot could do. At the close of the discourse the song and music, "Spirit Voices" written by the mother of the deceased, was rendered. Miss Ruby Walter sang the solo with excellent effect, assisted by the choir. The procession for Lone Fir cemetery was formed with the Bishop Scott battalion acting as escort of honor. At the grave a squad of soldiers from Vancouver barracks fired a parting volley over the remains. The funeral was attended by the Oregon Emergency Corps, Grand Army of the Republic and Battery A.

DEATH OF EARL CONSTANT ORDWAY
A Promising East Side Boy Succumbs to a Brief Illness

EARL C. ORDWAY, the 18-year old son of Julius and June Ordway, who live at the corner of Crosy and Halsey streets, McMillin Addition, died at St. Vincent's Hospital Sunday September 30, after an illness of about one week. This young man was an only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ordway and the brother of Eliot W. Ordway, the first of the Second Oregon to yield up his young life for his country. The body of this young man was brought home and buried with great honor from Centenary Methodist Church, Sunday, October 30, 1898. Now the remaining son has passed away. Earl like his brother was an exemplary young man and a favorite. He had just entered the Portland High School when he was taken sick. He was moved to the hospital for treatment, and every effort was made to save his young life. Mr. Ordway had been in British Columbia and was wired to return when the condition of his son was such as to cause apprehension that he could not recover. However, he did not reach home till yesterday morning. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the residence at 2 o'clock. He will be buried in Lone Fir cemetery, by the side of his brother Eliot.

NOTED OREGON WRITER DIES

In the passing of Mrs. June McMillan Ordway Monday, Oregon lost not only "Oregon's own poet" and Oregon's first war mother, but one of the most distinguished pioneer daughters of the state.

Born September 11, 1855, in a log cabin built by her parents on the Tualatin Plains. Mrs. Ordway died at her home, 5613 S.E. 41st Avenue, after a long illness. She was 85.

Her title of "Oregon's first war mother" was bestowed upon her during the Spanish-American war when her son, Eliot lost his life at that time.

When a young girl, Mrs. Ordway played a small organ in the Hassalo St. Congregational church of Portland, a church that was organized in a small school house on the property known as McMillan's addition to Portland and donated to the congregation by her mother. Before her twenties she became the wife of Julius ordway, a native of Maine, who died in 1909.

June was 12 years old when she first received renumeration for her verse, which was accepted by a New York publication. Her education was in a large measure acquired through her own efforts. Throughout her life she continued to write. She is the author of the play, "Oregon" together with several other plays, songs, poems and stories. In 1923 her "Little Verses for Little Friends" was published. Among her outstanding works are three dedicatory odes written for the unveiling of the monument at Hubbard; "After the Battles" for the soldiers monument in Lone Fir cemetery, and "After Taps" for another Portland soldiers monument.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the L. L. Bruning Mission Mortuary. The only survivor is a sister, Mrs. Ivy Stacy of Wabash, Michigan. (1940)

"FOUR GENERATIONS"

EDNA (YOUNG) SHAMBAUGH, VIRGINIA (ORDWAY) YOUNG,
FANNIE ORDWAY-KENNEDY, NADINE ALLENE SHAMBAUGH.

FANNIE ALICE (THOMPSON) ORDWAY-KENNEDY

This chapter deals with Fannie Alice. She is the grandmother to all the Ordway-Kennedy clan.

So far the family history has been devoted to the Ordways, David Kelsey Ordway's family back to the immigrant. Now comes Fannie, his bride, 30 years his junior.

Fannie and David's first child and only daughter was my grandmother (Virginia Muzzey (Ordway) Young.) Soon little Virginia had four brothers. David Ordway died leaving his young wife and children. Fannie married a family friend, Mr. William E. Kennedy. They completed their family with three more sons, Wilbert, Elliot and Edgar. Edgar is the only surviving child and Gracie (Woolf) Kennedy is the only daughter in-law left.

Virgie, Grandma Kennedy, and Ilia standing in back. Esther & Virginia in front.

Fannie's mother was Mary Ann (Leathers) Thompson who was previously married to a Mr. John Parsons who died. Thus Fannie had a half brother Mr. Wilbert Parsons, who she dearly loved. He also came west. He was known as "Uncle Wib" to all of the family. Mary Ann had five marriages. (see allied families, Cilley, Leathers and other husbands.) Mary Ann's headstone at Pine Grove cemetery is inscribed simply "GRANDMA".

DAVID KELSEY ORDWAY

David came west during the "Gold Rush" of 1849 at 19 years of age. He did not stay long as he learned his father was ill, so he returned to Neport, Maine.

David came west again in 1882 at the request of his brother Julius Ordway. Julius asked David to go to the Little White Salmon, Mill A where he homesteaded 160 acres.

The lumber industry was flourishing in the Pacific Northwest but declining in the eastern states, Maine's logs were disappearing fast; the famous white pines were dwindling at an alarming rate. Hordes of loggers were moving westward.

Along the Pacific coast lay the best timber zone in the country, stretching some thousand miles to the north and south and up to a hundred miles inland. Oregon and Washington had the great Douglas firs; and across the Cascades eastward stretched the huge pine forests.

In those early days logging was done entirely by oxen.

Mr. Simon Benson who was to become "Northwest Lumber King" had contracted to buy timber at fifty cents a thousand stumpage, selling to Ordway & Weidler at Cathlamet on the Washington side of the Columia River. Mr. Benson continued to sell to Ordway & Weidler in 1889. Mr. Benson discovered Ordway & Weidler owned four thousand acres of excellent timber near Cathlamet, Washington. They had no money to develop these holdings and neither did he but he had limitless credit. They all decided to go into partnership and work out the timber together.

Their logging operations expanded rapidly. Soon they were working in Wahkiakum County, not only in the Cathlamet area but also in to the heavily wooded hills around Deep River, some thirty miles northwest of Cathlamet.

They were always buying and selling. While scouting in the Cowlitz they came upon a magnificent growth of timber at Oak Point, where Mill Creek flows into the Columbia River. This is about ten miles upstream from Cathlamet.

The Company secured the stumpage at Oak Point for fifty cents a thousand. About that time however the price of logs which had been going down steadily hit a new low and Ordway & Weidler became alarmed. The nation as a whole was in the midst of a severe depression and logging along with other industries was floundering. The price of logs had dropped from six dollars a thousand to four dollars.

PORTLAND HOTEL PORTLAND, OREGON

SOME OF THE LOGS USED IN THE FORESTRY BUILDING WERE FROM JULIUS ORDWAY AND HIS FRIEND SIMON BENSON OF PORTLAND, OREGON.

In 1893 Mr. Benson bought Julius Ordway out, paying him ten thousand dollars for his one-third interest. The following year Benson bought out George W. Weidler, paying him thirty thousand dollars for his share in the firm.

In 1905, the year of the Lewis Clark Exposition, crowds from all over the world attended. Trains and boats coming into the city of Portland, Oregon were jammed. The gates opened at eight in the morning on June 1st. At ten o'clock a big parade started at the Portland Hotel and went up to the Fair Grounds, reaching there at eleven thirty. At noon the opening ceremonies commenced with a salute of a hundred guns. There were concerts and fireworks throughout the day and the gates closed at eleven that night with an attendance totaling close to forty thousand.

Over the years our family had taken a steamer up the Columbia River to Hood River and The Dalles and down to Portland, This is a magnificent water route. Beautiful scenic views through the Cascade Range to see lovely snow covered mountains, Mt. Adams and St. Helens in Washington and Mt. Hood in Oregon. These mountains can be seen from Portland and create a back-drop for the city.

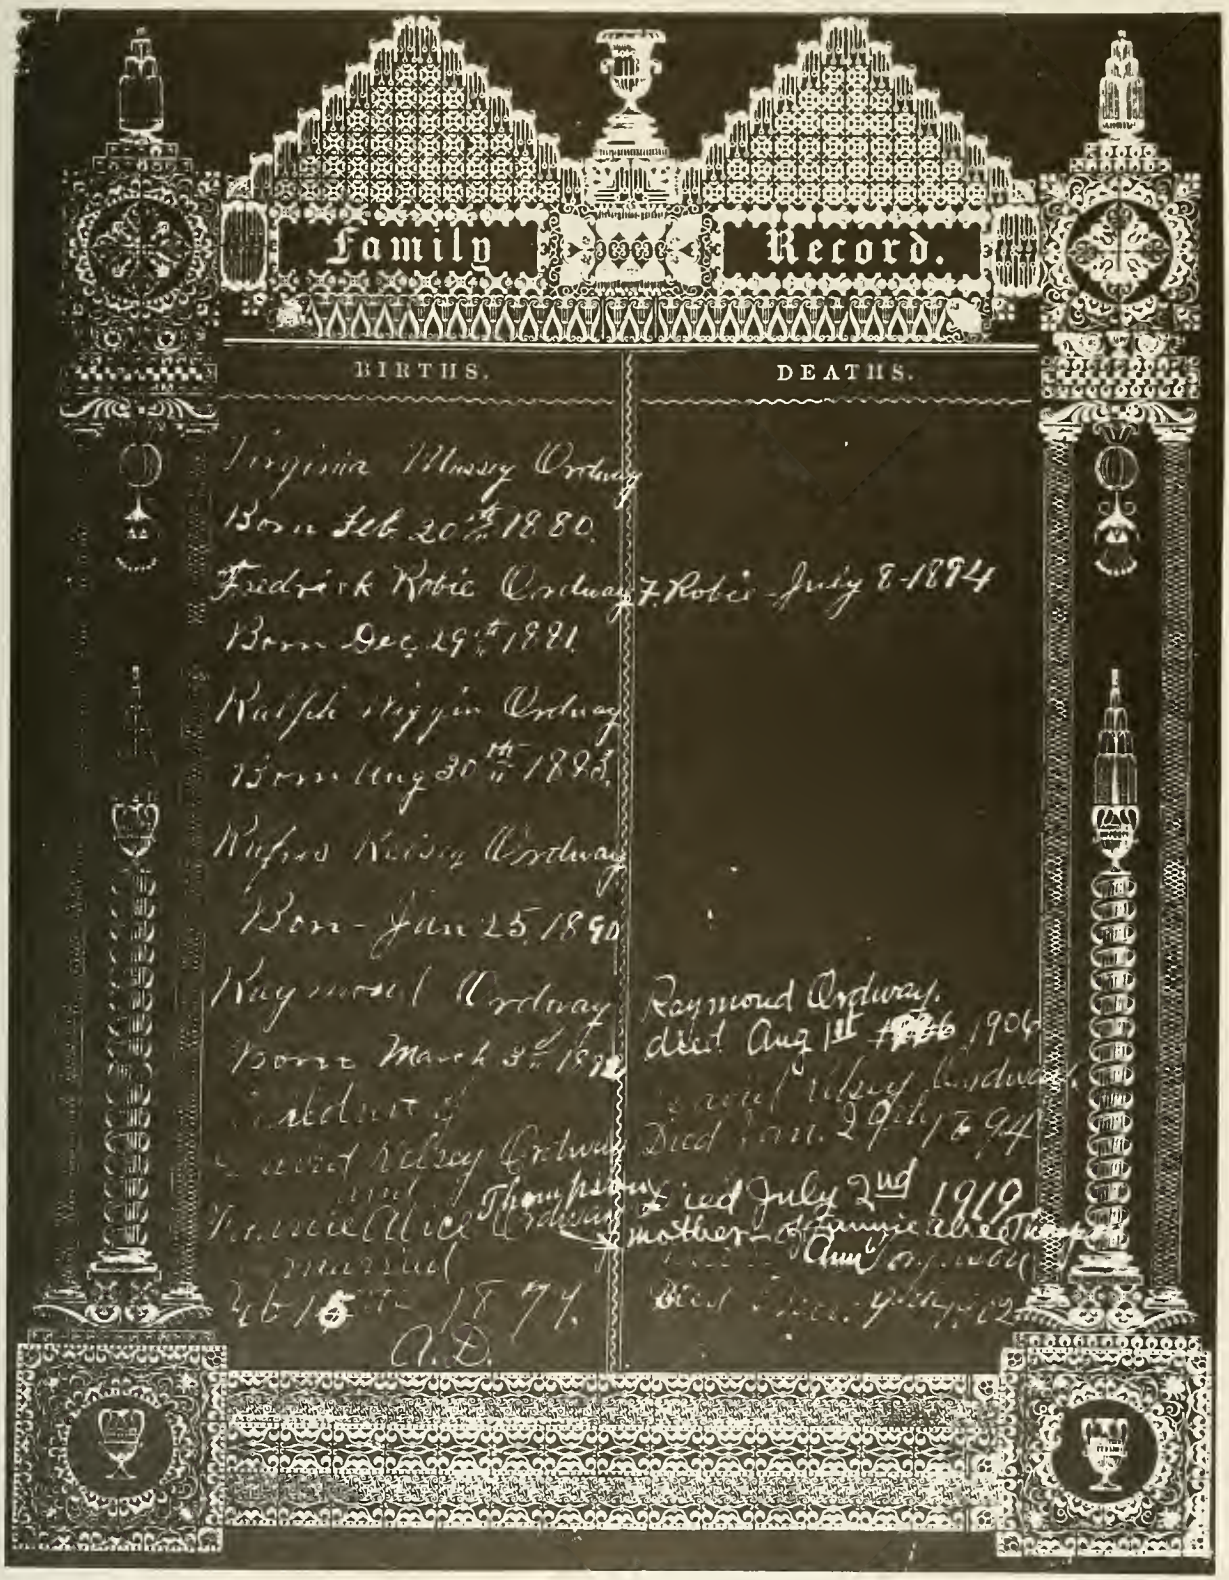
In later years we drove to Hood River every Year for Memorial Day. This would take all day in our old "Ford" and we would stop at Eagle Creek for our lunch. Mother packed a beautiful picnic which included Chess Pies which were delicious. The yellow jackets liked them too and we were constantly on the move to get rid of them. We always stayed over night since we couldn't make the trip in one day. Mother made me and my aunt dresses alike in blue for me and orchid for Virginia.

Our family plot lay at the foot of Mt. Hood, tucked under the trees where sheep contentedly graze. Hood River and Pine Grove have beautiful apple blossoms in the spring and there is always a gentle breeze. Each year the annual festival brings people from far and near to see the trees in full bloom in April.

On the way to Hood River we drove up the gorge to Crown Point (The Vista House) stopping high on the hill to view the beauty as far as the eye could see both up and down the Columbia River. The ornate concrete rails along the highway were patterned after the ones on Lake Lucerne in Switzerland. The highway was narrow and crooked.

The first wagon road on this route was completed on the ninth of February 1856, less than six miles in length and ran from Bonniville to the Cascade Locks. In October 1872 the State Legislature of Oregon appropriated money for the purpose of building a wagon road from the mouth of the Sandy River in Multnomah County through the gorge to The Dalles, Oregon.

ORDWAY FAMILY BIBLE



Early in September of 1913 preliminary surveys were started on a highway. It was planned to have the entire road completed and open to traffic my midsummer of 1915.

In 1920 the Columbia River Highway was paved all the way from The Dalles to Astoria, Oregon.

Now you can drive to Hood River in an hour on a lovely wide straight highway.

THE STAINED GLASS WINDOW IS DATED 1859-1902

It is above the doorway in the only church we saw in Newport, Maine when we visited there in 1982. Virginia Muzzey Ordway was born February 20, 1880 in Newport, Penobscot County. Population 1, 559 in 1870. It is a pretty place, very quiet.

Fannie Alice Thompson and David K. Ordway were married by the Justice of the peace, Mr. L.K. Dudley. They were married on the 17th of Feb. 1879 in Newport, Maine, Penobscot County. Four years before there was a population of 1, 559. The town was a postal village on the Sebasticook River. There were two railroads through the town, the Newport & Dexter R.R. and the Maine Central R.R. The main business was farming, sawed lumber, tanned leather and woolen goods. Penobscot County is in the E. Central part of the state. The northern part of the County is hilly. Lakes are numerous. The extensive forests in the northern part of the county supported an active lumbering business.

This Certifies that I joined in Marriage, Mr. David K. Ordway and Miss. Fanny A. Thompson. Both of Newport this 15th day of February A.D. 1879. at Newport.

L.K. Dudley Justice of the Peace

Recorded Feb 17th 1879 Attest. H.W. Knowlton Town Clerk

David had become aquainted with Fannie Alice about two years before they married as her mother worked for Mrs. Abial Ordway, after Fannie's father died.

FANNIE (THOMPSON) ORDWAY

Fannie Alice (Thompson) Ordway was born the fourth of March 1860 in Newport, Maine. She was only 15 when her father Eliott P. Thompson passed away. She lived with her grandmothe who had the only bathtub in the area. David was more than 30 years older than his bride. David came west and was called home to Maine because of the illness of his father. He was married and had little Virginia in 1880.David came west again and sent for his family in October of 1882. Fannie brought with her 8 mo. old Robie and two year old Virginia Muzzey Ordway (my grandmother). They left Maine & came via Omaha by rail to San Francisco, and by steamer to Astoria, Oregon, then to Portland, Oregon by boat and over to Chenowith, Washington.

Fannie wore a red and black alpaca dress which had flat pleated ruffles, six inches deep all around the bottom of her skirt.

Every ten years the census records were taken. David K. Ordway's household was no exception. The census was taken the first day of June 1880.

The persons living in David's household are listed below. Notice David's father was born in New Hampshire and Virginia M. Ordway, was only 4 months old.

1) FEDERAL CENSUS STATE MAINE COUNTY PENOBSCOT SURNAMES ORDWAY

CENSUS TAKEN 1st day of JUNE 1880

David first came West to California during the Gold Rush in the spring of 1849. He went to Sutters Mill. He did not stay West long as he learned his father was ill. He returned West in 1882 at the request of his brother Julius Ordway. David settled on the Little White Salmon at Mill A. where he later took a Homestead of 160 acres, at Chenowith, Washington Territory. The Skamania County Post Office opened May 4, 1881. The first Postmaster was Mr. James F. Kimball. David Ordway served as Postmaster from Dec. 13, 1883 to November 2, 1885. when Mr. John Fisher took over. Mr. John Hill was Postmaster on Feb. 16, 1903.

VIRGINIA M. ORDWAY 1881

The Post Office at Chenowith Landing was said to be the first on the Columbia River. The mail was made up at Hood River, Oregon.

The picture at left is Virginia M. Ordway at 14 months, taken in 1881. Grandmother said she was very angry as she didn't want her picture taken.

Chenowith looked very strange to Fannie, she had lived in a resort community located at the south end of Sebasticook Lake, elevation 205 feet. Newport was about twenty-five miles from Bangor, Maine, elevation twenty-one feet. At Chenowith Fannie was high above the Columbia River. David was already here busy logging and building their home.. He was earning $75.00 a month. He had already planted an orchard. This was the only orchard planted in the county and the first orchard planted west of Underwood.

David met Fannie and the children at the steamboat landing when they arrived from Maine. After the treacherous ride up over the rough and rocky road with trunks and bags loaded on the back of the lumber wagon they arrived at the little board house. It was a two and a half mile ride very steep and slow. David built the only board house in the entire neighborhood. The flume was built prior to this time. Fannie saw the knot holes in the floor and the rough hewn walls and tried to picture her velvet rug on that floor. She took her two small children in her lap, sat in the middle of the floor and cried. She had never seen the "Wild West" before. Fannie got up, went to work and never cried or shed a tear over that again.

Mail was brought each Saturday by an Indian named Joe Alleck from Hood River to Mitchel Point, opposite Chenowith Landing. Joe rowed a skiff across the Columbia River to the Landing from there he would go by horseback and on foot to the office in the log store of Weidler and Ordway Lumber Company.

Joe Alleck was born about 1814, his wife Martha, gave her birth date as 1856. They were residents of Hood River for a very long time. Before the North Bank railroad was built he was serving as a mail carrier. He took great pride in his boat and was a faithful Public Servant. His home was on a bench of land overlooking the Columbia River about a mile east of Hood River. Martha was a woman of great energy, neat and careful about her work. She did washing and ironing and general work in the homes of the pioneer women. She found the time to help in the strawberry fields and was reliable when the sun was hot and the work hard. They had three children George, Virginia and Fred. George was old enough to pick berries but was so full of mischief that he was soon ruled out of the patch. Martha always wore the garb of an Indian woman, but one Sunday morning, soon after the close of the berry season she appeared at the farm accompanied by another woman whom she introduced as her friend. Both women wore stylish hats, fashionably made silk dresses, high heeled shoed, lace collars and kid gloves, the latter they carried in their hands, while perfumed handkerchiefs were peeping from their pockets. Martha asked permission to take her friend into the patch to pick a few berries, they returned later with bouquets made from clusters of strawberries. Martha's friend was from an Indian school and was used to dressing like a white woman, for her sake Martha appeared in borrowed clothes and prepared the fish for their winter's use. Joe said to her, "I will bring the fish over in my boat when I am through carrying the mail" but Martha was ambitious to finish her work and so loaded the fish in to a small boat belonging to her and with her three children started to cross the river.

In accordance with the Indian custom Martha went to White Salmon

All went well and the journey was almost completed when the river steamer, coming from The Dalles passed down. The waves from her wheel filled the overloaded boat and caused it to sink.

George easily saved himself by swimming to land but Virginia and Fred could not swim. The mother caught them in her arms and tried to hold their heads above water while she trod the water with her feet. Fully fifteen minutes passed before a small boat reached them and drew them ashore and laid the lifeless forms upon the sand. The mother quickly revived but the children had paddled beyond human help. They were buried in the K. of P. Cemetery and Martha had a monument placed over their graves.

George became a pupil in the public school in the town of Hood River. He was full of enterprise and "in jun uity" as the Editor of the Glacier once said of him; he was also a constant source of anxiety to his parents whose hopes were centered in him. As early as possible he took a wife and then another and then he took a horse which belonged to some one else and was sent to prison for one year. At the expiration of his time he came home with many promises for the future. He went down the Columbia River and found work in a logging camp near Astoria and he few weeks later he drowned. His body was not found for some time and when it was Martha paid $200. to have it brought to Hood River and buried beside the other two children. She bought the finest monument she could find to place at the head of his grave. She paid for all of it by washing and other hard work and seemed to find relief from her sorrow by doing something to perpetuate the memory of her loved ones.

Joe's health was poor for a number of years before he died and Martha's time was fully taken up in caring for him. Early in January 1915 he passed away. His age was supposed to have been more than 100 years. Funeral services were held at the Catholic Church and many of his pioneer friends were there to honor his memory. He was buried near the children. A visitor to the K. of P. Cemetery on Decoration Day 1919 found the graves of Joe Alleck and his children covered with beautiful roses, long streamers of bright colored ribbons were draped from the tombstones and a new American flag was placed at the head of each grave. Martha had been remembering her loved ones. Martha died April 10, 1937.

Weidler & Oregon Lumber Company was taking out ties and other timbers for the O.W.R.R. The population of this area at the time consisted of David Kelsey Ordway, his wife Fannie and children Virginia Muzzey, Robie, Mrs. Ordway's mother Mary Ann Pease and her son Walter E. Thompson, a half brother to Fannie, William Kennedy, Charles Myers and his wife Lovina, John Park, Robert Ingram, Horace Witherwax, William Drano (known as French Billy), John Dye and his wife Betsy and an Indian one John Johnson.

David Ordway took his little daughter Virginia to Portland in 1888. It took hours and hours to make the trip from Drano. At that time they had to cross the Columbia at Mitchell's Point and flag a train to Bonneville. They had their supper there and then on to Portland. The crossing at Mitchell's Point was by rowboat. The division was at Bonneville on The Dalles to Portland run.

At the Lumber Company they were making hand hewn ties. They were shipped out to Kalama, Washington. The logs had been peeled so they would not clog the flume. These ties were used by the railroad from Portland to Kalama.

Fannie Ordway went to Hood River to the doctor as there were none in the Chenowith area at that time. (all woods and bears) Robie was one and a half years old. Fannie spent ten days in the Hood River Home for expectant mothers. ("Old Doc Adam's home") Virgie was about three at the time. Grandma Pease pulled out her rocker into the parlor so she could sit and hold Ralph. Virgie told Edna years later she could see him yet, little deep blue flannel cape and bonnet, lined with all white flannel , which had been made by his mother. Yes, there was a parlor and on the floor the all wool rug, big green ferns and big red roses and Fannie had brought it all the way from Maine. Ralph Ordway was born 31 August 1883.

The year before Ralph was born Uncle Julius (David's brother) was buying land and took a Patent in the Land Office for a Homestead. It was Certificate No. 1920. "Whereas Julius Ordway of Skamania County, Washington Territory has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of Register of the Land Office at Vancouver, Washington Territory whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said Julius Ordway." In testimony whereof I, Rutherford B. Hays, President of the United States of America have caused these letters to be made-Patent and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed given under my hand at the City of Washington the tenth day of December in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty and of the Independence of the United States the hundred and fifth.

On Thursday morning September 1, 1983 I drove to Gresham, Oregon to pick up Iva (Ordway) Lindsey a 2nd cousin who is very much interested in the Ordway genealogy and history.

We had not seen each other since her mother's death,(Aunt Allene (Clark) Ordway.) until the Kennedy-Ordway picnic & at Esther (Young) Neal's 75th birthday party at White Salmon, Washington. Iva and Dale were at the party.

While we were at White Salmon we talked about David Ordway having lived in the area. Iva mentioned if I should go up to Chenowith where they had lived would I please take her too. She mentioned since she was working on her Master's degree, she had only one day to go. So we decided to go on the 1st. her day off.

Mary Neal had been nice enough to get the name of a gentleman who lived in Cooks and would probably give us some of the history of Chenowith and the area. He also had the original deed for David's homestead, which was over a hundred years old.

We arrived at 11:00 a.m. and Bob Rogers was waiting for us. We had made a prior commitment. After a short visit he used his truck as a lead car and showed us the old homestead, Mill A, Mill B and the Willard Mills plus where the old flumes had been and where the new ones now stand.

Mr. Rogers suggested we visit with Mr. Robert White in White Salmon as he is a true historian, also Mildred Young who lives in Chenowith at Tibbets Flat adjacent to Chenowith could give us some interesting bits of early history. Mildred's brother Frank Morby was born and raised in the community and his father was one of the workers in Mill A. This was a Morman community.

After a pleasant hour or so we traveled back down to the Columbia River and back to Stevenson to the Court House, in Skamania County to look over the land deeds. We had a lovely worker, Shirley Nevis who is in charge of the archives and is transferring all the old records on microfilm. She works for Gary M. Olson, Skamania County Auditor. We were privileged to read and copy old land deeds that had been in the Kennedy-Ordway family., also Mr. Sondre Torguson's land records. He was the 5th husband of Mary Ann (Leathers). We had a good day and were happy with all the information we secured.

At the turn of the century collecting post cards was a very fashionable hobby. All the ladies had post card albums and vied with each other to see who could collect the most postals. The men sent and received cards too. We have two leather cards, one was sent from Ralph Ordway from Forge Village, Maine, dated September 8, 1907. It was sent to my grandfather, Sherman Young, Hood River, Oregon. The card has a calendar engraved in leather burning. Some of the postals have two post marks. One from the post office where it was sent from and the post office who received the card. Each post mark showed the town, state, time and date.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

FOR THE COUNTY OF CLARKE

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF

PETITION

To the Judge of the above entitled court:

I.

That upon the 6th day of February 1917, the above named William Kennedy died testate, and upon the 14th day of February 1917, the will of the deceased was admitted to probate in this court and under the terms thereof J.S.G. Langsdorf was appointed as exector. That said exector has duly qualified and is now the acting executor of said estate.

II.

That upon the 14th day of April 1917 said executor filed his inventory in the above estate and listed among other property as belonging to the estate of the above deceased the following described real estate, to-wit: The South Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-Three North, Range One East of W.M.

III.

That the petitioner is the surviving wife of the deceased and while the real property above described according to the record was acquired during coveture and while the petitioner and the deceased were living in the State of Washington, the same was purchased from this petitioner's own funds, and now is the sole and separate property of this petitioner and is not subject to administration as part of the estate of the above named deceased.

IV.

That according to the inventory of the executor of the above entitled estate there has been listed as a part of the assets of the estate the following notes:
One note for $1920.00 dated Rainier, Oregon March 12, 1910 signed by Anna Koenig. One note for $7800.00 dated Hood River, Oregon March 26th 1909, signed by E.R. Manning, Frane O. Manning, Mary J. Manning and A.B. Manning. One note for $2350.00 dated Rainier, Oregon Feb. 28, 1910 signed by Anna Koenig. One note for $2350.00 dated Rainier, Oregon, February 28th 1910 signed by Anna Koenig.

That all of the above described notes were given as a part of the purchase price of property owned by this petitioner prior to her marriage with the above named deceased, and the notes were made out payable to the deceased as a matter of convenience to him in making the collections for this petitioner and the deceased at all times was acting as agent for this petitioner and had no interest whatsoever in any of said notes.

V.

That the said executor has also listed as cash on hand belonging to the estate of the deceased the sum of $1461.89 but this petitioner alleges that all of this money was received from the sale of her own separate property and that the estate of the deceased has no interest whatsoever therein. WHEREFORE this petitioner prays the court to make an order setting a date of hearing upon this petition and upon proof being introduced supporting this petition that an order be granted this petitioner striking the real and personal property above described for the inventory of the estate of the above named deceased and that this petitioner have a decree establishing both the real and personal property herein described to be her sole and separate property and that the deceased had no interest therein at the time of his death. PETITIONER further prays the court for her costs and disbursements in this proceeding and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

RECORD OF FUNERAL FOR FANNIE ALICE ORDWAY-KENNEDY 1921

My grandmother (Virgie Ordway) was always trying to make life easier for those around her. She was a practical nurse for years and almost became members of the families she worked for. She was certainly seeking ways to make life better as she was once a member of the "Townsend Movement".

Grandmother improved her mind and enriched her life and others around her. She loved the Lord and tried to live His teachings. She could always see the needs and there was a sprinkling of Christian Science along the way. She belonged to any church that was within walking distance. In Eugene it was the Christian Church. In Vancouver it was the Presbyterian Church but she was a member of the "Ladies Aid" in the Christian Church also.

She was delighted with things at hand. She served crackers and jelly to my company with a flair when the cookie jar was empty. Her home was a haven for friends and family alike. When I complained about the size of my hands, she reassured me. "They are capable hands".

Virgie loved the Arts and left some beautiful paintings both in water color and oils. She would walk clear to Portland to go to the Art Museum. She also loved music but she could neither sing or dance. When it came to dancing she was just like a stick. Her children took their music ability from the Young side of the family.

Virginia M. Ordway age 16

This picture of Virginia M. Ordway was taken at The Dalles Studio in September 1895, It was June 23, 1895 that she wrote to Mrs Townsend, (her future mother-in-law) in Maine, from Hood River, Oregon.

My Dear Friend;
I have heard Sherman speak of you and the girls until I feel well aquainted with you.

Sherman has been working and boarding here since September. I met him two years ago when he first came to Hood River. He has been good and steady, does not chew, smoke, or drink, He dresses the best and has more friends than any young man in the Valley and is trying to be a good Christian.

I think you have a boy to be proud of.

I was born in Maine and feel a friendly interest in all and hope you will soon come out here. It is a pleasant place, nice in the summer and not very cold in the winter.

We have a farm and lots of fruits and vegetables.

Hoping you are well, I am your friend.

Virginia Ordway

Virgie told Edna years later that she met Sherman on the way to school. "I had never seen him before. He had a little round felt hat that turned up at the edges. He touched his hat and stepped over to the far side of the road. I went on to school." "I went to Pine Grove to school, Annie Sears was my teacher for two terms." I next saw your Papa when he came to our house to see if he could board. Yes, he did board with my mother. He cleared land and it sold high later."

"We had lost my Papa January 29, 1894. Your Papa came sometime in February. In March he went sheepshearing. He came back in August or September. Your father and I were married in 1896. We did not live with my mother when we were married. We went to live with my grandmother Torguson, then your father went to sheer sheep. We did not have any money for furniture. Later we moved to the west side of White Salmon and Papa worked for the Oregon Lumber Company. The men earned $1.75 a day in the woods and bought all of their provisions at the Company Store. By the end of the year we bought enough jars to can 200 quarts of fruits and vegetables. We moved to Hood River and lived in the little house on Mama's farm. It had been a grainery. Papa fixed it up as a two room apartment.

My Mother and Dad Kennedy were married in my parents house where papa died, then they moved to Dad Kennedy's homestead in Chenowith in Washington Territory taking Ralph, Raymond and Rufus with them. In September they moved back to Hood River, Oregon.

Grandma Kennedy loved her flowers. There the yard was full of color with hollyhocks, daisy, larkspur in both pink and white, black eyed susan, delphinium in blue and white, honey-suckle with fragrant blooms of red, yellow and white.

Early notes from a paper written by Virginia (Ordway) Young told to Myra Helen (Young) Shaw, Virgie's oldest daughter.

The Kennedy place was 170 acre's of the original purchase from the Hoale property sold to our father David K. Ordway in 1886. When I, Virgie was 6½ years of age. At 9 years Grandma Pease was to live there with us and take care of me so I could go to school.

Mama's brother, Uncle Walter Thompson lived with us so he could help papa with the farm work. Then papa sold to Dan Suiter. The twenty acres west to the creek on the south end, next to the western porton, which later was bought by the Millers. Sherman bought for $1200. and sold for $2800. When all the debts were paid we went to Portland on the steam boat. We carried all the money left for us, $1300 in gold coin.

We later used $300. for a lot on Main Street in Hood River. The year Esther came to us we sold for $2600. which invoiced for $6800. If I had the business aquaintances I have now we could have saved the property or sold for a reasonable value.

The water color which I gave Ilia was painted from our orchard on the hill toward The Dalles Road. I had a lesson from Nellie Porter who sat with me and helped me get the proper scenic distance. Nine colors in natural tints. We were looking toward the Washington hills above Underwood where I went to school during our years on the homestead on the Little White Salmon. I went to school in Underwood when I was 9 through 12 years.

Grandpa Kennedy sold 70 acres off for Hospital bills to pay for Uncle Ralph's accident. 29 acres sold for $2900.

I commenced my painting lessons by doing the Castle (Esther Young Neal) has in water color, then got oils. "I am going to paint again someday." I had no more lessons of any kind until your father sold our first house. We moved into a tent on Dad Kennedy's farm down by the creek. That was in May before Kelsey came on August 12th. Your dad went to Portland to get some kind of work which was more to his liking. He did not like farm work. You Myra were 5, Edna was 2. Now days women think they have a lot to do with little children. I thought I had a lot of time to rest and knit and sew although I had no electric iron. I had no washing machine or any other device for saving work except my sewing machine, not even a clock until your father brought one home from Portland. (The old black one we had on the clock shelf in the dining room.) I baked, cooked and canned with our own labor everything we ate. I knit all of your stockings and made all your coats, hats etc. When we went camping I had not floors to scrub or sweep. I even had time to take two babys all washed and dressed as clean as I knew how and go to Mrs. Porters nearly half a mile away so I could take painting lessons. I can't remember how or when I got my colors but I think your papa brought them to me from Portland, so I began on the Rose picture and then the marine scene.

In the early 1900's

This is the old house in Pine Grove, Oregon. Grandmother used to use the old cherry pitter. Hollyhocks bending in the summer wind and the warm sun, chicks pecking and clucking in the door yard. Grandma was always baking bread, cookies, pies and churning butter. There was a natural spring up the road.

There was a long row of poplar trees down the drive. You can still see where the old grainery stood by the Dalles Road and where the rows of Poplar stand. This grainery was built after the homestead burned.

Virgie went on to say, "Your Papa helped build the grainery on the exact location of the old homestead."

"I remember vividly the clouds of dust filling the air when the Indians came down the road for every special occasion. Always in huckleberry and fishing season. They would come in long strings on their Indian Ponies, leather moccasins, bright skirts, always a bandana tied around their heads and men wearing large black hats.It is still a mystery to me how they crossed the wide Columbia River on their horses to get to the huckleberry fields."

"I went over to visit Grandmother Pease across the Columbia. About two weeks later Papa rowed over to get me. Sadie Orser walked with us to the river. The next day we went to the Dalles, Lulu Rand went with us and we were married. Lulu married George Horning. They had a daughter Edna who was a very good friend of Myra's." Edna married Dale George and she is still living in Ashland, Oregon. (1985)

A month after Sherman and Virgie were married Sherman wrote his mother and sisters.

April 1896

Dear Mother and All;
I am trying to live a better life than I have. I have the name of being the moral man of the valley and I am glad. I belong to the Odd Fellows. Sometime I may join the Masons. We are both trying to live Christian lives. Some young people are talking of going to the top of Mt. Hood. If they do I think I will go with them. The Columbia Educational Club here is going to have a picnic lunch.

Virginia (Ordway) Young wrote on the back of the picture taken in 1907, "Here is me in October 1907 with apples on display. Your Papa had just put in the new Soda Fountain and swinging doors to give more privacy to the Lovers and Spooners who came to eat ice cream."

The year before the Youngs did extensive remodeling, a dumb waiter was added. They hired a Japanese boy to help in the kitchen and Marie Kautz (a long time friend of the family) to help with the children.

The store was opened on the first Tuesday in November 1904. Sherman and Virgie did all the work. They served lunches and had a lovely confectionery, served all kinds of fruit in season. The store was in Hood River, Oregon. Virgie was 24 and Sherman was 37.

VIRGIE YOUNG

On December 17, 1905 Virgie wrote back to Maine,"We have taken in $6,770.00 in all and about 10% of that is profit. There is another store that opened up this fall but our's is still the nicest place in town. I do not care much whether we sell or not. My time to work is from supper time until 11:00 or even 3:00a.m.according to whether there is a dance or not." "Sherman is putting the children to bed. Myra is in the First Reader and is so proud. She is going to sing in the class at the United Brethern Church Christmas and speak her first piece at school. Our store is facing North. The children have some yard to play in." "I don't like to keep store on Sunday but that is the day people eat ice cream.

Sometimes we have extra orders for dances. We make 250 sandwiches. Sherman goes up to serve them. Then he has the dishes to wash. There are not many orders until 10:00 or 11:00 o'clock. When the dances and theater is out they come in to order fries, stew or sandwiches and coffee. Last night we had 30 orders.

The following letters were written by Virginia Muzzey Ordway, The first one was written to Sherman Mills, Maine to her future mother-in-law Mrs. Mary Ann Townsend, on June 23rd 1985. After she married Sherman Young, the many letters were written not only to her mother-in-law but also to Sherman's two sisters, Alice (Young) Tracy and Sadie young. (see page 202)

Sadie Young saved the letters that were written by Virginia and when Sadie came west to live with Virgie in 1926 she brought them with her. I don't know why Grandmother's letters didn't show up when Sherman's letters were found about five years ago when they were used in the Young book, "The Maine Events in the Young Family" Since this is the Ordway-Kennedy story it is best that we use only Virginia's even though they were written to the Young family.

The letters reveal some happy successful times along with the very poor days, many heartbreaking events and the true spirit of a lady who loved the Lord, her husband and children. Grandmother kept her faith.

Virginia recorded her daily events perhaps the best lines were about her children and husband.

The last letters were written in 1918 about the time I was born. Almost twenty-five years as though she were writing a diary.

Dear Mother; October 1897

We have the best little girl in the world. She is fat and her hair is brown and my mother says, "She looks as I did as a baby."

Dear Sisters and Mother; January 1898

Ida sent the presents over to us New Years. We think you are very nice to remember us. I did not have the time or the money or I would have remembered you. The lamp shade is very pretty. It is something new out here. My pin cushion is real nice. Myra's shoes were rather too small but she can wear them. Sherman got a box of Authors. I got a lot of letter paper and envelopes, a white wool facinator and a slipper case. Florence sent baby a pretty quilt cover. Is Alice married yet? Has Mr. Tracy a nice home or family? How long will they be gone on their wedding trip? I hope she will have a good time and get rested.

Sherman has ten more acres to clear, so we are moved over here near Bayards where we were last spring. We may be here until April then Sherman will go to Eastern Oregon and baby and I will be alone. She is very fat and weighs 19 pounds. The cake was fine, just as good as ever. Will Alice keep house in Stacyville? Sherman is singing so loud to baby I can hardly think. She loves so much to play with her daddy after work. Sherman sends love.

19 January 1900
Hood River, Ore.

Dear Alice and Sadie;

I am glad you had so many presents. We did not get any except from you people and cousins. I got the yarn alright. I will make Myra's pair of mittens larger and save those Sadie sent for my boy.

It rains and shines by turns and there is fog. I am afraid you would not get used to the dampness. Myra is asleep, she is a funny baby. She says, "sunny" and that is just as appropriate. You would love and enjoy her if you could be with her. Sherman got her an A.B.C. book for Christmas. She knows almost every word.

We have mother's picture that Sherman brought and when Myra wants him to carry her she says, "Please Mryra wants to see Grandma." When he carries her to where it hangs she says, "Grandma way road." She asks lots of questions and gets into mischief, but she is not as bad as she used to be. She understands and minds better than she did. We go to bed at eight and get up at six. Sherman gets so tired and people out here don't visit much.

Dear Sadie; 8 July 1900

Sherman was working five weeks, home nights and Sundays. He is at work for a neighbor but will go into the harvest field soon.

Bayard and family have gone overland to see Ida's people. Myra grows and is lots of company. She weighs 35 pounds. Her hair is long enough to braid, but I do it up on kids. (curlers) It looks prettier that way. I have 20 quarts of fruit and jelly and raspberries to can tomorrow. I have over 40 quarts of fruit and pickles left from last year.

October 1900

I have been trying to get my sewing done but it is slow sewing without a machine. I hope to have one next Spring. We have named the baby "Edna Mary". She has large blue eyes, her hair is reddish brown but it is coming in lighter. I will send a little lock. She does not have the colic like Myra did. She is a very good baby. Myra is a big girl and is quite a lot of help as well as trouble.

My Dear Mother; 21 July 1901

Sherman wants very much to see you before he goes harvesting. I want you and Sadie to stay with me while he is gone. We say every day we wish you were here. I hate to have Sherman go. Mama has a baby boy three weeks old. (Edgar Kennedy born 27 June 1901.)

Alice and Mr. Tracy look years younger for their trip. I went to Sunday School. Everyone inquired for you. The Mrs. Robinson Sadie met at Odell Easter is anxious to know her. She is coming to see her.

Sunday Evening
Dear Sister Alice; 8 September 1901

Dinner is almost ready and Sherman and Mother have not come. I will write some but Sadie has told of everything of interest. Sherman is working away but is home nights. Sadie is better than I expected she would be after her hard trip to Goble. You do not know how glad I was to get them back again. Baby is as cute as she can be. (Edna Mary Young) Wish Mr. Tracy could see her now. Thank you for the tie. Your picture was fine.

I have put up over 100 quarts of fruit and jelly, every time Sherman eats any he wishes you people could have some. Sherman is the kindest husband but he is very particular but I am glad. I wish you could see him with the babies on his knee. He will rock and sing to them as long as they will be still. He makes the most fuss over his children of anyone I ever saw. We get lonesome when he is away at work. Florence talks of coming up this fall. (Sherman's sister) Myra is falling asleep in her chair.

Since writing to mother we have had the stairway built and are having the kitchen plastered.

Sherman saw Bayard in town yesterday. He did not know whether you were coming or not. Bring winter clothes. We have had cold weather sometimes. I have dreamed of you every night since getting your letter. We shall be glad to see you.

Dear Sister Sadie; 9 December 1901

I hope you are well and getting along fine. I baked apple pies and cookies this morning and went over to Janes this evening. I knit a heel in Sherman's stocking. Jane has a machine like Ida's.

I had Mama up here for three weeks and got my sewing nearly done. I made Myra a real pretty jacket. We were down to Mrs. Robertsons yesterday. She has a baby girl three weeks old and four children more.

For Thanksgiving dinner we had roast duck and chicken, cranberries, biscuit, sweet potatoes, coconut cake and pumpkin pie.

Sherman worked at home today. The first day in a long time. He put a new back in the fireplace, sorted the apples and mended the fence where Mr. Turner's calf got out.

I set the quilt mother gave me and am going to tack it this week. Edna can say, "Come, peak a boo and rock a by" and she tried to stand on the stove when there was a fire in it because she saw Sherman do it. Lots of love to you and dear mother.

29 December 1901
Dear Alice; Hood River, Oregon

We received your very nice and useful presents for which we thank you. We expected nothing as we could not give. We received a great deal. I was given a black dress and napkin rings from my people, some ribbon, a picture, a little mat from Florence and Mrs. Turner gave Edna some blocks and clothes pins.

The next time mother goes down to see about her pension I am going to take the children down and have their pictures taken. Mother has on that beautiful pink ribbon you sent Florence and she looks as pretty as a girl. (Mother Townsend, Virgie's mother-in law)

Tell Mr. Tracy I will write him next and would enjoy eating melon and apples with him. Sherman bought 100 pounds of pears, 75 pounds of peaches and I will get 100 pounds of tomatoes, so I will have my jars full.

My Dear Mother; 23 December 1902

It is snowing hard, about 14 inches has fallen. We went to a basket social at the school house. We had a nice time. Myra and I both had one. Ben Lage bought Myras for a $1.50. They cast shadows of the ladies on the curtains and the men bid on them. I was the first and neither Sherman or Mama knew me. Sherman bought Tillie Morh and Mrs. Mott's baskets. Mr. Gemell got Effie Robinsons.

Dear Sister Alice; 13 February 1903

I am alone with the babies. Myra wanted to go with Sherman, so I got her ready to go. I am sorry your health is so poor. I have a great blessing in my health. Your photo was splendid. Alice you can not guess how much I want to see you. You must not blame Bayard for getting mother out here, if he had not got her out here we would never have seen her. It is the greatest pleasure we ever had to have you both visit us and to have Sadie and Mother here. I only wish we could do more for all of you. I am afraid Sadie will have more ambition than strength.

Mr. Gemmell said that if he stopped in Portland this week as he goes through he would call on you.

When Edna got up in the morning she looked out the window and saw the calf laying down, she turned around and said to me, "Mama that cow has got a rabbit."

Chester Sears baby was burned to death. He lived one week.

9 March 1903

We had not heard a word about your fire until we read your letter. Were you not full of fright? I should have been. If I had a suitable hat and wrap for Kelsey I would have come down and see if I could get some things I need for summer. I saw Mr. Gemmel at a masquerade. He did not dance and soon went home. He asks of you when I see him.

If I had time to paint I should do nothing else for awhile. I went to the dance the night of my birthday, about 80 people were there. I left Rufus with the children and went with Ralph and Sherman.

Mama gave me a dozen eggs for my birhtday. Mrs Sears and Gladys gave me a tea rose. Edna talks about you and wants to go when I do.

I am making the mixed red and brown dress for Myra that Alice sent last winter.

28 March 1903

The wind is blowing hard and it is raining and sunny by spells. Sherman sent in his resignation and Kelsy cut his first tooth last Wednesday. We have not heard from Alice since she sent Sherman on special detective work. Edna waked up this morning and said she was lonesome without you and wanted lots of us to sit down to the table and somebody to read and sing. I guess that meant she was lonesome for Aunt Sadie too. Today we went across the River and got lots of fruit.

31 May 1903
Hood River, Ore.

Sunday. Kelsey is a great big boy and can shake his head when his papa does. Edna and Myra want to come and see you. Myra wanted me to tell you she loves you lots. We went on an excursion down and back for 25 cents.

Sherman is plowing. I wish I could see your lovley flowers. The girls are so much company.

Dear Mother and Alice; 18 January 1904

I do not want you to go back east. I want you to come to stay with us where you can get all the milk and butter and anything else we have and you want and I can take care of Sadie while you visit with Bayard and Florence. How much I want to see you both. It seems an age since October. Ned helped Sherman saw the wood for two weeks. He is helping Bayard. He bought a power saw. Why can't Mr Tracy come?

Dear Mother; 25 January 1904

Sherman got into Neal Creek and lost all of the mail. The creek was swollon so when he drove into it, it took the horses off their feet snd they nearly drowned before he could get them unharnessed. They were so cold "Old Frank" just groaned until he put him in the barn and covered him with blankets. It took five men three hours to get the wagon out and ready to start. Sherman was wet to his skin and up to his waist in water but did not get cold. It broke the tongue of the wagon and the top.

Wednesday I went visiting with the children and came home upset. Baby, Myra and I went out into the road, and "Frank" the horse, came on the road with Edna until he came to the bridge and rubbed the cart against the bridge. There Mrs. Wells found him and got Edna out unhurt. She said, "Myra and Mama were lost." We went as fast as we could to the bridge before Sherman so we could save him a scare. Edna is as sweet as ever and was not even frightened.

Dear Mother; 10 May 1904

Sherman has the lowest part of the hollow ploughed and all the trees set, one acre of strawberries and about one acre in beans, corn and potatoes. I have 80 feet of peas up and more planted. I hope to sell lots of vegetables this summer. We will plant about 10 sacks of potatoes this week and the rest of the garden seeds. Sherman has been home-sick lately.

We think of you every day Mother. Alice is a good girl to get you such nice things. I know you are well cared for and more comfortable then we were able to make you, so I have tried to reconcile myself to the thought of having you so far away, but it seems you have gone out of our lives forever.

Myra said, "Oh! goody, goody" when she found out the letter was from you. She has had lots of pleasure from the little dresses. I have put some away for Ruth. Tell Mr. Tracy we will eat some shortcake for him. Lots of love from all of us.

26 June 1904
Hood River, Oregon

Dear Mother;

I was glad to get your welcome letter. Linnie was here today. We are going to thin apples a few days this week, then she is going to help me get some sewing done for myself and the children. We bargained to sell the place yesterday and will move in a couple of weeks. $3.000 for the place, 14 hens, a few chickens, a fork, hoe, shovel, rake, fork for potatoes and a spade. He will pay us $50.00 for the cow. Florence has the heifer. I shall be sorry when it comes time to take her away.

August 1904

I canned 27 quarts of strawberries and 2 quarts of gooseberries. I will have some currant and gooseberry jam. I will can the Royal Anns at 4 cents per pound and the Bings for 8 cents a pound.

We took a picnic dinner and went to town with Mother and Mrs. Peake to see the soldiers. It was a grand sight and many more of them than I expected. Ed Cushman marched with the rest of them and was as gay as a boy. Mrs. Peake enjoyed herself very much. She stayed here one night but I wrote and told her she could not go to Bayards as the Dr. had forbidden Sadie seeing anyone.

My Dear Mother; 8 November 1904

Did you get the jars alright? Since we came home we have painted the living room and bedroom floors, cut out where the windows were and put in a door with glass in it, then Mrs. Van Allen helped me paper the room we used as the kitchen and it makes a splended dining room. The front room paper is pink with a light ceiling and Sherman traded potatoes for a new hanging lamp, so it looks real comfortable.

21 November 1904

The children are playing out of doors today but probably not be able to do so many more days this winter. Sherman likes our new store.

Florence's family have the small pox. Ed. had a slight stroke. I go to church in the evening and Sherman stays home with the babies. We have done well since we came here. It is the first time since we were married that we have been really independent. We have added to our store every month. When we sell here I am going to send Sherman back there on a visit and we want you to come back when he does.

3 December 1904

I am very glad the small pox are over, although Myra is the only one who broke out. The others only had chills and fever for about two days. Did you get the picture of baby?

I am sure if Sadie were here she could eat a little boiled rice with Jersey milk. Sherman is working at Mama's. He will be there for dinner. I am selling 2 lbs. of butter per week. It sells for 60¢ a pound and eggs sell for 35¢ a dozen.

28 December 1904

Dear Alice;

Thanks for the paper weight of the church and Mr. Bumpus and the other things. If you could hear Kelsey laugh and crow when I lather his head you would think he appreciated his present too. Edna is so sweet with long golden curls and pretty teeth and eyes. Mother almost worships her. I think Kelsy's gloves are as cute as he does. Sherman is proud of his red topped boots too. Thanks for the apron. We are going to send you some little odds and ends soon for you and Mr. Tracy.

I have made up that pretty piece of gray for myself and it looks real nice. I also made Myra a red dress and Edna a brown one out of those pieces you gave me. Stella made Kelsey two dresses.

My Dear Mother; 24 February 1905

It is a lovely day. I was over to see Mrs. Turner Monday p.m. I went to the Ladies Aid and Tuesday to the memorial service for Frances Willard. I am going to join the W.C.T.U. They have closed the saloons in Hood River and I hope they will stay closed. Kelsy grows fatter every day. He wears a number 6 shoe. Edna weighs 42½ pounds and is 41 inches tall.

It has been four hours since I began this letter and I have been cooking, washing dishes, putting children to bed. They were in bed went I went over but I read them four chapters in Isaiah and now will try to finish this. Our ice cream season has begun. We sold four gallons yesterday and today. One gallon and a half were for a special order, the rest was in dishes.

Dear Mother; 4 March 1905

This is Mama's birthday. She is 45. Will got her a nice lounge for her sitting room and he is the one who will wear it out. She has just repapered. They are all well but do not get ahead any. His interests are all out side his home. Mama's health is poor but she is always at work.

Do you remember the place where the little saw-mill was? On the road between our place and Bayards. 80 acres or about that sold yesterday for $20.000. It sold about a year before you came for $5.000 and three years ago for $7.500. You will hardly know the valley when you come again. It is building up very fast. The town is growing too. There are two new general merchandise stores, a real estate office, for which Nettie Kemp is stenographer and book keeper and all the business houses in town are increasing their room and stock getting ready for strawberry pickers. The railroad is nearly finished.

I have not seen Florence's place but think she would have been better off to get more land and sell off a part later. The boys could have cleared it up at odd jobs. She has a good home for them and has taken pleasure in planning for it and buying her furniture. Otis has improved greatly. If Ned would take a dose of "religion" they might have a very respectable home. I think Florence has a little more faith in Otis than she did at first. Give my love to Sadie, Alice and Mr. Tracy. How we would like to see you all.

We think the postals are very pretty. Sherman got some of the Fair buildings which he will send to Sadie. With love I remain your friend.

Dear Sister Sadie; 27 April 1905

We are very busy and the warm season has only begun. Sherman went to Portland. As soon as the store is finished we will move down there. We will only have two rooms at present. We may build one more if the business pays. Our place was sold again for $3,600 so Hood River property has not dropped. We have a kitchen and bedroom in the back of the store and today Sherman is building a cellar in the ground. We will send you a picture of the store, a traveling photographer took it. I thought you would like it.

7 August 1905

I let Edna open her package. She was so pleased and they were a good fit too. Sherman is in Portland and the children are in bed. Kelsey slept on a big valise while I was tending store tonight. We have one girl in the kitchen and one in the store. Sherman says if we make as much money in the next ten months as we have in the last ten we will all go back to Maine on a visit. Yesterday Edna was five. She is a sweet girl.

I don't think I told you Myra and Sherman went to the Fair. Myra rode on a large wagon with the rest of the school children.

20 August 1905

I don't like to keep store on Sunday but that is the day people eat ice cream. Clement came last night. He and Sherman have gone out to see Florence and Bayard. He is a very nice appearing boy. He took hold here and waited on the tables and washed dishes last night. He is working in the Telegraph office in the Dalles for three weeks. We are going to Portland next week. Edna says each day, "Mama I love Grandma more than anyone don't I ?"

19 November, 1905

My Dear Mother;

You are interested in the W.C.T.U. So I will tell you about the State Convention at the Dalles. Myra is out of school today. She is so active and full of mischief. I don't know hardly what to do with her when she is home. We have no yard to speak of and I don't want her in the street.

Dear Sister Alice; 17 December 1905

We sent a little package of candy. Just a few samples to Mr. Tracy and a little book for Mother and a picture for Sadie. I am sending you a little badge that Sherman wore in Portland in the Rose Show.

We have taken in $6,770.00 in all about 10% of that is profit. There is another store that opened up this fall but our's is still the nicest place in town. I do not care much whether we sell or not.

My time is free from supper time until 11:00 to 3:00 a.m. according to whether there is a dance or not.

I wish you could see Florence since she came back from Portland. She looked almost as stylish as you do in a nice black cape and a velvet hat which was very becoming. Bless her dear heart she had done without so long. She certainly deserved her good fortune. I think Uncle Ed. will be contented to live in Hood River now. She says Otis doesn't swear anymore but gets mad about as bad as ever.

I do not see Ida very often. She is not very strong this winter. Bayard is not getting much richer. I do not see how they make a living.

Sherman is putting the children to bed. Myra is in the First Reader and is so proud. She is going to sing in the class at the United Brethern Church Christmas and speak her first piece at school.

Tell Mr. Tracy if he were here he could have all the candy he could eat. I am afraid the chocolate will be mashed when they get there. We did not have room for all the kinds.

Dear Sister Alice; 4 March 1906

Sherman and I have made a resolution to write home once a week. I can not tell how long it will last but we will try to find the time somehow. We wrote to Mother last Sunday. A nice letter from her on Monday. I will answer your letter today and Sadie's next time. It has been a very pretty day. Only three in to breakfast. Myra and I cleaned up the rooms and I read to them until Kelsey went to sleep. Sherman took them over to the house and went to sleep too. Our store is facing north. The children have some yard to play in. We rent all the house except the two front rooms which we kept for our own sleeping rooms. We cook & eat here. I don't have anytime for company so we have no use for a parlor. It is not much like home but if we have a good season we will have a chance to get a better one.

Dear Mother And All; 12 January 1907

We are glad that Alice and Mr. Tracy are coming out. Wish you Sadie could come.

The coasting is good. Sherman took the children up town and let them slide down a few times. Kelsey has written you a few notes he says, "He has made a bistake." He has a good time with his sled. Myra is in the third grade. They are all in bed. Myra gets from 85-95. Edna gets 90 to 100%.

My Dear Mother; 6 February 1907

Sherman and the children have gone for a walk. There has been no sleighing or skating. The ground has not been frozen one day this month. I make 35 to 40 loaves of bread, two or three cakes, 15 or 20 pies and two or three batches of doughnuts a week.

My Dear Sister Sadie; 17 March 1907

I baked a large cake yesterday and frosted it for dinner so the children would remember it. We are very happy. If only you could be here we would have nothing to wish for. Sherman is such a good boy. He is so thoughtful and unselfish toward the children and I. We have three of the healthiest children in town and a good business. I think we have much to be thankful for.

18 March 1907

It is Sunday and we have had our dinner. Clem. is here. We had a complete surprise for Sherman. He had forgotten what day it was and did not even after he saw the cake until he read the date on top. It is chilly. The tops of the mountains are white.

Dear Mother; 19 March 1907

Kelsey wrote you a letter this morning. He said, "Dear Grandma; It is raining here. How are you? Love Kelsey Ordway Young." Then he wrapped it up in a piece of red paper and started to the Post Office and you ought to have heard him cry when we told him the Post Master would not send it that way. So we told him we would send it to you in an envelope. We are well.

Dear Mother And Sadie; April 1907

I know you want to know about Kelsey's sickness. He has always had large tonsils and when he took cold it was hard for him to breath. Last Thursday he had a little fever and after he ate his breakfast he threw it up. I thought it was just indigestion and did not let him eat anymore. I gave him an enema and thought he would be alright. He played about and did not seem to feel bad until Sunday when we noticed he held his mouth funny. I never thought to look in his throught. In the evening he seemed worse. When I looked at his tonsils they seemed very large and there was a patch on them. I put sulpher in his throat. In the morning he was much worse. I called Dr. Dumble. He loved Kelsy and did everything he could for him. He did not think it was dyptheria but called it tonsilitis and thought I ought to have called him sooner. I was not worried about him at all until Tuesday, when I was giving him some hot milk. He went to sleep or seemed drowsy and wanted me to lay him on his bed. He said, "Leave my clothes on Mama." I kept him in bed and he seemed so much worse I thought he might not get well again. The Dr. came in about an hour and Kelsey was so much worse he stayed with him. He called another Dr. and they did everything they could for him. It was not long before his little hands began to get cold. Dr. Dumble said just before the end, "If he can live through the night, he will get well." Perhaps we loved Kelsey more than the Lord when I think of it now I'm sure we worshiped him.

Dear Sister Sadie; 27 April 1907

Alice and Sherman are having a good time. I do not know if I can write without getting mixed up with their talk. We were going to ride out today but we could not get a team. We went to Bayard's and Florence's for a short visit Thursday. Bayard is getting better but it will be quite a while before he can work.

My Dear Sister Sadie; 19 May 1907

I let the children play with Kelsey's doll you sent him for Christmas. The girls got a good average in their school report, 80-95%. Edna can read pretty well.

Sherman got the picture of Mr. Jackman's house the day Kelsey died (9 April 1907). If we do as well in the next two years as we did in the last we will own our house and lot in town, as well as our business. There are a lot of ifs in this world but perhaps we can overcome some of them.

My Dear Mother. June 1907

Sherman will only have a few days off if any as it is impossible to get any one to take his place. He needs the rest almost as much as I do. Perhaps he inherits his will power from you. I am completely tired out.

Ed came and brought the boys straw hats and Florence a real pretty brown straw with ribbon and for-get-me-nots on it. I hope she will like it.

We were out to Pine Grove last Saturday evening to a Basket Social. We had to lock the store but it was worth it. We have a girl working in the store and she made us each a basket just alike. Sherman was the auctioneer. Sherman didn't know our basket but A.I. Mason did and my step-father (William Kennedy) wanted mine. So when the first one of our's came up I told him and he began to bid but let it go to Frank Dethman for $2.50., so when Mr. Mason saw ours were the two baskets that Kennedy was after he bid against "Will" until "Will" bid $14.00. Sherman said he would bid $15.00 if someone would bid $24.00. Mason held out quite a while but he wanted that $15.00 so bad that he said, "$24.00" (Mason was the Worthy Master and wanted the proceeds for the new grange hall.) Then he put the basket up again and after some bidding "Will" got it for $10.00. So my basket sold the highest ever known in Pine Grove for $37.00. Then they voted the most popular young lady who was to get a cake, also to a young man. "Will got the cake for being the most popular young man.

I wish you could have a jar of the grape jelly I made yesterday. I had six quarts and a dozen glasses full. I am getting some nice peas and beans from my garden. The lettuce has been lovely. We have had raspberries at the store for a long time. We are now getting cantaloupe and peaches.

Myra is a large girl, as tall as my shoulder and so much help to me. Edna is still the best natured and easily managed but they are both good girls. I am trying to make up for lost time but lost time is hard to overtake.

Dear Mother; 19 July 1907

Sherman was up to dinner with us today. He has been up several Sundays and a few week days since we moved. He goes away as soon as he gets up and does not come home until 10:00 or 11:00 at night. We had mashed potatoes, creamed onions, beet pickles, fresh tomatoes, baked apples and cream, rice pudding and apple pie. I made the pie yesterday. When we were in Portland I found a coat sale so I bought each of the girls a heavy coat that will last them for at least two winters, for 98¢ each. They would have cost at least $2.00 at any other time. I have nearly everything ready except the night dress and dresses. It is hard for me to sew for a very long time.

Dear Mother; August 1907

We moved everything out today and took up the old floor and will have the floors oiled and the walls papered so it will be easier to keep clean. Sherman will have to go to Portland in a few days. The girls and I will go with him. Ralph told me in his last letter that he thought he would go to Aroostook, Maine in September.

Dear Mother; 23 August 1907

We went to pick berries but I did not get any real rest, there were so many hills to climb and it took nine gallons of huckleberries to supply our table while we were gone. We brought home nearly 13 gallons. It was damp and rainy nearly half the time. It kept us busy drying our clothes and getting wood. Edna had the whooping cough when we had been there one week and it kept us up nights. We really had a good time. Edna couldn't climb the mountains so we tied her to a tree so she wouldn't get lost. Rufus took us up to the lake and "Will" came after us. Wallie, Bertha and the young people had been there two weeks but came home when we had been there five days.

Dear Mother; 9 September 1907

The children and I went out to the valley and were gone ten days. We stopped at Mama's while she was in Portland. We stayed two nights with Mrs. Jarvis, one with Mrs. George Robinson, one with Van Allen who brought us to town. We took dinner with Mrs. D.H. Sears, also Mrs. Mason. I made ten calls at other places. Mable Robinson has taken some lessons and can paint quite a nice picture.

15 October 1907

We only had two helpers and served over 200 full meals and lunches Saturday. We took in $93.00 that day and had fully 600 customers. Our business is growing every day. Next year we will have things a little easier as we will cut the restaurant.

28 November 1907

I can not help wishing we had our baby but I know there is a reason for his being taken and we will know some day. Ask Alice when she is going to occupy the California house? We will come down and pay them a visit.

I had two turkeys, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, cauliflower, apple pie, loganberry jelly, apple salad, mashed potatoes, celery, grapes, cake, mince and pumpkin pie and grape punch.

Dear Mother; 25 December 1907

It is Christmas and raining hard. We have been very busy this past week. Thank you for the dolls for the girls. I have to hire the girls dresses made so the doll dresses will have to wait. The little cream pitcher is very pretty. Thank you for remembering m. Sherman liked his picture. He needed the slippers you sent. The children had a Christmas tree and trimmed it themselves. Grandpa Turner got it for them and we put the presents on at one o'clock in the morning.

Dear Family; 7 January 1908

Sherman goes about two miles from home to cut wood. They go at seven and come back at six-thirty. By the time he has eaten and the chores done it is time to go to bed. Baby is crying she wants to play on the floor. She is cunning. I don't know what you will do when you come back. She is so sweet to play with. I am glad you sent the wool pieces. It will make the children something warm and durable. I have just made the girls some nice dresses. I think they are real pretty. I trimmed Myra's with the lace you sent and used the black velvet ribbon. Edna's with pink ribbon and bows on the shoulders and lace in the neck line.

We took Christmas dinner with Mama. They had fried chicken and oysters with lots of nuts and candy.

We have a horse and a two seated buggy. If you and Mr. Tracy ever visit us again and I certainly hope you will you will not have to sit in the house or wade in the mud.

We had a wind storm Wednesday and it blew the frame off Bayards new barn door. It also moved the church over four feet. Sherman is so pleased with the handkerchief and cuff buttons. Myra is pleased with the handkerchief and ribbon.

Dear Mother; 17 May 1908

Sherman got your letter and I am wondering who informed you in regard to news in "July". If you hear any good news from me it will not be until August unless my signs fail. I have been intending to write to Sadie and tell her I could not bear to have Ida take all the honors without my doing anything about it. I shall be very happy and only hope it is a boy but I shall be glad with what ever God chooses to give us. I have helped with the cooking. We moved into the cottage the lst of May. Sherman has come home every night except two, although he had a bed left there when he was too tired to come home. We had to leave nearly all the furniture to the help so I have some nice new furniture. It seems real nice.

Myra is large and is a lot of help. I have not got my sewing finished. We are planning a trip to Portland the first of June to the "Rose Carnival" so I will have to sew fast to get it done.

Dear Mother; 23 August 1908

We received your pretty cards and I have put the babies away for her until she is old enough to know about it. She will be glad grandma remembered her so soon. She is a sweet baby but not as good as the other children were. Sherman is very proud of baby but can't think of any name good enough for her. I wanted to call her Florence, but he did not. So I guess she will name herself. School commences in a week. I hardly know what I will do without Myra and Edna, they are so much help. Myra has been down at the store helping Sherman for two days. I am rather sorry to see cooler weather come as I will have to keep the fire sooner on baby's account.

Since we moved I have had the girls with me nearly every hour. I am trying to teach them to sew, Edna can shell the peas, snap the beans and do all sorts of errands. Myra has hemmed all the diapers, washes dishes, she can get most of the vegetables ready and put them on to cook and she has baked cookies several times.

Dear Mother; 6 October 1908

Baby and I have been over town this p.m. We had some post cards, photos and stamps. I hope they are good. We were over town on Saturday and saw the President. (President Taft.)

We plan to name baby, Esther Wilhelmina for the Director of Art in the Portland schools. She gets a salary of $15.000 a year.

Dear Mother; 8 October, 1908

I am sending the pictures for you. The one where baby is alone is taken in the girls doll buggy with the dolls quilt that you made for Myra. She wanted to put her hands in her mouth so her face doesn't show very well.

Dear Mother; 11 October 1908

It is such a long time since we had a letter. I am getting homesick. It is too bad we can't visit any other way. Our Fair is this week and I wish Jacob could see the fruit. Baby does not grow very fast. I had to wean her at 8 weeks and food does not agree with her. It is seven and she has a bottle and is good. I usually undress her about this time. She is usually good nights.

My Dear Mother;

The babies and I were out to Odell last week.

Poor Alice, I fear she is going to loose the best husband on earth. It is just a week since my dear uncle Julius was laid away. He died May 27th after a long illness and much silent suffering. Ralph, Sherman and I went down to Portland to the service. Mama and Rufus came from Rainier. The service was very nice, simple and lots of beautiful flowers. His work was done. Why should I grieve but I do and miss him so much?

Sherman and I went out to the Pine Grove Grange Hall dedication last Wednesday. We had a fine time. There was a nice dinner in the dining room which seats about 150 people. We went on the train which leaves here at 8:00 a.m. and stops at the hall. Tell Alice it is at the Butte Van Horn Station.

Dear Mother;

We are having lovely weather and I think we will go to Mama's the 24th or 25th. They have lots of wild blackberries and several cows. Rufu was over here the 4th, Ralph went t Mama's last week so if we go down we will all be together again.

Sherman has disposed of his restaura and is going to take a short trip in Washington to take a chance on the land which is being thrown open for entry the 9th of August. I hope he will get something out of it. He ha worked so hard for the last two year so I am glad he is out of the busine at last. We will make an honest liv g somehow. The Lord provides for thos who use their fellow man right, so H will provide for us.

31 July 1909

My Dear Sadie;

We are camping at Warrenton, Oregon in an open space entirely surrounded by Spruce and Elder trees. Smith Lake which is one mile long and eigh and a quarter miles wide is on the east within a stones throw and the ocean is about 3/4's of a mile in a straight line. We can hear the roar in the distance. When we go to the ocean we have to go up over a beautifully wooded ridge. There are 40-50 tents beside the cottages. There is a large open auditorium where the different churches and Y.W.C.A. hold their conventions. The Clatsop Beach C.L.S.C.E. convention held a 10 day meeting since we came. There is also a nice dining room and hotel on the knoll. The water is not very good. Our fuel does not cost as much here, milk and butter are cheaper, fruit is higher when we can find it except when I can pick wild blackberries. Edna and I went out yesterday and got some raspberries at 5¢ a box by picking them, then we found some Salallberries and picked a gallon. Edna and I dug a pail of clams Friday. Last Friday we went to Ft. Stevens, which is about 5 miles from here. We walked both ways climbing back through the timber which we found very poor and hard walking. Edna is a jolly good comrad to take on a trip and she never complains and she is getting pretty.

We got your letter the day we left Rainier. We stayed at Mama's just two weeks and got over 40 quarts of blackberries, jelly and jam.

Dear Sister Sadie;

We are just getting settled. We moved in her September 14th. It is nice and large with pantry and bath. I hope to rent a couple of rooms then the rent will not cost as much. Sherman went to work this morning.

Dear Mother; 26 October 1909

I am sending a couple of pictures of Esther. Esther has a bank book showing a deposit of $5.00 in the Security Savings and Trust Co. She can't get it until she is 21, so by then she will have quite a deposit with the pennies she can save.

28 November 1909

Dear Mother;

Your letters came Thursday. We are always so glad to hear from you. We have been looking for some land. Yesterday Sherman and I went on the Electric nearly to Riverside Cemetery then took the Oregon Electric that runs between Salem and Portland and went as far as the Tualitin Valley in Washington County which is 14 miles from Portland. It was raining but we walked out to see a few farms and through a thick woods and came to an old, old farm house that had been deserted. The river flowed through the place and it must have been very nice at one time. The barn had fallen down & the house was almost ready to. We went home tired.

Dear Mother; 19 December 1909

Sherman and I went house hunting again today. (What a horrid task!) We did not find anything better than we have here. We will look again tomorrow. Sherman has a good place at Macy's Market and he thinks it will be permanent.

Dear Ones.

Thank you all for the dear little Christmas gifts. We are in an old house but it was papered and painted nice and clean. It has 6 rooms and an attic and on two car lines. We pay $15.00 per month. Sherman's work is not very easy because of the long hours. He gets $2.50 a day. He has been coming home to dinner since we have been here.

Dear Mother. 21 January 1910

Sherman gets $65.00 per month now with the promise of $75.00. I thin we can save for some land. It costs so much to live in the city. Eggs are 35¢ a doz. and butter is 90¢.

28 August 1910
Vancouver, Washington

Dear Mother;

We are all staying with Mama. (Grandma Ordway-Kennedy) We are going to run the prune dryer. It costs something to keep five in food and clothes. The girls can not go to school in town without good clothes Rufus took us for a 15 mile drive. We had to pick up prunes Sunday for a man whose crew did not show up. Mama and Dad Kennedy bought 80 acres for $12.000. There are lots of prune orchards.

Dear Mother; 14 September 1910

We have rented a small 5 room house and are almost settled. We are only a few minutes walk to the school. We have been going to church every Sunday. The preacher is an Englishman. Rufus is going to take a neighbor girl and myself over to the Church in Felida.

Dear Mother; 23 July 1911

You would like to see the girls. Myra can wear my plain waists, shoes and hose when she is out in company. She is very quiet and dignified. At home she looses her patience easily and scold more than she ought to. Edna is anything but dignified, in company she actually giggles, but she has a better carriage and style than Myra.

Dear Mother; 21 January 1912

We have cleaned house this week and have my curtains up. Sherman has been working at home and away. Heavy rains took all the snow off Sunday. The boys got in a full week in their clearing job. Instead of making Sadie a birthday present I am going to make myself one. Sherman is quite disgusted with me to think I have broken the rules. The baby is all named if it is a boy, "Charles Chamberlain." If it is a girl it will have to wait for a name.

Dear Ones; 13 February 1912

We were all so busy yesterday looking at the new baby that we did not have time to write you about her. She came Sunday evening about 11:00 o'clock and I am getting along nicely.

Dear Mother; 28 May 1912

Ilia lays in her cart and looks around and laughs at everyone. She has blue eyes and will look more like Edna. Sherman is going out to slash burn. Esther was out with him all p.m. and came in as hungry as a man. She went out doors last week and cut her hair on both sides so we had to trim it up quite short. It will be sometime before it is long enough for a picture. Ilia is so pretty and cute. Papa says her grandmother would think she is the cutest of them all.

Next Wednesday evening we are going to a Ladies Aid Social. Every one has to represent a book. Sherman will have a fish net thrown over him. "The Net" by: Rex Beach. Myra "The Old Fashioned Girl" with full skirt, a shawl and bonnet. I will take a sketch book sketching something to represent Irvins "Sketch Book." Myra is home from school and calling me to help her make candy to take to the party.

Dear Mother; 9 March 1913

We appreciate your kindness in sending so many things. We are so proud of the rugs. They must be Sadie's work. Were the patch squares for Edna and Myra or Esther and Ilia. Yesterday I finished a skirt for Myra. I cut Esther a union suit from a wool shirt. The overcoat is too narrow for Sherman across the shoulders. I will pass it on to Glen or Orie. It seems a shame to make over such a good garment. I shall use everything in the barretl before summer is over. We feel very glad to get them. We are having fine weather now a cool north wind is drying the ground off. I hope some day we will have an auto large enough to carry our family. Have I thanked you yet for my birth-day gift? My heart went out to you in sympathy when I read you longed for a little time for rest. What a few days rest would mean! Some days I get so tired I do not know whether I can take up the burden in the morning, but so far I have kept up and trust in God for strengh to carry on the tasks He has for me to do. There is another baby in August this year and I do hope for a little boy. Ilia is real sweet but no one knows how much I want a baby boy. Sherman wants to build on the house this summer. We are so crowded for bedroom space. Our rooms are large but it is hard not to have one bedroom downstairs. Then I would not have to carry Ilia upstairs. Isn't it fine for Bayard's to have a real house at last. It will mean so much to the children. Ruth wrote she was to have a bedroom all her own. Tell the girls I have a new waist piped with velvet and trimme on the cuffs with a ruffle of lace. I goes with my tailored suit which is brown. My hat has chinese pheasant feathers on it. It cos me $1.75 and the girl in the shop said it was worth $15.00.

Dear Mother; 13 May 1913

We are having warm days. We have much garden still to plant. My ducks are doing fine. I hatched 36 from 44 eggs. We have 275 chick ens setting. Myra will go to Hood River this month to spend the summer with Bertha, who is to give her music lessons. We will miss her very much. Edna is a large girl and such a help.

Dear Mother; 13 June 1913

I have not a minute to call my own except the time I lie down to rest. Your letter to Sherman was so nice I could not help crying. To think you are so far away from him. I appreciate your kind words to me about the way I prepare the food and sew. I feel I have done pretty good but there are other things so much more important in raising a family. I guess I have forgotten everything else except the material side of life. I am older now and trying my level best by our children. My prayer is that I may succeed in raising them right.

My Dear Mother; 1 July 1913

You will feel badly to know that the little baby passed on. It was born at least a month too soon. She was born Sunday at 1:00 a.m. She only lived 9 hours. Myra got home last evening and we laid the little baby to rest in the yard here at home as Sherman could not leave to go to Hood River. If we ever leave here she will remain here. Myra did not know about it until we told her last night. She feels bad. She thinks that if she hadn't gone to Hood River I would not have worked so hard but I told her it would have been just the same for if she had been home she would have been helping her father in the potatoes and corn so she should not worry about it. Myra named her Evelyn. There was no one here but ourselves although the neighbors came and brought some flowers and everyone was kind. One of our best neighbors sent me my dinner Sunday and five loaves of fresh bread.

Dear Mother; 13 July 1913

Myra has done all the house work and cooking since she came home.

She does splended. Edna is just at the age where she takes no interest in anything except the books she reads and going some where but she will come out alright in 2 or 3 years. I guess some children pass through that stage. Yesterday I finished quilting Ilia's little quilt for the crib. I love every stitch in it because Mother made it.

7 August 1913

The box arrived this morning by the Postman and we were delighted. Myra's dress looks so nice on her and was hardly crushed a bit. She was pleased with the purse and so happy to find some money in it. She said, "She had never had such a nice ribbon before." (Myra's birthday presents came early as her birthday was August the 22nd.)

I am growing stronger and feel quite well. Myra and I were cleaning the upstairs and I was looking at the brown silk dress you sent me. I think it will just fit. The style is good too. Edna and I hope to go to Hood River next week. We are patching and pressing our clothes.

23 August 1913
Odell, Oregon.

Ruth is writing a letter so I will send a line too. We are at Bayard's having a nice time. They have a nice large house. Florence has taken me over to visit the old neighbors. There are so many changes and improvements. She will take me over where Mama used to live. Myra wrote and said she was getting along alright with baby. I could hardly leave her.

19 October 1913
Vancouver, Washington

We received your nice Post cards. Sherman has bought a good mule team and we are trying to rent a little farm. Esther and Ilia are playing on the floor with him. They are very much like Edna and Myra were at their age but I guess Ilia will hardly be as meek as Edna was.

18 November 1913

Vancouver, Washington

My Dear Mother;

Here is a curl from Ilia's head. I am sending it now for she will soon have to have braids. Sherman went to Goble last week and will be gone with the mules for as long as he gets work. Esther has gone to the mail box with a letter for her papa. She misses him very much as she was out of doors with him whenever it was not raining. I have the cow, ducks and chickens to attend to.

Dear Mother; 28 December 1913

We received the Christmas box yesterday. We like the handkerchiefs and bows. The girls realy needed the ribbons. Grandpa Turner sent Myra a years subscription to the "Farm Journal." Sherman is back at Goble, Oregon. I went about 1½ miles with him. He is so blue to have to go back there alone. I always keep cheerful as I can and encourage him. He is doing well and I hope in a few months we will get ahead.

I baked cookies, cake, pie, chickens with dressing and made a batch of taffy and fudge for him to take back with him. I also baked loaves of brown and white bread. We sent you a box of prunes Happy New Year to all of you.

18 January 1914

Sherman will be home next Tuesday. He will do the clearing on ten acres. I am glad we got the team. I feel he is going to be better satisfied.

When the girls tell Esther they can not like her unless she is good She tells them, "I don't care mama loves me when I'm good or naught." I told her, "God loves us all the time whether we do right or wrong and that Mama's love the same."

Dear Mother; May 1914

Rufus is to be married soon and we are going to sell our interest in the place to him. We do not know what we are going to do but we are compelled to do something soon. Sherman can not get paying work here with the mules. I wish you were here to advise us. I left the girls alone last evening and went over to see Aunt Hannah and Uncle Wilbert.

Rufus is at Mama's. He is blasting rocks. Sherman has gone to bed. I have been reading him from "The Crossing" by Winston Churchhill.

18 October 1914

Does Science help one to train themselves for the daily cares and responsibilities? It seems to me I never have a moment to rest or to even read my Bible. What is the world coming to when people spend all their time on clothes and food or worrying about where the next job will come from. It can't be right but that is what most of us do. Money! How I hate the word and yet I wish there were more of it.

First I know Sherman would not come back there to live on account of the cold winters, next his pride would stand in the way. He thinks he ought to have more to show for what he has done in the years he has been "Out West." Sherman does not want to work for anyone but ourselves.

Dear Mother; 30 December 1914.

Your nice gift received today. Esther and Myra's mittens were just what they needed. They were just right. Their dolls are cute and the girls are very found of their ribbons. I certainly am fond of my apron, the slipper pincushion is too cute for anything. I will save it until we have a nice house to put it in. Ilia wanted the great big doll so we gave her the largest one of all. She got a set of tin dishes and Esther got a punch bowl and cups of glass. They had a lot of fun playing tea party. We thank you all very much.

Dearest Mother; 1915

How much I wish we could bring our five daughters back there for you to see and talk to. We think they are pretty and we think them very smart. What a reunion we could all have if we could meet at Bayard's home which is large enough to hold all the family young and old. They say you should not live in the past but I like to look back on the good times we had.

20 March 1915
Dear Mother; Eugene, Oregon

Sherman has work today for the man we are buying milk of. We had a house cleaning job and earned $10.00. Last week I earned $9.50 by cooking in the Fraternity building. I am going to help a women clean house next week.

Myra is putting her savings in the bank to go to school next winter on if she can.

Now dear family do not worry about us. I am sure we will get another start. Sherman tries very hard to succeed at every work he undertakes and works so hard. I want him to go get a ticket and have a change of scenery instead of moving away. Sherman is just the dearest and kindest father and husband in the world. Sherman wants a store and that is really the place for him.

Dear Mother; % E.B. Miles

You see Providence is still with us and we will soon be able to save a little nest egg, if we can stay here awhile. We are all well and I shall get fat on the good things to eat. You may wonder how they get enough supplies here so far from civilization, I did. Well they have large pack horses and they carry everything even the bed springs by taking them apart. The stove is very small to cook such a variety as they desire but I guess I shall be able to please them some how. They furnish lots of everything to do with. They want lots of rich food, meat three times a day, beside cakes, cookies and pies.

I am sending your letters from the girls. You will see they are getting along fine. Myra makes a pretty good Mother substitute.

23 April 1915
Strassel, Oregon

Dear Mother;

We came here the 5th. We have been pretty busy building the camp. We are trying to keep the baby (Ilia) warm dry and clean on these cold rainy days. We are at the mills where Ada Bishop Lengasher's husband is manager. They are nice to us and it did not seem like going among strangers.

Sherman has had steady work so far and will have as long as they can keep logs enough for the mill.

We do not pay any rent. Wood and water are free and we use very little coal-oil. We would like to save enough this summer so we don't have to work in the cold and rain. Sherman has had a bad cough when we came up here but sleeping in the fresh air cured it so he is feeling fine right now, though he is getting most too old to lift heavy lumber.

I feel just fine, always when I can live out of doors and the children are getting rosy and fat. Baby (Ilia) is a little Irish Lassie. I want Sadie to write and tell me if there is any Irish on Sherman's side of the family. He lays all the Irish to my door. Ida says "There is about as much Irish on the Young side of the house." Sherman doesn't believe it.

Ilia is growing nicely and is getting cute as she can be.

Easter the girls wore their white dresses without coats and hats and looked real nice as they went off to Sunday School. This is the first time ever I have let Ilia go without me.

Mrs. Roberts, who is in their own tent, within a 100 feet of us is our nearest neighbor gave the girls each candy eggs and Esther painted a few, so they had a nice time.

Seems so dreadfully lonely without the older girls. Of course we have to give them up sometime. It seems so hard to have to be away from them not while they are so young and need us everyday.

9 May 1915
Wendling, Oregon

Dear Mother;

Your good letters to us received last Sunday evening just after

I got home from a trip to Eugene. I found that Mrs. Miles was to be here over Sunday and so could care for Ilia. After cooking all the food necessary to last over Sunday I left here at nearly two o'clock and walked the five miles to Mrs. Miles's house, changed my clothes in plenty of time to take the four o'clock train. I returned on the 2:40 train from Eugene and got back to camp before dark.

We may move to the other camp in two weeks. It is ten miles from here but we can go most of the way on a logging train. We never see anyone but the crew. They are all gone on Sunday as a rule. I like being where it is quiet only I miss the girls very much. The work is not hard. I have worked harder on the farm in Vancouver because I had so much out door work.

Gladstone, Oregon

Dear Mother;

You see we have moved again. This time we are two miles north of Oregon City, Oregon and ten miles south of Portland. Some way I feel more at home or nearer home.

We took a risk and paid $20.00 cash for a two day concession in the main pavillion at the "Cherry Fair", sold ice cream cones, lemonade and soda pop. Pop corn sells better in cool weather. The weather favored us by remaining cool and cloudy most of the time. Some days Sherman made and sold without any help from us 200 crisps beside the buttered corn in bags. He is never so happy as when he can wait on the public, provided the money is coming his way. I am hoping that he will succeed at something soon as he gets so discouraged when things go against him.

We are camped here in the Park. It is a beautiful place, water is free and we have no trouble getting wood. Our tent is in a little clump of oaks with great fir trees all around. The water faucet is just a few feet from the table. We have a few camp neighbors left and lots of farmers outside of the gates. There were about 1500 camped here on the grounds.

Dear Mother;

25 August 1915

We all have good health. We have seen lots of places and met lots of people which helps make up for loss of education. Tell Alice the low shoes were just right. Edna can wear the high ones.

Sherman has a girl on each arm of his chair and is reading to them. Ilia's curls got so long and bothered her when she ate, so I have parted her hair in the middle and tie a curl back over each ear. It makes her look older.

We still have Esther's hair bobbed.

29 November 1915
Vancouver, Washington
% G. Schoonover Rt. 4

Dear Mother;

Just to let you know we are in Vancouver for a couple of months more at least. We have a comfortable home like a littled furnished house until we can get settled. We may send for our furniture soon. We have five nice rooms, bath, electricity etc. We are in the far eastern part of town so I go a mile and a half to town.

We had our Thanksgiving dinner today as Sherman can not come home. We had cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes and baked pork chops.

Myra is home with me now. Edna is going to stay out at Mama's for a while. She will go to school from there.

I shall be confined anytime in the next three weeks, so needed Myra here. She is so capable. I do not worry about anything.

Vancouver, Washington

Dear Mother;

Your good letter to Myra just received today. Your new granddaughter arrived safely Friday at 8:00 a.m. December third. She is tiny but healthy. Her hair is lighter than any of the babies since Myra. They all say it is really red. Of course her eyes are blue now but time will tell what they will be.

Sherman's crew were all layed off on Tuesday last so he was home with me and I felt very thankful to have him here. We had such a good Dr. and his wife so I got through with the best of help.

Myra is chief cook and caretaker, with Sherman to help nights she gets along fine. Edna and Mama with Wilbert as chauffeur, drove to see us yesterday. Edna was very dissapointed not to have a boy, so was Esther. There are so many of us to suggest a name I do not know what she will get. The twins you dreamed of would have been alright if we had a home. If they came in two's I will get my dozen before I am forty.

7 December 1915
Vancouver, Washington

Dearest Mother;

Myra is bathing the baby. She weighs seven and a half pounds with a shirt and diaper. So she is bigger than I thought. I feel pretty well today.

You said you hadn't heard from any of us for so long but I wrote twice since we moved out here and that was November 5th. We found such a comfortable 5 room furnished house for $10.00 a month.

That seems very reasonable but $10.00 would buy a lot of groceries. It will cost $35.00 to get our furniture moved up here but Sherman doesn't know of anything here to make a living by. Perhaps we will find something when we least expect it. I never give up hope.

It seems a very mean thing to me for Alice to be annoyed by the Tracy's. It looks to me that your Maine laws do not protect a woman as ours do. I'm glad you told us she never complained. Did they take "Lady" and the carriage? It seems to me if they could take anything like that they could take her clothing and jewelry too if they chose to be so mean. Loving ones enemies under such circumstances is not easy.

Myra baked bread and cinnamon rolls yesterday. Beside she washed and had to wash again today so she is very tired. I guess we will have to name our girl "Charlotte Chamberlain" and then call her "Charlie."

26 December 1915

Dear Mother;

Your Christmas gifts were received Friday afternoon. I think my collar as well as the girls are very pretty and I shall take pleasure in wearing it. The goods will make dresses for all of the little girls. Myra likes her purse and brooch. We had just a few gifts for the little girls, but could not get anything for Edna and Myra. I made a white cat out of outing flannel and a black teddy bear for Esther and Ilia. Esther looked at the cat when she saw her name on it and said, "I don't want a cat. I'm no baby." so we told her Ilia could have it. They had some little dolls and a 13¢ wagon. It is the first Christmas we have had no one for company. So we told Edna she was our company. She seems to be getting along fine in her school work.

I am able to help with the work and am gaining some every day. Baby is just as good as she can be. I have plenty of milk for her and am so thankful I don't have to feed her from a bottle.

Mama was in Friday afternoon when they came to bring Edna and brought a basket of home made candy, also a basket of apples, cabbage, celery and walnuts for salad and a piece of fruit cake.

Myra had made a little cream candy and I had made some taffy so we have all had all we could eat of sweets and plenty of everything else we need. Sherman will take the $10.00 Ralph gave me for Christmas to look for work.

16 February 1916
Vancouver, Washington

Dear Mother;

Thank you for the pretty cards that came today. We are sorry to hear about Lena Caldwell's troubles.

Esther is doing very well in school. She has to go back one year as they always have to when moving from Oregon to Washington. Edna is doing very well. She is a poor writer but her teacher said she never had a girl her age read so well and seldom any one do better. It has been 16 years since we last saw you, my dear Mother. You look so pretty in the picture and almost as young as you did then.

25 May 1916
Buxton, Oregon

Dear Mother;

I got a letter from Edna and a nice one from you. Sherman was reckoning last night that it would soon be haying time and that you would be eating wild strawberries. Esther found a few yesterday and put them in the pocket of one of her best white blouses which she was wearing at the time.

We moved here from Strassel last Sunday. It is only four miles. Sherman has work in the mill yard. He gets $2.50 per day. We have a large camp under a large maple tree. There is an old pastur and a big grassy yard where the girls have lots of fun playing. I put a quilt down on the ground this morning and layed the baby out in the yard with an umbrella over her head and she slept fine. There is a little creek by the camp and Ilia was trying to sail her boat out there yesterday and fell in. It is only a foot deep so it did not take her long to crawl out. She was wet to the skin. She just whimpered a little while I was getting her into dry clothes. Esther is a bright nice looking girls. I am braiding her hair now. Everyone thinks Ilia is handsome.

Dear Mother And Alice;

I am so glad you don't have to worry about your house any more, Alice. I got a letter from Ralph today saying Mama is in the hospital in critical condition. She was operated on May 27th for breast cancer. I may go home, Sherman wants me to, but I told him I did not think I ought to when he can't go to see any of you.

Dear Mother And Sadie; 12 June 1916

Sherman was pleased with the birthday card and letters.

Myra and I are very much interested in the "Young Book" you have begun and will try to send you all the help we can.

Dear Mother; 25 June 1916

Your nice letter came to the girls and we liked the idea of the girls working on their "Hope Chests". We are very glad you suggested it.

I guess money will be a little more plentiful in the West this summer. There are a lot of men going to the front, that will help those that are left. We expect to go to Gladstone and keep a stand, over the Fourth. If Sherman can get a location. We promised ourselves a trip to Maine if we earn $600.00 by October 1st. You can not know how we want to come. I often wish you could have Edna, she needs just the kind of help you could all give her. Myra would be more help in some ways. Edna got her diploma from the 8th grade which will admit her to High School this fall. I did not know Sherman Mills had a High School. Do they have four years of studies?

Baby sleeps in a little box bed between our bed and the girls. She has a little wool sweater and is as warm as toast. Baby nurses almost a quart and she takes two cups of other food.

22 August 1916
Tillamook Fair
Tillamook, Ore.

Dearest Mother;

Your good letter to Sherman came this week. I have been trying to find a house inOregon City as that seems about the busiest little city in the neighborhood. Sherman went to Tillamook yesterday. I was with him as far as Portland when was stupid enough to miss the train. So he left my ticket and I went home to the babies. It was probably best as they were just moving camp to a different camping ground. Edna was so glad to have me come just when I did. When I got home she had everything ready and the man was loading the wagon so I helped her get straightened and then left them comfortably settled this morning.

There is a four day Fair at Tillamook and we are hoping for a big crowd. It is something of a gamble but when one has little to lose, sometimes it pays to gample.

We are almost to the Divide of the Cascade Mountains west of Strassel.

Baby's food is Cours milk diluted 1/3 water and sugar to sweeten. She is as fat as a butterball and healthy looking. Her cheeks are always red. Edna is getting so capable. I think she will get along fine with the babies. Esther is the best little worker and is always happiest when she is busy. How I wish you could have Myra for a visit and Edna for longer. It is about time for me to thank you for Edna's birthday gifts. We are going to try to get some sleep as we will be up late every night.

Dear Sadie; 1 August 1916

We hope you will have a happy birthday. We are in the park. It is a beautiful place to camp. Several Societies have their houses which they use during Chautauqua. Today Ilia and I picked wild blackcaps, everything grows rank in this climate.

Monday there will be a circus in Oregon City, so we will be there with ice cream and popcorn. It is two miles from here. Esther and I took the baby Sunday and went to Portland to see Belle and Earl Ordway.

Dear Mother; 2 November 1916

Sherman's playing elephant on the floor with Esther and Ilia both riding on his back. Baby and Myra are in bed.

We got home from Harrisburg October 22nd and moved the 24th. We have a six room house at $10.00 per month. We found the childre just fine and glad to see us except baby who would only go to Myra for several days. Sherman is getting in our wood. He may go to Hood River to visit Bayard to see about work. We are getting nicel settled. It takes a long while after having the goods stored. We found everything in good shape. The moths got into my large rug bu we are going to have it remade. The mice chewed my lace curtains.

I have made Edna a new suit out of one Myra had. Mama was in to see me but she did not look well.

Dear Mother; 3 December 1916.

The babies are in bed. Edna and Myra have gone to church. Sherman is reading and eating apples so I will try to write while everything is quiet. It seems to me three little children and two big ones can make a lot of noise. Baby had a birthday today but no cake as we have been having squash pies made without eggs. Rufus brought me a number of squash and we are using and canning them to save them. Eggs are 55¢ and 60¢ for ranch and the others are several months old at 40 ¢ a dozen and not in storage either. They are not quite so bad. I find a level tablespoon (For a small pie) or heaping (For large ones) of corn starch makes a fairly good substitute for eggs. I heat the milk and thicken it then add the squash and seasonings. Sugar is $8.00, flour is $4.50, buckwheat is 75¢ for a 9 pound sack. Potatoes $1.50 to $1.75 per 100 pounds, rice 10 and 12½, beans the same, milk 8½ cents per quart, beef 12½ to 25 cents a pound, pork 18-20 cents for side meat. We never ever price the other cuts.

Dear Sister Sadie; 2 January 1917

Your good letters received this noon. I am sending you Myra's letter which shows how much your thoughts and hers run together about her coming back there. She said when she left that she did not want to stop until she got to Maine. Myra is just like her father when it comes to travel. She would keep going until she had seen the world if the money held out. You sketched a very clear picture of her character. She is past the age when I worry about her doing anything to bring discredit to herself or us, of course she is young and there will no doubt arise many occasions where she ought to have advise of some one who has had experience with problems. As to my trusting you I would be just delighted to have her go to spend the summer and as much longer as she cared to stay. Of course I would miss her and I know we need her but I always try not to be selfish about the girls. Anything that will help them grow wiser and more useful to others is my ambition for them.

You are all in love with our girls and we could not ask for finer praise than you have given. Myra has high ideals, is very dignified and too proud. I do not consider it a disgrace to be poor even tho we may be so from bad management or lack of foresight but Myra does. She wants people to think we have everything as good as they have. This is very hard on her as she sometimes makes herself miserable over not having things like others do. She is not a bit know it all and I hope none of them will develope that. Myra is willing to learn from others. She is not one to argue tho Edna is more inclined to do so.

I think Esther is much as I was at her age. She is as different from Ilia as Myra is from Edna. They are all different. Myra and Esther are direct. Edna and Ilia (As she now seems.) are dillatory, There! I do not know if that word expresses just what I mean but what I want to say can be expressed as "easy going" about everything, thoughts as well as actions. Miss Virginia is quick tempered as she is red headed. Her hair is too short to cut more samples, without leaving a notch.

Myra has a beautiful neck, just fat enough to look smooth and round. The artist caused her to sit with her neck cramped. Edna is thinner and her neck is inclined to be bony. She can hurry if she tries and sometimes accomplishes a lot in a given time. I hope she will learn something in High School that will help her to be a better manager about her work than I am or ever will be. You are entirely justified in saying, "I hope so too." Oh Sadie you wish you could see us and you don't know how much we wish we could all be there for the next few years. It does not seem right for families to be so widely separated. Heart aches may make the character stronger but some kinds seem unnecessary.

It is clearer today and windy enough so the clothes Edna and I put out Saturday are dry. She will get them in tonight and make them ready to iron tomorrow night. I told Alice this morning That I was going to sew but if I don't get about it soon there will be nothing done but the usual routine. I have such a good piece of material that was given to me to make for Esther.

(A blue coat) The only one she has is the one I made in Lake Shore from the coat that was Mother's. It is too short and decidedly rusty looking now, tho it still shows it was fine material in it's time. Ilia also needs a new one just as soon as I can get to it. When one has always to patch up some old thing to make it hang together it takes twice as long as to make a new garment. Iv'e made Myra a combination chemise and drawers (Almost finished). I finished one of Ilia's Christmas dresses, finished one for baby and made over Edna's gymnasium bloomers as well as a whole sack full of stockings which needed feet (And some needed legs too.) since Christmas but that is not a beginning.

For Christmas I got a handkerchief and a box of popcorn crisp from my old friend Lizzie Gatchell Pattison who lives in Corvallis and Edyth sent a white voile waist which if I ever get it made will be the first thing except one gingham dress I've had since we lived in Lake Shore and Myra had to wear some of them I made then. Myra got your letter. I wrote to you about the pictures.

Thursday morning

Sherman says tell you we can not spare Myra this summer as Edna is not going to be out of school until June 10th which will be too late for us to get started at anything except Gladstone Park and as they make some changes there this year in the stands we may not be able to "get in". I must get busy. I forgot to tell you about Edna's ideals. She is developing much more slowly than Myra and while her ideals may never be as high in some regards She will make every bit as fine a woman. She is jolly and would like to go more than she does but is sensible about not going during school. She attended the Junior Party and to a surprise for a friend, since school began, went one night to a show with Myra. She has no beaus that I know of.

Esther's hair was as curly as Ilia's. We cut it the summer she was four as she made such a fuss about having it combed. Ilia is not sensitive about her's so will curl it until I find it necessary to braid it. Baby's will never curl unless it changes soon. Esther's is fluffy and dark brown, darker than Myra's.

Dear Sister Alice; 7 January 1917

Your nice letter to Sherman received yesterday. We are glad to get a letter from you. Sherman feels pretty old after handling wood all week. I will send your letter on to Myra. She gets very blue and home-sick even when near to home but seems to mind it more this time because she is so far away. Sherman misses her even more than I do. He is such a home-sick boy that he sympathizes with her. I do not get so home-sick but when I was away from them all this summer the only way I endured it at all was to put them out of my thoughts and try to think of something else believing that as it seemed my duty to leave them, God would take care of them all. I do so hope this will be the last summer for us to be separated. We will try to get a homestead under this new 640 acre Act if it did not cost so much to locate one. We could realize much more at the end of three years than at anything else that we do. 7:30 p.m. and baby is crying at the top of her lungs so I'll have to go see what ails her. I guess just wind on her stomach. She is looking on now to see if I am doing the letter right. Usually she goes right to sleep as soon as her bottle is finished or if not suck her fist and says nothing. There has been only three or four times we have had to bring her downstairs at night. I take her a bottle at 6:00 to 6:30 a.m., bring her down for her bath at 8:00 to 8:30, take her upstairs at 10:30 with her bottle and as a rule she sleeps until 2:30 when she has her next feeding from then on til bedtime she is not a bit of trouble or in fact any of the day except the regular care a baby needs. She is not going to have really red hair when she is older but it certainly looks red on her fair skin. She is trying to get off my lap and so this will have to be continued at a later date.

Dear Mother; 15 January 1917

This is the 16th anniversary of your trip to Hood River. I never remember the date without thinking what a great event it was in my life. How much more I could have enjoyed your visit if I had been capable of making you all more comfortable. Here is hoping we shall all visit together again before this year ends. I got home at 8:30 this morning and found Edna had taken care of the house and baby. I did some sewing for Aunt Hannah Saturday and brought some home to finish. She and Uncle Wib will go to Massassachusetts in June if nothing prevents.

Yesterday Ilia and I spent the day with Rufus, Ralph and Allene and had such a good time. They wanted Ilia to stay a week but she cried and wanted to come right home. She said if I left her she would run behind with the valice. They were so dissapointed.

Dad Kennedy is no better and the end may come any moment. He does not suffer to speak of but his heart is giving out rapidly.

We are having lovely sunny days and frosty nights, twenty below last night. I must feed baby and get dinner.

28 February 1917

We had about four inches of snow fall the first time and two the second time. It is clear and bright and beautiful. Just received a letter from Myra. She is getting along just fine.

27 March 1917
Vancouver, Washington

My Dear Sister Sadie;

Your nice long letter received today. I am sorry to know your eyes are troubling you. I know it is lonely for you even though you have Mother and Alice to cheer you. Wish you could be here with us so you could have the children help you. Ilia would keep you busy asking questions. Esther would entertain you by telling you about all the games she and her friends are going to play and what everyone wears. If we ever get a piano Edna could play and sing until you would wish you were again in Maine to be away, such a variety of entertainment.

Florence and Linnie came last Thursday about 10:00 a.m. Linnie stayed until 4:30. Florence stayed until Sunday evening. Ralph came Sunday for dinner and then took us all for a ride in the Ford. It was a beautiful day.

Dear Sister; 5 March 1917

Your good letter received last week but something kept me from writing that day, so will try now. How much we should like to have you here for a good visit but we know it would be a very hard trip for you all. We have a big house with pleasant windows and bedrooms enough for all so if you plan to come west you can plan to spend the summer here. Sherman said, "Rent wood, water and light would not cost you anything." but we can not promise much more as our work is so uncertain.

Yesterday was Mama's 56th birthday. She had all of her children home as it happened, though she did not expect them. They brought Edgar to school in the auto and brought baby (Virginia) and I home. Mama sent us some apples too and I got nice fresh eggs from Uncle "Wib" which will help us on the bill of fare this week.

Dear Sister Alice;

Your good letter came and we were so glad to hear from you again. We know just how hard it was for you to sell your house. If we had been able to get there we would have been glad to help you farm the land but it costs so much more for tickets than we have been able to have since you needed us. There was just once, when we sold our interest to Ralph and Rufus, then I wanted Sherman to take one of the little girls and go. How different everything would have been if he had gone then. We would not have gone to Eugene and there probably would not be any little Virginia the 2nd, but it is not for us to say what is best for us. After we lost our business in Eugene I began to worry and kept it up until I was nearly crazy but our summer out of doors helped me wonderfully and I have studied Science enough to get the idea of principal of "Trust" as I think Christ intended us to feel it and am living just for the day. I can see that far and God doesn't intend us to see farther than that.

You have probably heard that Bayard has been sick again. Ida brought him down to Mt. Tabor Sanitarium April 10th. Florence wrote that he was there so Sherman and I went over last Sunday. We found him up and he was able to go down stairs for a shave. He seemed much run down. I do hope he will get sufficient help from the treatments to get his system in "shape" again. Bayard has always abused his stomach by his fondness for good "eats". He is not alone in that for I have done the same. We found Ida much more fleshy than when we last saw her and she seemed in splended health. When Bayard talked about feeling so bad to think Ida has to earn a living and care for him I told him to remember when she was bedfast and he had to do all of the work and earn a living too. We stopped at Linnies on our way home and found Florence able to be around again. She said her back hurt when she moved a certain way, but I am not surprised. She was very fortunate not to have been laid up for months by such a fall. Orie was here to dinner two weeks ago. He has matured greatly since we saw him and is much better looking. I told him I thought he ought to enlist as he did not know where to go or what to do, says he can not save any money and his clothes were beginning to look shabby. The "Selective Draft" in which I firmly believe, will take him first call anyway and I think the years dicipline would be good for him. The thought of war is all horrible but it seems we are well into it now. No one can tell for how many years. Sherman says it is not his war and he does not believe in it at all. I do not believe in war either and think our entrance into this might well have been avoided if selfish interests could be kept under and right might prevail.

Well it is the last Sunday in April. How time flies! I have put off writing from day to day because I dreaded making a final dicision in regard to giving Edna to you if you feel you need her at this time enough to send her a ticket. Her school will not be out until the 10th of June and her Papa said she could go if you really want her. Now this sounds very presumptive as you did not ask for her in your letter but it seemed to me you expressed a real need for some one at this time. Edna is really capable if some one does the outlining for her. She is very anxious to please and willing to do anything for a word of praise. Of course she is a great help to me and I have had a struggle to say I'd even think of it but I am trying to see what is really best for the child as nearly as we can see ahead. We are so unsettled and shall be for a long time unless something turns up which we can not see now. We can't say today where next month will find us. Work here is unsteady and business at a standstill. The West had one big boom now it will take some years for a real adjustment. Then they get the prices of land back to a reasonable level we can hope to see prosperity in the West. Now my dear sister I want you to be absolutely frank with me as I have been in saying what I have. If there is one single reason why you do not want

Edna to come or feel she will not by her services repay you or you can not afford to have her even though you do need her just say so and you will please me very much and Edna will be satisfied too. She wants very much to come and is willing to work and earn money if there is any housework or care of children and stay with Mother and Sadie nights.

Bayard came and stayed one night. Ruth was here about two hours yesterday evening. Earl Boardman, Stella's boy came with her from their place. Ruth returned to Hood River this morning. Ruth has not grown very much since I saw her but has developed wonderfully and is sweet and refined. A very nice looking girl, much shorter than Edna but about the same build.

Ida says Bertha does not like Idaho one bit and is much disatisfied at having to be away from her Mother. Perhaps you know her father passed away a few weeks ago. Bayard says the boys both like it up there. Personally I should like to go into Idaho for a couple of weeks. I wouldn't care to have any move with little children to drag around. Well it is nearly dark so I must read a little bit to the children before bed time. Baby has gone to bed. Ilia is sitting on her Papa's lap. Much love to you all.

Dear Sister Sadie;

Your good letters received and if you and I could make our plans work out as we formulate them in our minds, we should soon be in Maine or you would be out here. I don't know which. You see you don't know Sherman very well to think he would leave us for two or three months unless he knew we could get back there too or he was coming back to us. It is not that he does not want to see you. He feels it is impossible so that is all there is to it. We are a large family and much different than when you last saw us. You are all a lot older and could not stand the noise and confusion.

My Dear Mother; 19 June 1917

Your nice letter to Sherman received Friday and we are going to put it away among our treasures. I think it truly remarkable that a woman your age can write so nicely. I always cry when I come to the part where you say you wish you could put your arms around Sherman's neck and kiss him. We were talking this morning about Edna going back and Sherman said, "What if I should go back instead of Edna?" I am sorry I do not have your gift ready for your birthday, it is a large photo of Virginia Muzzey.

July 30, 1917

Dear Sister Sadie;

My Mother and brothers Elliot & Edgar and Elliot's friend Leota Cain called for me yesterday morning and took me with them up the highway. We went to Eagle Creek above Bonneville which was a drive of about 90 miles.

We stopped at Crown Point which is where I marked on the picture. Bonneville is above the X. The highway follows the Sandy River a little way, then winds up through the hills above the Columbia River and the scenery all along is certainly beautiful. We left Vancouver at 8:30 a.m and returned about 6:00 p.m. We had dinner at Eagle Creek.

THIS POST CARD WAS SENT TO VIRGIE'S SISTER-IN-LAW IN SHERMAN MILLS, MAINE IN 1917 BEAUTIFUL SCENERY

Dear Sister Alice; 23 June 1917

I am afraid it is impossible to send Ilia to you. She is over five and it will cost full fare. Sherman did not have a chance to go to the ticket office until this week and finds it will cost $77.00 without a sleeper, second class so we have to do well the Fourth to make up Edna's fare. It takes quite a lot to set up our stand in Gladstone beside the expense of moving so we are uncertain about the outcome. They say there will be crowds at the Fair. Myra is coming. We have missed her very much. I feel we should send Mother's check back right now. I guess I am altogether too ambitious for Edna. Probably if she would work here and earn her fare East she would appreciate it much more. Myra could have come East long ago if she had not given us all her earnings as fast as she got it.

Dear Sister Sadie; 3 August 1917

You have all been kept in suspence in regard to Edna's coming East so I am enclosing Mother's check so she can have the use of it. So have been waiting because Mama (Grandma Ordway-Kennedy) wanted to make up the amount necessary for Edna's ticket but as Mama has had to go to law about the estate and her money is all tied up by the administrator she can't get her money yet. I shoul have written before for I know you are all so anxious but I am so slow as I grow older. I can't seem to get at anything but the daily grind of daily work done.

Dad Kennedy had killed a young beef so we got a quarter at 8 cents which I have just finished salting and canning the trimmings. The trimmings will be used for soup so we will have meat all winter. We do not care much for meat and never had so much beef in store at one time. We always had our salt pork and hams when we were on the farm but now baked beans are good enough without pork.

We had about 65 quarts of fruits canned including the left overs which we moved from Eugene. All our pickles were lost as the vinegar "ate" the lids off the jars.

We have been having smokey weather here, had no rain for 60 days. Every day has been hot. We get a breeze. Potatoes have been hard hit here. They are very small and few to a hill.

Dear Sister Sadie; 3 September 1917

We are at Chehalis, Washington and have had a very sucessful stand at this Fair. We are going to have a stand at the S. W. Washingotn Fair next week and at Elma, Washington the following week. Conditions are different this year with so many young men in the service. Write soon and remember we love you.

Myra has a nice place to work for a Captain's family in the Garrison. She gets $40.00 a month and board, no washing except for the baby every day. Edna is working for a short time in an ice cream and candy store.

Gail, Bayard and Ruth visited us while we were in Gladstone. They rode down the Columbia Highway with Clyde Gilmore in his new auto. Bayard was much better than when I saw him last.

September 1917

At the Puyallup Fair we did well, cleared over $125.00 in a week. I went home to see the girls. Sherman made the Eastonville, Wa. Fair with a line of novelties. I met him in Tacoma. We went the next morning to Toppenish, Washington. This is on the Northern Pacific Railroad about half way between Puyallup and Pasco, Washington. We were in Toppenish one week. It is near the Yakima Indian Reservation so we sold quite a lot of novilties to them. Thought you would like the post cards for your album. Sherman found the Indian one.

I am in the Post Office now, I am going back to the Fair grounds. Sherman is there all packed and ready to go to Elma, about 40 miles west on the Grays Harbor line. We are going on a big auto truck with another store outfit and family. They have five children. I guess there will be a load of us. The Fair there is September 5th to the 9th. We have to work all day Sunday. We have never been any where they held the Fair on Sunday.

Lewiston, Idaho

We stayed one night in Pasco and one night in Lewiston. They did not have a real Fair, only a track meet for horsemen so we did not do as well as we should have. We went 30 miles from here and such a dreadful dust storm one day we had no crowd at all. The livestock show will be here from the 8th to the 15th so Sherman put the novelties on the street. We see lots of grafters working the people but we never try any such way to make money. We have a grand view of the town of Snake River. We had a chance to ride in a fine big car. The road winds up and up for nine miles. Sherman counted 60 direct curves and I counted over 90 autos that we met going up as we came down.

Vancouver, Washington

My Dear Mother;

We wish you a happy new year. This will reach you before Christmas. We could not think of anything you would like but a good picture of baby. (Virginia). I hope you will like the profile picture of Sherman. When we were at the Centralia Fair there was a man that cut profiles with a tiny pair of scissors, he never even drew a line, just looked at his subject and about 2 minutes later the picture was complete.

My Dear Sister Sadie; 30 December 1917

Your box of gifts arrived here safely about a week before Christmas. Myra was getting ready to go to work at the restaurant. We had to make her a black dress. I miss her help. We pasted Ilia's doll on paste board and pasted heavy cloth on her hands so they would bend without breaking, am going to do the same for Esther's. They both liked their dolls very much and play with them everyday. I think you had a lot of patience to make such pretty dresses. Ilia is very proud of the yellow one. On Christmas morning I asked her what she thought of her dolly? She looked up at me and said, "I think a hundred dollies worth." I made her a negro mammy doll of black calico and wool yarn for hair and dressed a 5¢ china doll which was all the gifts we could afford this year. For Esther I got a thimble and a pair of stockings. Myra got Esther a pretty new hair ribbon. Mama gave Sherman and I each a bath towel. She gave Myra and Edna each a dresser scarf with lace, just alike and all the girls hair ribbons. Mama sent the auto for us Christmas morning so we were all "Home" for Christmas dinner. It was rather a small family gathering. Rufus and Allene were in White Salman where her mother lives. Ralph in Hood River where he was all fall.. He wrote last week and sent two boxes of apples for Christmas. We are certainly blessed with a loving family and friends.

My Dear Mother; January 1918

We have not had a letter from you in a long time. Edna is out at the farm with Rufus and Allene. I am sending you a picture of our boy, (Willis.) He is just as manly and honest as he looks. I wish you had a picture without his hat. He has such fine hair. He is finer looking without the soldier hat. We got a letter today. He is at Camp Green, North Carolina. He says they have muck knee deep. Sherman is home, no work for the present. The babies are playing outside.

Edgar is going to High School, which is only four blocks from us. He had some dental work so is here with us tonight. We had company for dinner, folks we knew in Hood River, they live in Portland now. The best potatoes are $1.25 per 100 pounds, side of pork 40¢, so we don't buy it at the market. Mother or rather Wilbert killed a hog so they sold me some fresh and salted. Pork at wholesale is about 25¢ dressed. This is the first fresh pork we have had in over a year. Beef is not so high, 12¢-18¢ for boiling meat, 22¢ for round steak, 35¢ for sirloin steak. We get cheap pieces & I pot roast them with plenty of vegetables and gravy so we get a taste once in a while. Narrow calico is 12¢. The yard wide in the American print is 15¢, percale 16½¢ to 20¢, wool nap blankets such as I bought 2 years ago for $2.25 are $4.25 per pd. in the stores. The Red Cross furnish the yarn for knitting the soldiers things at $2.25. I pay 45-50¢ for eggs and 50¢ for butter. We try to use as little as possible. Lard is 35¢ a pd, suet 20¢, so I mix half of each for all frying purposes. Crisco is what we use for all shortening purposes at 30¢ per pd., beans 12½¢, split peas are 15¢.

We can get Hershey's chocolate in Portland for 30¢ a pound so we let the children have cocoa quite often. We seldom use either tea or coffee. I do not use either. In some ways it seems awfully high just to live. Our rent is $10.00, light $2.75, water is $3.50. I use the electric iron. Our wood is rather poor, "dead" dry fir, at $6.00 per cord. The weather is so warm we burn very little. So far there has been only one frost this month. I think we are getting milk very cheap. It is $5.75 per month. If we get it at the store it is 12¢ straight. I think milk is healthier for the children than meat and we can have corn and oatmeal mush which saves on the bread. We are supposed to be helping the "cause." They (The Government) used tar paper when they built the houses last fall and summer so that cost more than necessary. We see so much waste and graft in these Government works that it makes us rather bitter regarding the "Hooverizing."

My Tuesdays are meatless,
My Wednesdays are wheatless,
I am getting more eatless each day,
My home is heatless,
My bed, it is sheetless,
They are all sent to the Y.M.C.A.
The barooms are treatless,
My coffee is sweetless,
Each day I get poorer and wiser,
My sock, they are footless,
My trousers are seatless,
My God, how I hate the Kaiser!

Dear Mother And Sadie;

I truly meant to answer sooner but with the children's measles, baby sick all week and the floor to paint it has been the same old thing with me. Edna was here Sunday with her baby. It is a little darling, fat as butter. Edna gets $30.00 a month. Willis alloted $15.00 and the U.S. $15.00. The baby will get $7.50 or $10.00. She will stay with Allene. Oh! Sadie, if Willis can only come back to us.

No rain since Easter except showers. Green peas and tomatoes are in blossom. We have a few beets, carrots, lettuce and peas up. We are paying 40¢ for butter, 35¢ for eggs from the ranch and 40¢ at the store. Sugar 11 pounds for $1.00, flour $2.75 for a 49 pd. sack. Lard is 35¢, compound 30¢, beef 30¢-40¢ a pound, salmon 25¢ and 30¢, ham and bacon 50¢ per pound. Esther is trying to get supper so I must help her. She has made cookies alone.

Dear Mother; 10 May 1918

Your nice long letter just received and enjoyed hearing about the cousins. Sherman is working with the crew cutting brush. He will be wet to the skin. It is harder for him than most men for he is too old. Myra's ways are much like yours. She is very reserved until she knows you real well than she is jolly. At home she goes in spells just as Sherman does. Edna is always the same.

My Dear Mother; 24 May 1918

How are you these beautiful spring days? We all wish you a happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness. We sent you a picture of baby Virginia. I fear it will not reach you on your birthday. I made a special trip to Portland this week while Mama Kennedy was with me. Edna came for a couple days so we went down town together and had a group picture made of the four generations.

Myra came home a week ago today and we are all enjoying her visit. She is going out to see Edna tomorrow and will remain there over Sunday. Edna is getting along fine with the baby, it tries to coo now and can almost raise her head and shoulders from the pillow. I went out last Sunday and stayed all night.

Mother your picture is just beautiful and sweet as you were here. Your added years have only added more dignity. Myra has inherited all she will ever need from your side of the family but Edna is more like me. Mama's visit here this spring has helped me such a lot. I have always tried to do all I knew how for my children. Mama plans to go to Hood River next week. I am so glad she can go for a real visit. Poor Mama has always had so many duties she has never had a chance for a real visit before, since we were real small children. She will be free until July then she will keep house for Edgar and Ralph. Wilbert has a very nice little wife.

We are busy trying to get some sewing done for me before I go to Gladstone. I have not visited at cousin Abbie's (Ordway) since I went to Eugene. Cousin Mary (Ordway) died while we were in Eugene.

I am making up the summer dress Myra and Edna bought me last fall. It will be the first light thin dress I have had since Mother Townsend bought me the pink muslin before Kelsey was born.

My Dear Sister Sadie;

We are having dry weather. I went out to Allene's yesterday. Edna, Allene and I watched the eclipse from the door step. We were nice and cool for about an hour and then the sun came out and then we went to the back steps. I had a good visit and rest with all of my folks. Wilbert brought me home when he came to get Edgar. They both went to the hospital to see Mama. She has been sick for about a week. Her heart gave out and she must rest.

Sherman and I ran the stand at Barns Circus last Thursday. We had a lot of opposition and a very poor location. (But did pretty well). We are having strawberries, 12½-15¢ a box. The farmers are waiting for rain. Rufus and Allene (Where Edna and baby are) live in the house that Sherman and I helped build when we lived on the 20 acre place. They have four large rooms and Rufus built on a sleeping porch for Mama.

Elliot is in the Naval Service on his way East via Texas from San Diego, California where he has been training since December. He was 19 in February, Wilbert was 21.

Edgar is boarding with us during school. He has one more year in High School, thinks he will attend Agricutural College. Ralph is working for Wilbert on the farm. When Mama is out on the farm she stays with Uncle Wilbert Parsons (Fannie's half brother) and Aunt Hannah. They visited relations of his in Riverside, California this past winter.

Mama turned the farm over to Wilbert when he married. He is to run it until Elliot comes home then divide it with Elliot and Edgar, who will be of age in four years. Dad always had a mortgage on the land so the boys will have to pay that. It is a pretty heavy debt for a boy of Wilbert's age to handle but I think they will come out alright. The boys are fine workers. Elliot wrote Mama he guessed when he went into the war he had a wild desire to go with the rest but now he would not come home for anything until it is all settled. He says, "He feels he is fighting for Home and Country."

Dear Sister Sadie; 14 August 1918

Your birthday passed while I was at Rufus's home. Rufus and Allene have gone to White Salmon for a few weeks to visit at her Mothers. They hope to find a location for themselves before Rufus is called into the Service. Edna is keeping house for Mama as she is not able to do even that much work. She knits and crochets and can walk about as much as she wants but her days are numbered. She knows that she can not get well and is just as firm in her faith that Christ heals all souls. As bad as she is she praises God and the Surgeon for the good two years in which to care for Dad Kennedy.

2 November 1918
Dear Sister Alice; Vancouver, Washington

One week ago this morning I realized that my husband was going to be taken from me. At noon he was gone. He had been sick only one week but I never believed he would not get better. The Dr. came on Wednesday and said, "Sherman had a light case of pneumonia but not serious.' Ilia was about over hers. The Dr. examined her and said, "She had pneumonia alright but that she would get well." She was sick over a week and baby was sick several days.

We came home Tuesday evening in a heavy rain, Wednesday morning the rain was still coming down and Sherman went out to get the car out of a hole he had gotten into. Mama and I both tried to get him to wait until it stopped raining but he thought he must work it out right then and there. He got soaking wet but did not seem to have any ill effects from that. Thursday cleared up beautifully and we drove into town to see the children and found baby sick and brought her back to Mama's with us. Friday morning Mrs. Calder phoned me that Ilia was very sick so Sherman drove in and brought her out. She was so sick she did not know anything. I had done a big washing so was tired and on Saturday felt I was going to have the grippe and Sherman began to complain too. He helped Ralph fix the pump and ate supper as usual but said he ached all over so he went to bed and I gave him a physic and grippe medicine. He seemed to be getting along alright but could not eat anything. On Wednesday morning Mama called for the Dr. but they had so many cases they couldn't care for them all and it was 11:00 o'clock that night before the Dr.

came and as I said he didn't think it was anything serious, but he told me to put a glycerin pack on his left lung and also on Ilia.

I had the grippe for two days but fought it off and kept going with hot flats and everything I could do for them all. The Dr. said, "There is nothing more I could have done and that medicine could not have saved him as it was this new germ that they can not understand." Sherman knew he was going to get well and I did too. He did not know what he was saying but talked about our work together this fall and about what he was going to do and the last evening his mind went back to the years before we were married and he lived and worked up in the Prineville Country. He talked about men he knew up there and about the Ochecho River, irrigating and farming. The last words he said when he knew what he was saying was when I took Virginia out of the room he said, "Good night baby." Friday morning Mama was so worried that Ralph took her into to the hospital as that was the most comfortable place for her. Saturday morning I called Ralph. (He is up to Wilbert's since his draft.) The Dr. (We could not get our own Dr. as he was with his partner's family) we had said there was nothing medicine or nurses could do. He said, "We are all helpless before this plague."

Our Dr. who was with me when Virginia came and who removed Ilia's and Esther's tonsils and the wen from Sherman's head died the night before in just the same way. He was like Sherman, quite fleshy. He was sick only a week and had two nurses all the time and several Dr.'s. He was a young man and when Sherman heard he was very sick he said, "Oh! we can't lose Dr. Miles Leiser. He is too useful a man to die now."

We went to Hood River Tuesday morning, Myra came on Sunday. We sent Florence word so she came up from Grants Pass and happened to meet us at the Union Depot, so she went to Hood River with us. Ida did not come. I do not know why. She told Ralph over the phone that she told Bayard and that he did not seem to realize except for a few moments. Florence thought Ida had no one to bring her except John Crosby and that John was probably afraid to come. His own son Don Crosby died that morning and we did not know it, probably that was the reason. Don lived here in Vancouver quite near where we lived on 25th Street. He left three little children so Vi is worse off than I am as they had nothing saved at all. Sherman had no insurance but he had saved quite a bit and accumulated a lot of "Junk" that we used in our business.

I did so want Sherman to go back and visit you this fall. The day we were together down town I talked it all over with him and urged him to go. He said, "Oh! No! I have to think about you and the children. I can not take the money now to go back East, Perhaps we can all go back in the car this spring." I have had to pay all out it would have taken for his trip, but of course if he had been spared to come and then gotten sick back East he might have gone just the same. We plan and God changes our plans.

Mama wants the children and I to remain here with her for the present. Myra wanted me to go to Eugene and take a special Civil Service Course so I could get a position. Mama thinks that when reconstruction comes there will be so many men who are crippled who will be given the Government positions that there will not be so many places for women.

Mama says to give you her kindest wishes and to tell you the Dr.'s were mistaken, for her trouble is in a weakened vein caused by her pumping water while she was at Uncle "Wibb's" this spring. The swelling has all gone from her face now. She has some enlargement in her arm but we trust that if we take care of her as you have cared for Mother that we may keep her for years. She was up to Uncle's yesterday. They were talking about Sherman and Dad's passing on. Uncle Wib said, "Now if I had told them when I moved here that I would live to see them both buried they would have laughed at me." How I wish we could be together Alice. There are so many things you could help me understand. My Mother is a wonderful help with her years of experience. I will be glad if I can be as steady and true to my girls as Mama has been to all of us. I got such a nice letter from Charles and Dolly Leavitt and from one of my friends in Corvallis. Clem sent a long telegram, said, "He did not dare leave Edyth and the children as the plague was all about them." I must write them.

I stayed over in Portland one night with Myra so she could go back to Eugene. It was so lonesome for her. She is so much like her Papa. We do hope you escape this influenza and that you are all well at the present. We are having some rain, but had only one week of rainy weather while Sherman and I were out together this fall. We had such a lovely trip together when we went from Puyallup to Seattle and back, then Olympia and Shelton to Port Angeles. When we got there we found the Fair had been called off on account of the influenza. When we came home just in time to take care of Ilia and baby. I felt that it was fortunate we came home, but Oh! Alice it does not seem right for Sherman to have to go now, when he had so many plans for the future.

8 November 1918
Vancouver, Washington

My Dear Sister Alice;

Your's and Sadie's letters of sympathy and loving kindness were received. It gives me comfort to know that you believe as I do that Sherman entered at once into the joys of the Better World and that he is with the others growing more fully into the Spiritual Life. That is a belief of my cousin Mary Ordway, (Whom Mother and Sadie visited) You know she was a Spiritualist but for all of that a very sensible woman. When you say he was a good man you are not mistaken for he was good and clean and always so filled with the love for the children but I thought he wore himself out in a way, working and planning for us. There was so much pleasure to me in just being happy because we had each other even if we were poor but he fretted so much because he could not get ahead as he wanted to. Then just when we had gotten to the place where he knew our businss was a success and where he could begin to see where we could make more than just a living he had to leave it all. It does not seem right, yet Mama comforts me by saying, "He paid the price we all have to pay sooner or later and is free from the trouble and worry of the world and will understand all now."

In some ways Sherman was not as happy as I wish he were. His disposition was not just like Florence's but some of his ways reminded me nuch of her. She does not get much comfort or pleasure from the knowlege of God's loving care over us. If it were not for the fellowship of Christ I should not take much comfort for living. My life has been made up mostly of hard work and worry yet I can see so many things in life that have been more pleasant than Ida has had or Florence or many other women I've known intimately. Surely there is no one who has no crosses to bear. Some seem to have so much lighter load than others but who can say what they may have that we can not see.

Sadie spoke of no more grandchildren. No there will be no more now and Mama says, "I've been so determined to have another boy or I should not have had so many." I guess she is pretty right too. The lady who cared for the children while we were away wanted to adopt baby but I shall keep them altogether if possible.

Mother has no cancer, we are sure now but her over work and every thing taken together caused such a weakend condition that she will probably never be able to do any work again. She needs me at the present time and wishes me to plan to remain right here even though she should pass on very soon, She wants me to stay until the baby is old enough to go to school with the others. Myra cried when I told her I should have the baby cared for days and go to work some where, and that Esther was to keep house each morning and evening while I was away when they were not in school. She said, "Mama you should not do anything of the kind, I shall leave school and go to work too if you do." But as soon as I started to plan something for myself Ralph and Mama changed all my plans, and since I have been here with Mama I can see how much happier she is than if she went up to the other house to live with Gracie or else had to hire someone to stay with her here. Ralph has to be up to the other place all the time now as it is too far to come home nights where he has all the chores to do.

Wilbert is in Fort Worden, Washington now and they say will be sent East as soon as they are out of quarantine. I do hope this peace question will prevent his being kept away from the farm. There is so much to do. His wife is a sweet girl and we all love her. She will be confined in February. Their Anniversary month.

We hear from the boys in France and so far are getting on alright.

Florence has no idea where she will spend the winter. She will come back from Hood River to Linnies. It is not fair to Linnie to have her there as she has her hands full. She is working 3 and 4 nights to help Mr. Black with the living and it makes her work so much harder as Florence is not able to do anything to help.

I have tried to see Ned to find out if I could help him in any way about a rent for the winter. They could have the use of my furniture but so far have not had a chance to see him.

The fire is out so will write Sadie in the morning.

Dear Sister Alice; 12 November 1918

Just a few lines to let you know we are getting along fine. Baby and Ilia are as well as ever though not quite rid of the dark lines under their eyes. They are gaining everyday.

Esther and Ilia have been helping to get in the corn and wood. Ralph has not had time to help with the wood and as we are having a lot of rain I'm trying to get it split a little at a time. It splits very easy and I leave the knots to him. You know Sherman always had lots of wood and kindling so I've never had much of that kind of work, although I have done other things just as hard. It is good exercise. We are hoping now since this latest peace move that we can soon have at least part of our boys home again. I do not see how Willis could get home before Spring as the occupation by allied forces will keep them there for some time. I am enclosing some postals Ralph and Myra got last summer. I hope Edna has sent you the one of herself and Nadine. She had only a few finished and I have not received one yet.

We had our first frost last night. We rather needed it as the late potatoes had not begun to ripen. I do hope Mother is stronger then when you and Sadie wrote. How much I had planned on visiting you all with Sherman, now he will get his visit with Mother in heaven first.

Love,

Virgie

Dear Sister Sadie;

I have been rereading your first letter to me an then Ida's which followed us to Port Angeles and then back to Vancouver. You see she speaks of letting us know if anything happens, so she too, thought as you said, Sherman would be the last to go. It would have seemed to anyone that with Bayard and Florence so helpless and Mother so aged that one of them would have been called first. You see God's ways are not our ways. I grieve, because as my old friend Lizzie wrote me, all my youth was spent with him and I miss him in a thousand ways, and I had planned, so long, of the visit we should have when we could go East together. Then when it seemed as tho the cares and expense of raising a family made it impossible for us both I urged him to go alone for I could just hear him tell how he visited with Jack Lewis or Uncle John. Is he still living? Oh I can not remember or any of the old folks there and how everything looked or seemed as it looked when he was there. How everything and everybody had changed since he saw them, but now I know he knows, why and where and when. He has been called from all the little worries and big cares. His great reward. I feel he is happier and realizing more of God's loving care for all of us, more than ever.

I wonder if you have told Mother yet" Perhaps it will make her feel more willing to make the journey if she knows he will be there to meet her.

Love to you all,

Virgie

Dear Sisters Alice and Sadie; 25 December 1918

We are glad Mother is feeling better. Mama has been saving a turkey until the boys come home but we convinced her that will be a long time yet, so she had me dress him. It weighed 20 pounds and was just delicious. We had creamed turnips sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, canned prunes, sweet apple pickles, waldorf salad, pumpkin pie and whipped cream. We had all we could eat. Mama made most of the candy with Myra's help. We had a tree. Virginia and Ilia thought it was nice. I bought the stockings, ribbons and each one a toy. We bought a little folding table for Esther. It cost 35¢. I felt rewarded when Esther found it and said "Oh! I have been just aching for a table." Esther and Ilia had a few pennies to spend so they bought books and blocks for each other and baby. It was lonely without Edna and baby Nadine and Sherman dear, we missed him too.

Dear Sisters; 29 December 1918

Your Christmas gifts arrived safely. Myra was pleased with the rug and will take it to Eugene with her. We were pleased with the quilt for Willis, not only because he was so pleased and proud of it but to know Mother is still able to do such work, such fine stitches and to think she has finished three. We all think it a very pretty quilt and Sadie the rugs are truly beautiful. We have never seen any like those before but Mama says she has. Thank Mother for Mama Kennedy's handkerchief. She was so pleased to be remembered.

While Myra is here we want to finish her dress. Our house is too small. We have two rooms below and two above. I had so much to pack and store away. I can't seem to get much done, just general housework but the real reason is that I am so slow. I trust you will be kept safe and well this coming year.

I am sending one of Ilia's curls, you see it is not curled as I had to comb it perfectly straight so I could bob it without wasting anything in length. I have not done anything with the hair yet.

Myra had a letter Friday from Willis. He was on leave October 31st at Air Les Bains, France. The first we have heard for 8 months. I guess he was in the thick of the battles. We are so in hopes he will come home soon. Mama is in hopes that Elliot will get an honorable discharge soon. He is in for 4 years if he chooses. Elliot's in Brooklyn, New York. He was very sea-sick on both of his voyages. They returned him to shore. We were pretty sure Wilbert would be home for Christmas as he didn't get home for Thanksgiving. So we had one soldier boy home for dinner. Wilbert had a 48 hour leave and 40 hours of it were spent on the road.

THE FOLLOWING LETTER WAS WRITTEN BY VIRGINIA (ORDWAY) YOUNG AFTER THE LOSS OF HER HUSBAND, SHERMAN L. YOUNG ON THE 26th OF OCT. 1918. THE LETTER WAS SENT TO HER SISTER-IN-LAW ALICE IN SHERMAN MILLS, ME.

1 December 1918

Dear Sister Alice;

Your good letters received, one from Sherman Mills while you were home and one from Bangor, Maine. I am going to write to you as often as Sherman did so you will know as nearly as you can how we are. I know his children are more dear to you than anyone except for your own dear ones there and I do appreciate your sympathy Alice, for I am sure you, next to my own mother, realize more than anyone else what such loss means.

My own father was with mother for 15 years and then Mr. Kennedy was spared to her nearly 20 years and she is so thankful she could care for him to the last moment.

Mother wishes she could help me with the work as it is much harder for her to sit and see others work. That is the hardest thing she has to bear at this time. I tell her, "Why mother, you have done your work & there is nothing for you to do, nothing that you have left unfinished." Mother would answer, "You always wanted an old lady to sit in your chimney corner and darn stockings but I cannot do even that."

Mother seems comfortable and I think when the days get warmer again and can go out doors and excercise, she may even gain.

I am sorry Mother and Sadie are not feeling their best and do hope you may find the help they need.

I gave Ned, Sherman's collar bag, a green sheep skin and all of the collars, shirts and underclothes which he could use. To Elliot I gave the shaving outfit, to Uncle Wib the heavy work shirt and his trousers.

Sherman was a great hand to collect odd things and he had a box of curios, a few stamps he collected when we were first married. I have his pin for a guard for my watch.

Thank you for Mother's picture, it is sweet and her dress is simply beautiful.

Dear Sister Alice;

You do write such lovely letters and so neat too. Mine must jar your artistic sensibilities. We are getting better. Esther was able to go to school today.

Belle and Elmer Ordway, cousins of mine came today. Belle washed the dishes, Elmer dried and I got dinner while Myra got into her Sunday dress. We had roast veal, Esthers prize carrots, creamed mashed potatoes, dressing, gravy, celery, apple salad, current Jelly, canned beet pickles, cherry pie and coffee.

We walked to Aunt Hannah's after dinner and had a nice visit with them. I see by your letters you want Willis to come back there and stay with you.

Goodnight,

Virgie

My Dear Nadine;

Tomorrow will be Christmas. What a chance for us humans to find joy in doing good for those who need good done for them.

Jesus said, "Cast not your pearls before swine." I wonder what He meant? Self sacrafice! What is it? He gave all he had, a life of example, of purpose, for our example. His teaching in Christian living? That is what your Great-Grandmother Fannie Alice (Thompson) Ordway, Kennedy believed and the kind of life she always lived. This is the gift I wish for you my first grandchild. This material gift is made from her dress, the last beautiful thing she ever bought for her self. She loved beauty, Art, Music, Books and above all flowers. Cherish her memory by using this scrap of loving memory.

Aunt Myra Helen (Young) Shaw and great-uncle Edgar Kennedy went on a wonderful trip to Jerusalem, Rome and other cities with Tour Guides Rev. Robert Walker and his wife Mardy and Kenneth and Mary Jacobson of the 1st Methodist Church. Aunt Myra was going to be 80 the 22nd of August and Uncle Edgar was just 77 years young.

Uncle Robert, Mryra's husband could not obtain a passport in time to make the trip.

The following is from Aunt Myra's diary written March 15, 1978.

We departed from Portland, Oregon at 8:15 a.m. A foggy morning but not bad. As soon as we were over Casmas, Washington the sky was clear and it was a beautiful sight to see the sunshine, pink and golden on Mt. Rainier, Mt. St. Helens and Mt. Adams.

We flew over the southern tip of Lake Michigan in our D.C. 10 to Chicago, boarded a 747 for Amsterdam at 5:15 p.m.. When on our way, large flat baskets of hard candies were passed. Soon dinner was served. Seven hours to Amsterdam. Then two hours to Rome. It was quite a distance from the airport to our hotel, El Borg.

Rome was founded in 700 B.C. A city of squares and fountains and arches. Statues and arches honor a certain person or event. The statue of Neptune, the god of the sea, all white marble and in the center of delicate figures is a fountain. The bus stops to allow passengers to have a better look or to snap pictures. Trevi fountain, baroque style was built in 1735. A thrilling sight-eternal Rome, continuous history without a break through out the succession of Ancient, Medieval and Modern. Susan our guide, steeped in Roman history and sincere dedication to Roman customs and beliefs sat across rom the driver and kept up a running commentary of sight and events. She told us about her home life. All the buses are delux and they are all over Rome. The seats are a little higher level than the floor and very comfortable. Large windows are all around almost together. Private cars are called Mickey Mouses, and they are small like taxis racing everywhere. For a person not having been to Rome it is impossible to picture the speed of the cars one after the other, very frightening. They were within inches of us when we wanted to cross a certain street. On some of the streets they are allowed to park at every angle up over the sidewalks. But we travelers were safe in the buses.

We were taken to the catacombs where Christians were buried. Some of the group went inside to have a better look. We rode along the Appian way, the route taken by Julius Caesar and other conquering heros returning from Egypt. Small stone houses were all along. Some are large enough for a small family. Pretty Cypress trees lined the way. We rode past the public baths and saw evidence of large rooms, pools and gyms.

As we neared St. Peters, venders were selling bottled drinks and ice cream from small motorized carts with a scalloped overhang. Long tables held books, souveniers. Men were trying to sell their items at the same customers all at once. St. Peters is the most magnificent church in the world. It is beyond description-- has 44 alters, 390 statues. It was built around St. Peters grave. It is 450 feet wide--700 feet long--150 feet to the ceiling. The proportions are so well balanced it does not overwhelm one. Down the long vista of the church is St. Peter's statue. The high bronze statue with carvings stands free of the walls. There is a curving short flight of stairs below where one may see the tomb. Michaelango's ceiling is directly above. He was less than 25 years of age when he carved the Pieta which is near the entrance. St. Peter's bronze statue is held aloft by four spiral columns. Long shafts of light pour on to it through amber windows. 70,000 people may stand in the church for a service of mass. There are many large chandeliers. The church was finished in 1666. Smooth worn floors are all around the statues and there are many statues along the 140 feet, an abolisk, plundered from Egypt stands in the piazza and holds aloft the cross. This obolisk witnessed the death of St. Peter. The piazza is very large, slightly concaved, all paved and has two marble fountains. Our itinery stated we were to be in the piazza for the Pope's blessing to the people but for some reason the day was changeo. We had a wide open view which may have been better. Three hundred statues of Christ and the Apostles and Saints keep their vigil on the balistrades of the palace which has 1,000 rooms

Vatican City is a nation on its own situated near by. There are some 800 residents with all the needs of a city. The Vatican Library is beautiful for it's architecture, rich furnishings and paintings. There are 470,600,000 Roman Cstholics in the world.

Bus arrives at our hotel. We were going to visit the Museum where one could spend two days instead of one looking at the 17,000 exhibts with the collection of Tutankh-Amon and relics of the Pharaohs. This display was on the second floor up wide white marble steps. There were many gorgeous, costly items, Alibaster jars in white and tints, all sizes and shapes, some 3,000 years old. Turquois, solid gold and gold leaf, colorful inlays in chairs, King Tut's statue and jewelry and the coffins of a King. These were four in number, each one smaller in size so the four made the coffin. These were six feet high and five feet across. Sus was such a good guide. She was earning money so she could study archeology. We crossed the Tiber River twice, parklike with pretty trees along the bank. We had an early morning drive along the Nile where the baby Moses was hidden.

Then on to the ancient Egyptian capitol, Memphis to see the large statue of Ramses II. Stopped for lunch at Ared. A very delicious dessert was served. President Roosevelt and Sir Winston Churchhill had lunched here several days previously. Another day we were taken way out in the desert and saw many white cement homes, all with balconies and pink trim. I wish I could remember where the Shepherd lad found the scrolls in a cave. In no other part of the world has the flora been known to be so well preserved as it is here in the caves.

In Amsterdam we got into a motor launch and rode through a canal out into the bay below sea level. Many interesting sights. The bay is connected to the North Sea by a broad canal eighteen miles long. The largest ships afloat can sail inland to Amsterdams busy wharves. One day we were taken way out into the desert to see many white cement homes. All with balconies and pink trim. The ground is stoney with no irrigation but the soil is rich enough to grow grapes and olives, grapes for the table are trained upright, for wine they are trained prostrate and covered to keep them sweet. Olives are harvested one at a time and none are allowed to be picked up from the ground.

Robert could not get a passport in time to be included in the tour.

We were in Jerusalem five days. I had a room and bath on the first floor, a choice location. The dining room was near by. Tables to seat five. All the food was paid for in the price of the tour. No women waitresses anywhere. In Italy pasta was always served as a first course.

We drove along beside the Dead Sea. Saw the pillar which was dubbed Lot's wife. By a brick factory---bricks piled up four feet high and a mile in length. As we drove along the Dead Sea, we were told that it is more salty than is the Salton Sea in Utah. The Dead Sea is evaperating quite rapidly and will be completely dry in time even though the Jordan River flows into it. We drove to Old Corinth. The ground level was quite a ways below where the bus was. We could see carved columns scattered about. Then to the new city. Many small white cement homes, painted white every other year to keep them that way. All the painting is done by women. We saw figs, orange trees and pomegranits. We were driven slowly past the Coloseum and many of the other important buildings. Many miles northeast of Jeruselem are kibitzums, one story buildings, where time is donated to serve in caring for children while their parents work. Golda Meier and her daughter contributed many years. Some stay for a lifetime. Some of the homes have a subsiderary. Geese are raised and their livers exported, cotton, vegetables. On to the Pyramids. Only one of (7) seven wonders left today. The great pyramid is made of blocks of stone weighing hundreds of pounds were cut and laid in place, almost exact. How could they have been built so high? Nothing was used to hold the blocks in place. 360,000 men were employed upon it for twenty years. Cheops is said to have been in existance some 4600 years ago.

Smaller tombs are all around but they too are large. They were built to hide the valuables of the Kings and for burial and also to keep the nubians occupied. Camels and their riders were seen near the pyrimids. Some of the group rode on the camels a short distance.

We visited the Sistine Chapel. More white marble steps. As we walked along the hall toward the chapel there were several windows on one side and beautifully woven tapestried on the other--- so perfect that when one walks a little past and looks back there is another scene. Then down one wide step with seats on one side only to sit and meditate and look at the very beautiful Michelangelo paintings. We were on the Island of Rhodes and then in Greece. We were taken around the city and then to the Parthenon. The post cards I brought home will be scenes which we saw. I lost many of my notes.. Pyramids first wonder of ancient world, 3000 years B.C. Date trees are the only tree known originally from Egypt. Dates are picked carefully one at a time. Small pink flowers covered the landscape in a section. I gathered some and pressed them to bring home. We spent one night in Ammon, Jordan. The next day rode past the summer home of King Hussien. Frankincense trees grow slow and low.

Damascus is one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world, as far back as the 3rd millenium B.C.

There were fourteen people in the tour group.

The Dome of the Rock , hexigon in shape and faced with small colored tiles. A golden dome can be seen from most areas of Jeruselem, wide, white marble steps to the entrance, built on the sight of Solomans temple.

The wailing wall---only Orthodox Jews were to be seen. Scull caps were worn. I noticed large black hats in the airport.

Aunt Myra was asked to give up her room one night as the tour guide said there was a convention in town and the hotel needed some more space. Mary Jacobson asked her to take a cot moved in from the cold porch. She said she shivered all night and caught cold. The next morning her room mates found her passed out on the floor in the bathroom. They sent for a Dr. who came from Amon Jordon and was charged $75.00.

Needless to say Uncle Edgar stayed right there with her until she was strong enough to carry on. To add insult to injury she was not refunded her room money.

On April 11, 1907 Sherman Young, Virgie's husband wrote a letter to his Mother in Sherman Mills, Maine.

Dear Mother;

We are all very sad and lonely now. Our dear little Kelsy is not with us in body. We will miss him so much. He was a dear little boy and loving. He used to say when I asked him about you people that he loved everyone. He died at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday and we laid his little body away in Pine Grove at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday. It was very sad to do these things but we know he was a little Christian boy. I think today he can see us and if he does he won't know we are sad and lonely. Through his sickness he never complained. I asked him how he felt? He said, "Very fine." Mr. Turner said he never felt so sad in his life. They made a white wreath and Myra laid it on the mound. Myra and Edna had picked wild flowers. We were all with him until the last.

Lots Of Love To You All,

Dear Mother;

I received your loving letter and was glad to get it. There is not any snow but it is raining today. Esther calls, ta-ta-ta-ta and when the cat comes she says, "Scat." and the cat runs away. She says, "do-way," bydee which means good bye dear." I wish you could come to see her she is so cute and cunning. She has a new crib. We bought it at Meier and Frank's Store.

Love,

Virgie

MISS YOUNG IS BRIDE OF MR. NEAL

A pretty wedding was solemnized last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E.M. Shambaugh, 3504 "O" St. when Miss Esther W. Young became the bride of Brady Neal. The couple were united by the Rev. Raymond S. Rees, pastor of the lst Methodist Ch.

The bride wore a simple gown of crepe de chine of deep burnt orange tone, while her attendant and sister Miss Ilia Young chose a light green silk embroidered in silver. The groom had as best man, Omer H. Barnes.

The bride is a Vancouver girl and daughter of Mrs. Adelbert Wingert. Mr. Neal is the son of Mr. & Mrs. William Neal of Hall, Washington.

A reception was given immediately following the ceremony by the sister of the bride, Mrs. Shambaugh. The table in the cining room was centered by a large white cake trimmed with silver and gold. Silver & gold candles were used as decorations.

The Young couple left at once for Hall were they will make their home. Mr. Neal has his own farm near Hall and Mrs. Neal will continue her work as teacher in the Hall School.

Esther graduated from BEllingham Normal School in Bellingham, Washington.

Mom;

How are you doing there? Lance & I miss coming over to see you. Today I started a plant hanger, so far so good. It's getting to be a job though. Lance decided that this time he wouldn't help me do this one. Nothing much is going on right now. I am at Christy's house writing this letter. Yesterday I started re-decorating my place. I have so much stuff I am not really sure where I am going to put it all. Today is December 5th and I stayed home all morning and cleaned my house.

Lance has started to be in the Christmas mood. He wants to put up the tree already. Well, I told him we could wait at least a couple more weeks yet before we go that far. I guess we are going to put Christmas things all over the house.

Oh!, by the way, we will be at your house on the evening of Christmas Day. That is the time everybody gets together isn't it? I have my own family to tend to also, so we may be a little late depending on the time.

Well I guess I have nothing other to say for now except we both love you and miss you ever so much and you had better get home soon, that is an ORDER!!!.

Your daughter-in-law

Cindy

LINDA MARIE (NEAL) LAMB'S WEDDING DAY-- LELAND, GLEN, BILL, GARY, ARTHUR, LANCE

.....My family was always too busy making a living to dig into history, but we know that my grandfather, David Kelsey Ordway, came from Maine. He married Fanny Alice Thompson in Portland, Maine and in 1878 or perhaps earlier he came to the Little White Salmon to look at a location for a lumber mill. He returned to Maine and in 1882 he brought his mill help around the Horn of S. America. The mill was set up at chenowith, near what is now Mill A. The mill sawed rough lumber into cants and ties which were flumed down the mountain to a cove on the Columbia River near the foot of the present Crest Trail.

The O.R.& N. (Oregon Washington Rail and Navigation Co.) bought the ties for their roadbed, & the cants were taken to a mill on The Oregon side of the River too.

As soon as David Ordway could build living quarters, he sent for his wife and daughter to come from Maine by railroad. Their little two year old daughter, Virginia was my mother. There is a story about grandmother Fannie. She came from a comfortable home in Maine to Chenowith. She brought with her a trunk filled with her things and also a nice rug. When her things were unloaded into the rough cabin, Grandmother sat down on the trunk and cried. Then she dried her eyes, rolled up her sleeves and set to work to put her things in place. It is said she never again complained about the conditions around her.

David and Fannie had four sons born to them. Little Virginia was playmate and caretaker to her baby brothers, Ralph, Robey, Rufus and Raymond. There were few other children, but there were several Indian children they liked very much. The Underwoods were lifelong friends. My mother used to tell me that her family had a garden and they dried and stored what food they grew. Canning was unheard of then, and they learned from the Indians to gather camas roots and other roots for winter use. Mother and her little brothers liked to go berry picking. She used to tell stories about their adventures I remember she once picked huckleberries across the bush from a bear Robey and Raymond died tragic deaths in their teens. Robey was accidentally shot while carrying his gun through a fence. Raymond was drowned swimming at Coberg's Beach. One of the other boys fell in the flume but he was rescued.

Grandma Fanny's mother lived with the Ordways at Chenowith. She was from Maine and outlived five husbands no divorces. Her son Walter Thompson lived with her. At the time of her death she was Mrs Torgeson. She died of an attack, just fell over in her chair. Grandfather had a partner named Weidler. They ran the mill and a small country store. The post office had been established in 1881 with James F. Kimball as postmaster, but in 1883 February 13, David was named postmaster. He moved the office into the store. David, Fannie, their children, Mary Pease & her son Walter Thompson & Wm. Kennedy were listed in the population count of 1885. Other residents were Charles Meyer and his wife, Lovina Underwood, John Dark, Robert Introm, Horace Weatherwax, William Drano (known as French Billy.) John Dye and his wife Betsy and John Johnson.

In "POSTMARKED WASHINGTON" Guy Reed Tamsy wrote that the mail was brought once a week from Hood River to Mitchell Point on the Oregon side of the Columbia River. Joe Alleck rode horseback to a point opposite Chenowith Landing, rowed a skiff across the river and then carried the mail up the mountain to the Chenowith Post Office.

David held the office of Postmaster until 1892 when his health failed. He moved his family to Pine Grove in the Hood River Valley. He died there in 1894 and is buried in the cemetery on Van Horn Butte.

David had a brother Julius, who also came west to seek his fortune. He was a prospector and dealer. At one time he owned a lot of land around the old Union Depot in Portland. He was a well to do man. He traveled back and forth by train to visit the family. He kept a raft with a sail to go across the river from Hood River. He always brought nice presents to my older sisters and me. He married a poetess, June McMillan but they had no children. (This is true the sons died. I found them as I researched. Their names were Elliot and Earl Ordway. Neither of them married. See chapter on Julius Ordway. N.A.M.)

William Kennedy had worked for David in the mill at Chenowith and in 1897 Fannie married him and they had three sons, Wilbert, Elliot and Edgar. The Kennedy family moved to a prune orchard in the Lake Shore district of Clark County and my grandmother Fannie died in 1919.

The above letter was written by Esther W. (Young) Neal of White Salmon, Washington on April 28, 1978 and was published in the Skamania County Heritage in the fall of 1978. The Heritage is published in Stevenson, Washington.

Dear Mama and baby Anita;

Daddy got our masks tonight. Gerald got a gray and red pig mask. David got a black, orange and yellow Charlie Chapman mask. That has a mustache on it. I got a Bondie mask that has red cheeks & a red mouth and blue eyes. It has curly bangs. When I put it on Grandma thought it was my own hair because it was just the same color. I don't have any home-work to do. David and Gerald had their party today at school but we are going to have ours Monday. I hope you are feeling better. Daddy is out milking Bossie now. Ha! Ha!. I am going to make my cookies tonight.

Yours always,

My Dearest Iliakins;

You are still just that, even tho you have gone so far away from me. How I wish I could urge you not to be so far away from Mama yet. I am probably only wasting perfectly good ink, tho. It seems we have had so little time to be together. I wonder if you do not need me just a lot more now than when I chased all over town to find why you were not in school and the night I waited on the porch for you to come in at eleven p.m. Can you remember the shaking? I was only trying to save you from yourself, your own worst or best enemy or friend. You are such a darling to me. God is love and Christ is our only example of Godliness in the human form. He was reserved so much that He knew He never could marry and do the work He had been sent to do. We can not all be so self sacrificing but we can study from Him the Christian way.

Your card came this morning and I was so glad to hear you are alright. You must write me a good long letter telling me about everything. How many Doctors on your staff? How many nurses? Any more than one night nurse? You had a letter from Edna George yesterday in my care she also enclosed one for me. I opened yours first in case she needed some immediate answer.

(The following letter was written to Ilia again from her mother.)

Dear Ilia; June 1950

Nadine drove me out to the cemetery. It all looked very clean. A beautiful spot, as ever was, I think. I found a tiny birds nest with two eggs in the grass and wild pea very near to Anita's stone. So I did not pull any out as I started to do around the Lillies of the Valley. It makes a smooth green cover, all over the little grave and would not be prettier of tame things. The new plot to the north has been planted to grass and clover and a number of spots have been taken. We could not have had a nicer day. I enjoyed seeing all the wild things in the woods, Lupine, Buttercups, flowers every where, all the way to White Salmon too.

Brady has made a great improvement in the looks of their yard with the new fences, Ma's too. Esther begged me to stay but I wanted to go to the Rose Show. The Vancouver float was lovely, won sweep stakes again this year, 5 wins in 8 years.

Edna came in a few minutes this morning. She phoned Eleanor last night. Eleanor and George had dinner with Myra and Robert a week ago. They are going to take an apartment in El Cerrito for the present. I wish I could have had one more visit in that very lovely home.

On Saturday morning I dressed in Black Satin dress, black lace shawl and coat of your grandma's. (Grandmother Young, Townsend) and Aunt Alice's things, fixed a hat to match, took the bus to Portland at 9:30 and enjoyed the lovely sunny day and the grand floats. The bands and all were as fine as they ever had. Each one just about as fine as you could imagine. I had lunch at Irelands, a seat waiting for me, then shopped at Lipmans and Meier and Franks. Took 4:00 o'clock bus home. I had a nice day. First time I have ever done the Rose Show alone, but one is never alone in that kind of parade. Several clerks asked me about my "costume."

Today it has poured in torrents, so I have been in all day. Yesterday I planted petunias and stock on the front border along the border of roses. Do not see anything but weeds on the edges, so will try to get more of them out tomorrow. The day was delightful, warm and sunny so I enjoyed the whole day out of doors. When I do that letters do not get written. Today the Fairs sent me a wedding invitation to Ruth Ann's wedding on the 17th, Friday eve. in the First Presbyterian Church so I suppose Earl and Pauls will be up for that event. I may not go. It depends on how smart I feel that day.

Very much love to all,

Mother and Grandmother.

VIRGINIA, ESTHER & ILIA AT LAKE SHORE

April 30, 1984

Monday evening

Dear Edna, Myra, Esther, Va. and all;

Hurrah. I finally made it!!!

Yesterday, before I forget it, I met a man who knew Aunt Alice-but he was too 'foggy' to talk coherently. Anyhow his son had a painting Aunt Alice's "son" gave him. I said it must have been a step-son so he said, "Oh yes- a step-son." It was not as well done as the one Myra has but I could easily tell it was hers-Alice's even if I had not seen the signuture, Alice Y. Tracy.

I left Izaias and his sister's (a lovely lady) and took the bus to Bangor and there rented a car $20.00 a day plus gasoline and I kept the car two days. I was guided right to the house as I drove past, I'll tell you all later when I see you. I missed the church service, so drove to the next town. Heard a beautiful sermon and met Nina Sawyer and she said to tell Nadine hello- then I took 24 pictures, some in cemetery- and met Nadine O"Roark and she visited with me ever so long and she showed me the house. I got absolutely creepy, a wonderful sensation to "feel" my Papa's home. The day was absolutely perfect-too warm for a sweater.

The minister pastors both churches so she asked me if I would like to see the inside. Grandma must have gone there before becoming C.S.

Anyhow I surely had a beautiful day. Even came back to Bangor via a side road following a beautiful turbulent river. I took pictures of Mt. Katahdin. Early today I went to Newport and then to Dover Foxcroft and found nothing @ D.F. but bumpy roads. In Newport I talked with a lady, and her 90 year old husband who knew a Janet Ordway and her husband had Ordway relatives. Also they said that the Newport Inn where they live was built before 1880's. If Nadine wants to write to Janet her name now is Janet Boyle and she is Clerk of the Court at Newport.

Newport Inn was first a "Show House" then "Jones Inn" and finally "Newport Inn" It's been transformed into a lovely senior housing-Delux for $178.00 for 2 people, electricty and H2o paid for; you'd drool.

My bedtime will write in a week, or so. much love,

Ilia

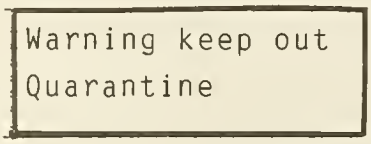
A LETTER FROM AUNT ILIA (YOUNG)

March 14, 1985

Dear Nadine;

As usual I always think of you on your birthday. Hope it was blessed and happy.

Alice (Ordway) and Winston have been here eight days. and have gone on now to Apache Juction, Tuscon etc. We were talking about mama and somehow got around to remembering our years at 1st. and Washington Street. When I told her how Esther and I carried the large trays (mama had them special made.) filled with ice-cream cones to the "money stall" on the bridge, as fast as we could run back mama filled the trays- probably 40 to 50 minutes during the time the shipyard workers paid the toll. Anyhow, once while we lived there the tent we slept in caught fire- the lady who helped mama fell to her knees praying. Mama shook her shoulder and said "Pray later, get the girls out first." Ha! Also I can remember mama looking out of the big window in the store- so disconsolate, while we girls were quarantined with scarlet-fever. Probably a period of 6 weeks. The big red poster sign on the store door.



When we lived on 23rd St. mama had my prettiest dress on me- one the Burdick girls had outgrown and mama was pick-ing me up abound 2:00 p.m. to take me to Portland with her. A boy in my 5th grade had dipped my long braid in his ink-well. Mama marched me into the principals office. (Mr. Dudley) He whipped the boy.

When I was a freshman in high school mama walked me to school the day after I played hookey.

Thanks for letting me know of Myra. How many memories she would have if we can get her remembering.

Joan and I plan to go up in June for Joan's High School re-union. Izaiah will come later in August. Joan and I will probably stay a week or so. I hope to have all my sister's together for "remembering mama."

On Sunday afternoons sometimes mama would take my hand (Esther and Virginia never wanted to go) and we would walk to the 39th St. woods and gather tiny wild strawberries and pick trilliums and tiny violets and dig licorice root.

Mama said she was holding me on her lap in church, held in the Lake Shore school house (if I remember?) and a lady be-hind mama said if my neck was as long as that ladies (Virgie)

I'd wear a high necked collar. Mama said ever after she wore a high necked blouse.

When mama walked with me around the C.C. Store and on down town she would grind out cigar and cigarette butts with her heel. She took me several times to W.C.T.U. meetings held upstairs above one of the down-town stores.

Mama came to Emanuel Hospital Nurses home and left a note on my dresser. "Ilia Alice your rules here are so strict. they would not let me wake you, I am so homesick to see you." I was on night duty and even though we were required to get up for classes during the day no one could wake us to visit. That was when mama was living in Ridgefield.

Well, more memories some other time. Your mom wrote me of her stroke. Let me know about her and Myra.

Hope your Salt Lake trip was profitable.

Love,

Ilia

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Mrs. Marshall Cowie

Phoenix, Arizona

Dear Mrs. Cowie;

I've intended daily to write this note to you, but each day something caused me to procrastinate. My first impulse when I received the money from you after the memorial service for your mother was to return it at once. Then I decided to follow your suggestion and turn it in to a memorial. It will be good to have something tangible here at the church with your mother's name on it, for her church meant much to her as I attempted to indicate in the message.

I appreciated so much my visit with you daughters in your sister's home here that afternoon. There is a world of difference in the attitudes of people toward death. Those who have Christian faith have something definite to turn to for comfort and consolation.

Thanks again and I send my sincerest best wishes to you.

MARGARET PITZER

Margaret Pitzer, who outlived her relatives but didn't lack for friends, died Wednesday in Vancouver at age 107.

"Oh, she had lots of friends," Edgar Kennedy of Vancouver said today. "I was just going through some of her mail, and she's got friends stretching from California to the upper end of Washington state."

Kennedy and his wife, Marie, were longtime friends of Mrs. Pitzer. He said Mrs. Pitzer's husband, William and her brothers and sisters died years ago. However, Kennedy said Mrs. Pitzer raised several children, although she never formally adopted them.

"She raised children who just walked into her home," Kennedy said. As a result, she has an unofficial grandaughter, Bonnie Frezin, who lives in Portland.

Mrs. Pitzer was b. 27 Feb. 1877, in Michigan. She began dancing at age 7 and performed in ballet at the Chicago Opera House for many years. In 1916, she and her husbanf moved to Pendleton, Oregon, then later to a farm near White Salmon. They moved to Vancouver in 1944. She last lived at 400 E. 33rd. St. (Our family knew Margaret and her husband while they lived in White Salmon.) Uncle Ralph Ordway was a great friend to that family.

When she turned 100, Mrs. Pitzer told the Columbian, "At the age of 80, I took a dogsled trip through the Yukon. But I've done all I am going to do."

Although she spent the past several years in retirement and convalescent homes, Mrs. Pitzer remained active and sharp of tongue. "She was a card." Kennedy said, "She spoke out and said just what she wanted to.

Her determination to live was very strong. She broke her arm about 2 years ago, but that didn't slow her down. She complained to the Doctor that he had made the cast too heavy."

All of our family loved Margaret, this was indicated in wanting to be with her. We all spent time taking her for drives and out to dinner. which she loved to do. All ages loved to visit with her.

I was reading the 1900 census records and came across Aunt Allene Ordway's family.

The census was taken 13 June 1900, it was sheet no. 221 district 144. The house no was 111-113 was the family no. The Clark information was taken from Wasco County, Oregon, the West Dalles precinct Dallas City 50A92.

Mr. Clark was 40 years and Mrs. Clark was 30. They had been m. 12 years. The family was as follows: Earl Clark b. May 1890. He was ten years of age and was b. in Nebraska. Iva was b. in April 1891 and was 9 years of age and she to was b. in Nebraska. Etta b. in March 1893 was 7 years of age at census. She was b. in Oregon as was Allene born in November 1894 and was 5 years old.

Dear Nadine;

I am delighted that you are searching and finding so much about our father's heritage!

The book you compiled on the Young Family is marvelous! Of course my favorite parts are about Dad & Mom in Trout Lake. Isn't the lovely lady in the picture with you at Trout Lake when you were 5 months and 3 weeks old my Mother? Mom was pregnant with Kelsey about that time and it looks like early pictures I have seen of her.

I am also delighted to hear about Grandma and Grandpa Ordway and to see the family. (On page 319) I have never seen a photo of my grandfather Ordway or my great-grandmother Mary Ann Torgerson. Seeing the pictures of the many relatives and reading the history involved is truly like opening the window to some of our past. It does make me more appreciative of who we are and of what our ancestors went thru.

I didn't realize that we also shared Mom's middle name. She was a precious lady and I will never cease missing her. You were always very special to her I know. She spoke so well & often of you. (It would be nice if some one in the family would do a history of her family.) Maybe I could look into that before we leave the Mid-West. (We will be returning to the North-West sometime in the near future as Bob. has just retired as of September 1st.)

We miss the beautiful mountains and the ocean there. We also miss our dear family. It is home.

I would be interested to know how you proceeded with your information gathering in case I go ahead with the research.

Bob's information on his Dad is a little hazy as he does not know enough about him. He was a Dentist and a very successful one but he died when Bob. was 12 and somehow records of him are conflicting. (Apparently neither his Dad or Mom liked to have anyone know how old they were.)

My sincere thanks to you for your diligent hard labor of love Let me know if there is anything else I can do to help with your book on the Ordways. I was out to the Northwest this last summer and went out to the cemetery at Pine Grove. It is the most beautiful spot one can imagine. Mt. Hood & the Valley are a sight I treasure. ONe day I intend to be tucked in the earth there, that is if all goes according to my plans. (And if there is room.)

With gratitude and love,

Doris Allene Ordway Graves.

ANN MARION Jr. CAROLINE
DOROTHY CHRISTINE MARION Sr.

THE MARION KENNEDY FAMILY

Marion Jr. was 13 when this photograph was taken, Ann 11, Caroline Jean 8 years and Christine was 6 years of age.

Marion and Dorothy attended Fort Vancouver High School and both came from long-time Clark County residents. They started producing milk in 1939 in the Lake Shore area. In 1960 they moved to Manor to work with Roy Darling who owned the farm. They were milking 250 cows at that time. Since that they incorporated the farm and purchased Manor Farms, Inc. and increased to where they were milking 550 head.

They raised most of the forage on the farm which consisted of about 1200 acres. In 1971 they had 400 acres of corn for silage, 220 acres of alfalfa plus oats, grass and clover. They purchased some hay on a dry year like 1970. They purchased the grain in amounts of about 2000 tons per year.

Marion Jr. was a student at W.S.U. studying architecture., Ann a teacher at Moscow, Idaho, Jean a student at W.S.U. in forestry and Chris also at W.S.U. studying horticulture.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kennedy

Manor Farms

The Marion Kennedy family, Vancouver, Washington, manage Manor Farms which includes 1,200 acres of land and nearly 600 Holstein milk cows.

A very important factor in an operation of this size is the employment of good help. The Kennedy's regular full time men are supplemented through the use of foreign exchange youths from Japan and Poland. Marion, Jr., his wife and two children live on the farm and are actively involved with the operation. Daughters Ann (Mrs. David Schultz), Jean and Chris all have attended or are attending Washington State University and all have been closely associated with the farm.

Along with all their farm work, the Kennedy's are extremely active in local church, school, community, and agricultural activities. Even though the farm is a complete beehive of activity, they look to the future of dairying with great optimism and they enjoy it.

From a background on a small farm with a Jersey herd, to the largest farm in Clark County is quite a distance. The Kennedy's are combining the best in ABS genetics and intensive management to make this a most successful dairy operation.

KENNEDYS: family of the year

The Marion Kennedy family of Clark County, Wash., operators of the largest dairy farm in southwest Washington, became the state's dairy family of the year at the Washington State Dairymen's Federation Convention, November 9-10.

Surprised, because they felt their farm, which employs 12 men and foreign exchange workers besides the family, was too large to qualify under the "family" image, the Kennedys were pleased with the honor.

The Manor farm covers an area of 1200 acres, has nearly 600 milking cows and about 500 replacement heifers. It provides enough milk to sustain 4,600 persons with dairy foods.

The Dairymen's Federation called the selection of the Kennedy family, "in keeping with the national trend for dairy farms to become larger and more efficient in order to survive the pressures of urban expansion and rising operation costs."

Kennedy worries about dairy farming in Clark County, just across the bridge from burgeoning Portland, in relation to urban sprawl. "Such an arrangement means tax structure that is not conductive to dairy farming," he says. "Dairies are important to the ecological balance of a community because of forage which is essential to the atmosphere and to holding ground water." Despite all the problems dairymen have, however, the award winner said he thought they were a persistent lot and would be "around Clark county for some time anyway."

The Kennedys have four children: Marion Jr., studying architecture at Washington State University; Jean and Cris, the youngest girls who are both involved in farm studies at WSU and Ann, now Mrs. Dave Schultz who teaches French in Moscow, Idaho. Schultz is working for a doctorate in food science at WSU.

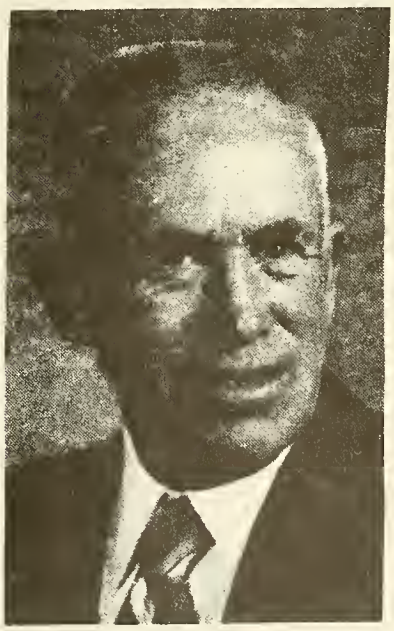
Though they are now persuing individual careers, the children have been a big part of the farm operation as they were growing up, says Mrs. Kennedy (Dorothy). "As soon as they were able to walk, we had them working on the dairy."

Kennedy, whose father was also a dairy farmer in Clark County, began his own farm following World War II and built up his herd to 100 cows. They moved to Manor farm in 1960. At that time, the combined stock of the Manor farm (then only 500 acres) and Kennedy's own stock comprised about 230 registered and graded Holsteins, 150 steers and 150 replacement heifers.

The Kennedys were chosen from among eight other families at the convention which was attended by about 275 dairy farmers and their wives.

Marion Edwin Kennedy Sr. was born 14 August 1921 in Vancouver, Washington. He passed away at age 59 on 6 October 1980. He was a Vancouver resident his entire lifetime. He was a dairyman and owner/operator of "Quiet Acres Holstein, Inc. formerly Manor Farms, Inc. His widow, Dorothy Kennedy is at home. Son Marion Edwin Kennedy Jr. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, daughters Anne Schultz, Tualatin, Oregon, Jean Smith and Christine Watters, both of Vancouver, Washington. Parents: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Kennedy, Vancouver, brother Keith Kennedy, Ithaca, New York. sisters, Mrs. Welles Pederson, Vancouver, and Jane Kennedy, Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Marion was a veteran of World War II, serving as a captain in the 188th Engineer Combat Battallion where he was involved in troop rescue in the Battle of the Bulge. Member of Twenty-First Avenue Baptist Church, State Dairymen's Federation, served on the Board of Directors for Washington State Dairymen's Federation, served on Board of Directors for Washington State Agricultural and Forestry Leadership Foundation and Clark County Dairy Herd improvement Association, Director of Southwest Washington Federal Land Bank, Vancouver, active participant and trainer in Japanese and Polish Agricultural Exchange Program, member of Clark County Dairymen's Association, Clark/Cowlitz Dairy Family of the year and Washington State family of the year (1971-1972. Funeral Services Wednesday October 8, 3:00 p.m. at the Vancouver Funeral Chapel, 110 E. 12th St. with Rev. Richard Carroll officiating. Interment at Evergreen Memorial Gardens Cemetery. Memorials in Mr. Kennedy's name may be given to the Twenty-First Avenue Baptist Church or the Charity of your choice. Vancouver Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.



Marion Kennedy Sr. was a Clark County dairyman and farmer since 1939. He died after suffering a heart attack. "He was such a fine man. He loved his family & he loved his farming" said his daughter Christine Watters of Vancouver. After selling his cows two years ago, he farmed grain crops and corn on approximately 1,200 acres surrounding his home at 6113 N.E. 179th St. He worked 16 hours a day He just loved to work, " Mrs. Watters said

Thanks to the Kunselman family, 6-month-old Jason has been given the very thing that every child born deserves; a real home.

Dianna and Bob Kunselman, both employees of Southwest Washington Hospitals, were married two years ago. Dianna brought three girls into the marriage. The couple felt a little boy would round out the family just fine.

Because they were unable to have children of their own, they decided to adopt and contracted Adoption Advocates International, based in Port Angeles. They learned there were counselors based in Clark County who worked with the agency, and got right down to business. Jill James was assigned to the case and the Kunselmans say her knowledge and experience was invaluable. James has six children, four of whom are adopted. "She knew what she was talking about, all right." said Dianna, 34.

The year-old AAI is a link between prospective parents in Washington State and adoptable children from India, the Philippines, Costa Rica, Colombia, Korea, Mexico and the Republic of China. Children with special needs are available from the U.S.

"In the Kunselmans ," said James, "I found just what we look for: a stable, loving family that really desires a child." "Part of my job is using my intuition. Sometimes people don't know what they're looking for. Sometimes a couple wants to adopt to save their marriage, and that is certainly not the right sort of reason. James said a family that is going to adopt needs to be willing to take a risk, willing to accept what changes it might not be able to make in the adopted child. "It all has to do with a constantly growing, hard to define love that has to be present in the home. I see that quality in the Kunselmans."

The entire adoption process for the Kunselmans took six months. Jason, an Asian baby, was met by his family October 25th at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport. "When I first held him." said Dianna, "it was just as exciting, just as special, as when I first held my three biological children." Jason was already a familiar face to the family before he arrived in this country. The couple carried pictures of him everywhere. The baby's picture was placed on the table each night when they set down to supper. Bob even propped a photgraph of his son-to-be in the car seat already assembled in the car. Bob has taken a month's leave from his job to stay home with Jason. "It's been great so far," he said. "In three weeks he's cried twice. But don't get me wrong. I have a lot of renewed respect for women who work in their home." The couple is proud of the three girls already at home-Kimberly, 15; Stephanie, 12; and Melissa, 4 - who "have opened their hearts to our new little boy." said Dianna. The three girls got to name Jason. Amid all continued on next page the joy and support, Bob said there are still those who ask, "Why an Asian child?" or "Why would you want to take this sort of chance?" His reply; "It's all where you put your priorities in life. We're not that concerned with what some people are going to say or think. Everybody has their priorities and ours is the family. This is our fun and our fulfillment. This is what it's all about for us; giving this little child a chance."

For the Kunselmans, it's all been worth it; the thorough home evaluation conducted by James, the FBI reports to fill out, the fingerprinting, piles of paper work. "It was all worth it that moment we got to put our arms around Jason." Dianna said.

We drove home from the airport and found our wonderful neighbors on the doorstep when we pulled in," Bob said. "When you've got that kind of love and support around you, you know you've got what it takes to make it." They plan on being a "walking advertisement" for adoption, Dianna said.

Kennedy family gets dairy title

By BOB BECK
Columbian Staff Writer

When Wanita Kennedy looks out her window, her gaze crosses the lovely rolling hills just southeast of Ridgefield and fixes on the pure-white pyramid that is Mt. St. Helens.

Her peaceful rural surrounding is just one of the reasons Mrs. Kennedy is glad she's part of a dairy family.

Her husband, Arthur, also has reason to be happy he has chosen the occupation of dairyman. He is proud of his family, the Kennedy farm and his prize herd of 200 milking cows and 180 heifers and steers.

This week the Kennedys, of 23115 NW Hlllhurst, Ridgefield, have another reason to smile. They have been chosen the Clark-Cowlitz Dairy Family of the Year for 1974 by the Clark-Cowltiz Dairy Federation.

Last year the honor went to the Van A. Youngquist family of Willow Grove, near Longview.

As this year's top dairy family, the Kennedys are to host a public open house at their farm on July 27. Past such open houses have drawn a thousand or more visitors.

The Kennedy family consists of the mother and father, both extremely active in local dairy activities, and four children.

The eldest son, Bill, 23, is a director of the Clark County Holstein Club and was president of the FFA Chapter at Ridgefield High. He also attended California Polytechnic where he graduated from a two-year Ag-tech program.

Bill's wife, Jo Ann, also helps with the dalry, is secretary of the Clark County Dairy Wives, was state Holstein Princess in 1969 and attended the National Dairy Wives Congress in Chicago that year.

Joseph Kennedy, 20, was president of the FFA at Ridgefield High before graduation, attended Clark College and taught welding at the local community school.

Kathy, the youngest daughter, has been vice president of the freshman class at Ridgefield High, and active in other school affairs. She is also president of the Pioneer Cattle Club.

An older daughter, Linda Warner, is married and lives in Vancouver. She was Clark County Dairy Princess in 1968-69.

The Kennedys have one granddaughter, Nikki.

Art Kennedy is a director and treasurer of Ag-Co., Inc.; a director of the Federal Land Bank, the Dairy Herd Improvement Association and the FHA; has been president of the Clark County Jersey Cattle Club and the Clark County Holstein Club, and is a member of the Washington Dairymen's Federation.

Mrs. Kennedy is in her second term as president of the Clark County Dairy Wives, is active in the Family of Christ Lutheran Church and the Lambert Friendship Club, and was active in the Ridgefield PTA when the children were smaller.

The Kennedys call their farm Arwana, after the first names of the owners, and have lived on it for 17 years.

The Arwana herd is Holstein, with 30 per cent of the animals registered. The Kennedys own 163 acres and rent another 233 acres. Of this total, 397 acres are cultivated, with all tillable acres planted in corn, alfalfa, grass and clover.

The Kennedys hire two fulltime employes along with seasonal help.

I had a nice visit with uncle Edgar at the family reunion picnic held 17 July, 1983. He said, "Grandma & Grandpa Kennedy lived at Rainier, Oregon just one year." They could look down on Scapoose from where they lived. They lived one year outside of Rainier. The family moved to Clarke, County in 1910. They had 640 acres of stumpage in Rainier. They moved from there as they thought it was wild country. They had moved earlier from Hood River, Oregon as they thought it was too crowded.

At the Kennedy-Ordway picnic July 21, 1985 I asked uncle Edgar if he could identify the men in picture of the Kennedy Prune dryer crew. I also asked him if he would write something about the dryer too as we no longer have them in Clark County. A few days later I received a note

"When the Kennedys moved to Clark County in 1910, prunes were the main crop to make money for the farmers.

Prunes were not good for shipping unless they were dried, then they could be shipped to all parts of the United States and a lot of them were sent to Germany and other European Countries. Dryers had to be operated 24 hours a day, so as not to spoil the fruit.

Most of the work was done in the daytime, but a small crew had to be on all night. September was the big month for harvest, and a lot depended on the weather so as to get the prunes into the dryers and out before they spoiled. You either made a profit for the years work, or you had to try again next year."

Dear Grandma and All: July 12, 1920

I suppose you have been waiting to hear from us for quite awhile but we have all been so busy here. I haven't been able to write much until today. We have another little girl. She arrived about 5:00 o'clock Friday morning July 2nd. She is the picture of her Daddy, such dark eyes and the most dark hair we ever saw on a baby. Mother said Clifford's baby had lots of dark hair but not this much. She weighed 8 pounds. Mother took care of me. She is so good at nursing. Most everyone here has Mother help them when their children are little. I sat up quite a bit yesterday and ate dinner at the table. I dressed this morning and today I bathed the baby. I feel so much better this time than when Nadine came. I will only be a little while until I can go home and do my work. Mother thought it would be handier to come here. I almost forgot to tell you the baby's name. "Aleda Irene" Willis picked it out. We call her Aleda.

20 March 1920

Dear Aunties;

Mama sent Willis a nice box of chocolates for his birthday. He is not much of a boy for sweets but is proud of it. He says he wont eat any until after Wednesday. I am so glad he is better. I have slept so little the last three nights. I felt so worried about him. Nadine is taking her sleep. She grows so fast. Willis bought her a rocking chair yesterday and she enjoys rocking in it. Willis's sister Stella wants us to come up there to spend the day tomorrow. Her little baby grows fast and is as sweet as can be. Well I must close. Thank you all again for the quilts and picture. It is lovely, I'll always want to keep it because you made it. Write when you can. I love to get your letters and to know how you are. Very much love to you all, kisses to all.

Willis, Nadine & Edna

Dear Aunt Alice and All; 14 April 1920

We were so glad to get your good letters. I love to have you write so often. I have been busy. I haven't answered any letters. We moved over here the 29th of March. The place is not very big but is large enough for us and seems like heaven. I surely enjoyed the hard work it took to clean it up. Willis helped me the first time I washed but this morning I did it alone. I scrubbed the floor, made the beds, did the dishes and turned the eggs in the incubator. Willis went to help his father plant potatoes.

Lots of love,

Nadine, Willis & Edna

Dear Grandma:

Willis is harvesting now and has been for over a week. They will finish this week. Then next week is threshing and that will last for 2 or 3 months. The days are so long with him gone. He goes a little after six and does not get home until almost nine. He is only home for breakfast. I will be lonesome for him when I go home. It will make it so much handier for Willis as he has to go over morning and evening to do the chores. It makes it late for him. Willis's sister Hazel is here helping mother with her work. Her little girl Arlene is a month older than Nadine. They sure have a time together. I must close for now and will write again when I can. Willis wrote about baby but did not write more as he is so busy, forgive us for waiting so long. I will write again soon.

Lots of love to all,
Willis, Edna and babies.

Virgie wrote the following letter to her sister-in-law, Alice right after Paul Lester Shambaugh was born. Virgie had gone to Guler, Washington to help Edna with the children and help with her new grandson.

Dear Alice;

I am glad you are having such success with your paintings. There is nothing I long to do so much as to paint or do pastel work. Edna fell February 9th and has not been able to walk much so when baby came it was a rather serious experience. She is happy over the baby. He is a darling boy. Paul Lester. He has gained almost a pound this week. They are getting along alright at home. Esther is a good cook. She is getting some good training in her Domestic Science Class. Willis is sitting with Aleda in his arms. She is a cunning baby. How I wish you could see her and Nadine. She is a dear beautiful child and they are good to mind. Edna is a good mother and Willis is just as good to Edna as can be. I am enjoying the change of climate. We are 1900 feet above sea level. The sun has shone almost every day. I went fishing the other day. Edna has wool in the comforter you gave her. The lining is roses and lattice work, very pretty. Myra does not need hers now. It was right to send them here. I made Myra a green satin dress. Edna will send some pictures. Sherman always wanted to be home with you at a reunion. Those times would have meant so much to him.

Shambaugh-Henry Rites Solemnized

Surrounded by calla lilies and white single chrysanthemums, the fireplace in the home of the groom's parents was the setting Sunday evening at 5:30 for the marriage service of Miss Kathryn Henry, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Henry of LaCrosse, Wis., and Mr. Paul Shambaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Barnes, 115 E. 33rd street.

In the presence of about 60 friends and relatives the double ring service was read by candlelight by the Rev. John Pressly of the First Presbyterian church. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Dr. Carl Wagner.

Miss Henry entered on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Joe M. Rickter-Bergh of LaCrosse, wearing an apple green wool suit with matching hat and brown accessories. In her hands was an orchid on a small white prayer book from which bouvardia-knotted streamers cascaded.

Twin Sister Attends

The principals were attended by the groom's twin sister and brother, Mrs. George Casheros of Vancouver, and Mrs. Earl Shambaugh who came for the wedding from San Francisco, having but recently finished four years of service in the South Pacific. Completing her ensemble of gray suit and brown accessories Mrs. Casheros wore a gardenia corsage.

The bride's table ,for the reception following, was appointed in traditional white, tapers flanking the large tiered cake which centered the lace cloth. Serving was done by Miss Betty Stonehouse and Miss Lenore Endquist, while the guest book was the responsibility of the groom's sister, Mrs. George Mikesell. Gifts were the province of another sister, Mrs. Charles G. Carsten.

Will Reside In City

Mr. and Mrs. Shambaugh will make their home here, where she is employed by the United States employment office and he by the fire department. The bride has been making her home with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Tollackson, since coming here last spring from LaCrosse. Mr. Shambaugh returned from overseas about a year ago after having served four years as hospital corpsman in a naval hospital in Hawaii.

Denise L. Shambaugh was in the Air Force based at Rapid City, South Dakota 1972-1973-1974 with Army National Guard May 1981-May 1982. She enlisted in Roseburg, Oregon and spent time in Medford, Oregon.

Denise was married to Kenneth Stone from August 29, 1972 until August 19, 1976. While they were in Rapid City, there was a terrible flood on June 9, 1972. Three hundred people were lost. Denise escaped with the clothes on her back and her purse. A lady beckoned them to her and they looked back for a second and escaped being carried down stream. They lost their home and all their possesions.

Denise has a beautiful voice and uses it in her church work.

Meet the WAF

Amn. Denise Shambaugh arrived at Ellsworth Aug. 19 and works in the Transition Office. She spends her spare time as a hairdresser and artist. Airman Shambaugh said, "I am very patriotic and glad to be a part of the United States Air Force." Her only gripe so far is that male personnel haven't accepted the WAF as one of the group. Thou shalt have no gods but me.
Before no idol bend the knee.
Take not the name of god in vain.
Dare not the Sabbath day profane.
Give both thy parents honor due.
See that thou no murder do.
Abstain from words and deeds unclean.
Steal not, for thou by god art seen.
Tell not a willful lie, nor love it.
What is thy neighbors, do not covet.
These laws were made on Sinai,
And came direct from god on high.
The new commandment covers all.
A guide to each, both great and small.
To love thy god who reigns above,
And as thyself thy neighbor love.

I memorized this version of the Ten Commandments when I was about twelve years of age. I have never seen this in print and would like to share it. Mrs. Bradford was our Sunday School teacher. She was a blessing in my life.

OMER HERBERT BARNES

Omer Herbert Barnes was born 16 August 1893. His father was Jacob Elephalet Graybill born in Mode, Shelly County Illinois. Date of birth June 29, 1868.

Omer's mother was born "Mary Doty Sophia Caruthers on August 9, 1874 at Osaco, Ontario, Can.

He lived with his grandmother Nancy Graybill until 1903, then he went to live with his father, step mother and sister Cora.

Omer served in World War I as a Sgt. in the U.S. Army.

After the service he moved to Vancouver, married and had two sons, Harold & John. We lost track of Harold. The boys lived with us as we were growing up. after Herbert and Edna were m.

Mother and Dad Barnes raised us and divorced in the early 1950s.

John Barnes served in World War II and after the war was over he m. a girl named Doris. They visited with us quite often until he died. John left a son and a daughter beside his widow.

Dad Barnes worked at Shattick & Dickson, the Ford Garage as parts Manager all during the depression. Dad not only fed us but any one that happened to be visiting us during those very poor days when most men were without work.

The Ford Garage went out of business and Dad worked for the State Bureau of Public Roads until he retired. He married Lillian Hockett Dr. Hockett's widow. They had about ten good years before he passed away, February 2, 1973. He was a resident of Vancouver for 53 years. He was born in Decatur, Illinois. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church; Smith Reynolds Post No. 14 of the American Legion. His wife Lillian survived him as did his three step daughters and two step sons. Other survivers included his sisters, Cora Graybill of Rochester, New York and Nancy Scherner of Henrietta, New York his brothers, Jacob Graybill of Newark and Willis Graybill of Detroit; 14 grandchildren; and 11 great grandchildren. Omer's final resting place is in Willamette National Cemetery.

The bearers for his service were Don Holme, Bill Mikesell, Don Stephens, Tom Dalrymple, William Marshall and Dale Lumpkin Sr.

After Dad Barnes and Mother were divorced, Mother attended the Chase Business College in 1951, Vancouver Business College for a year and Clark College from 1953-1956. She worked as the Secretary for the First Congregational Church in Vancouver from 1959-1961; In the fall of 1961 she was Housemother of Eastern Oregon College at LaGrand, Oregon. 1962-1964 she was Housemother at Chico State College at Chico, California. 1964-1965 was spent at Salt Lake City, Utah as Housemother at the University of Utah. Mother spent 1966-1968 at Corvallis, Oregon as Housemother at Oregon State University.

Mother enjoyed her retirement by helping our daughters with their children. She wasn't retired long before she joined a "German Class" and took up painting lessons. I think everyone in the family ownes one of her prize paintings. The longer she painted the more beautiful her pictures became. I think the last painting she hung in her bedroom, a floral is perhaps the greatest, although I wouldn't trade my painting for any other. George feels the same way about his gift. This was a talent that showed itself late in life and now she is recording her memoirs. One of the nicest things that happened in Mother's life was to spend her retirement years with her grandaughter, Patty (Mikesell) & Don Stephen and their two son's Scott and Michael in their lovely home in the country on five acres. When they planned their home it included a room and bath all her own.

Mother raised a boy Patty's age (Alan Welch) and he has been very dear to her.

All the young people Michaels age think a lot of "Grandma" as do the friends of the Stephens. Don's family include Mom as their "Mom" and "Grandmother" too. She spends lots of time on the telephone visiting with her many friends. Margaret Radspinner has been one of her faithfuls, taking her to lunch at least once a week. When mother entertains her friends or Patty has her Bible Study, a luncheon or dinner party there are lots of "fixings" Patty is a wonderful cook and hostess.

Patty takes good care of "Grandmother". Includes her in many of her activities, keeps her hair lovely and dresses her pretty every day. What a blessing to all of us.

MOTHER & I HAD TAKEN THE TRAIN FROM VANCOUVER, WASHINGTON TO KANSAS TO STAY WITH GRANDPA AND GRANDMA SHAMBAUGH UNTIL WILLIS CAME HOME. THE FOLLOWING LETTER WAS SENT BACK TO MY GRANDMOTHER IN VANCOUVER.

August 2, 1919
Harlan, Kansas

Dear Mother;

You see that I arrived at my destination and we are both well. It was dreadfully warm on the train Wednesday morning and in the evening I got cold too quick and had chills and fever. I had the grippe proper all the night Thursday. So I didn't enjoy the trip as much as I would have. My tonsils were bad again. The lady in Portland I bought my ticket of said I would get to Denver on Friday and Smith Center Saturday morning, but the conductor said I would get to Denver Thursday and Smith Center Friday morning and I did. A Hop Boy took my baggage in Denver & carrie it downstairs to the depot. It is underground and very large and beautiful. I could have bought a ticket there to St. Joseph, Missouri but will go to Smith Cent and have them meet me there. I sent a telgram and then checked my trunk. When I arrived in Smith Center the ticket agent told me the Shambaughs had phoned and woul be after us as soon as they could. It was only ten minutes. Mother, Lura and Jim a half brother of Willis and their girl came to meet us. Mother held out her arms and began to cry she was so tickled to see me. Nadine would not go to anyone at first but likes all of them now. Father had been so excited that he rushed to the field and called Jim. "Why she is here now hurry" so they went for the car.

Lots of love to all,
Nadine and Edna

NADINE'S MEMOIRS

My first faint memories are being in Trout Lake with my mother. We stayed with Aunt Allene and Uncle Rufus Ordway while my Dad was overseas in World War I. Of course we kept in close touch after moving away. We had lots of pictures so that kept me in tune with the past. My middle name is Allene for my Great Aunt Allene.

Then I remember being in Kansas. One very special thing I remember is I had a beautiful brown eyed baby sister. Her name is Aleda Irene b. 2 July 1920 in Harlan, Kansas. She had lots of black hair. In Kansas it rained hard and the lightening lit up the sky so we spent some time in the cyclone cellar.

My Grandmother Shambaugh had very long hair. I loved to watch her brush it, she would lean forward and it would almost touch the floor. I also remember at Christmas we had no tree. Each one of us had our gifts on our chair. Grandfather Shambaugh led us in prayer, all of us on our knees with our hands clasped and our elbows in the seat of the chair.

One time I had been into mischief and my Dad was chasing me. I stood on the chair and locked the screen door so he couldn't catch me. My mother had just scrubbed the kitchen floor and it was still wet. I fell down after running across the clean floor and then I did get it.

My Mother told me I got into the medicine cabinet and opened a bottle of carbolic acid with my teeth. Needless to say I burned my mouth where I took the cork out. I spilled it on my body and legs. I was fortunate, it left no scars.

I remember the long train ride from Kansas to Vancouver, Washington. My Mother's sister (Aunt Myra) came with us to help my Mother with Aleda and me. I know I cried a lot.

We lived in my grandmother Winger'ts neighborhood for the next few years. I truly loved grandmother and my aunts and the big house where they lived. Let me tell you about the house. It stood on a corner with spare lots on the side and back. The sidewalk ran up to the porch from the corner. The honey-suckle clung to the porch rail and climbed up to the sleeping porch above. The turned posts were white also the trim on the porch rails. The house was painted a soft blue-grey.

The door had a bell that we turned and then you entered a hall. To the right was a downstairs bedroom. That was Aunt Sadie's room when she came West in 1926. To the left was a door into the parlor with another door leading to the dining room. I can still see the big table and white linen cloth. I remember the sideboard with the footed covered glass bowl that had been my great-grandmother Kennedy's wedding bowl. My grandmother gave me the bowl when I was 13 years old. I gave it to Shawn Marie our first grandaughter on her 13th birthday. Grandmother kept home canned fruit in it and she said her mama did too.

I loved the kitchen and the pantry. I remember the egg and butter man used to come to the door to sell them, his name was Mr. Langdon and he always wore a big white apron. His daughter smashed my finger in the teeter-totter over on the school grounds across the street.

Grandmother wore her hair quite severe. She always wore a clean apron. The pantry shelves were filled with goodies, sugar cookies, gingerbread, candied lemon and orange peel, walnuts from the big trees in the yard, raisins, home made doughnuts and sometimes home made pop corn balls and taffy. I can see grandmother pouring the hot sugar mixture on the big oval platter and starting to pull it when it was too hot for my hands.

The upstairs had the biggest bathroom I ever did see. It was off the first landing. It had a free standing bath tub on legs with claw feet. We used the buffing powder and buffer on our finger nails to make them pink and shiney.

A few more steps up the landing led to three more bedrooms. I slept in the first bedroom to the right. It had two single beds in it. I remember the sheets and pillow cases were so white, soft and fluffy. We shook the rag rugs off the upstairs porch. It was used in the summer for a sleeping porch. The vines were heavy and gave some cover.

Pa Wingert, my step-grandpa always carried pink and white peppermints. The Christmas of 1925 I remember well. We went to grandmother's house, mother, dad, Aleda, Paul and I. No one got to see the tree until everyone did. The live tree had red and green twisted wax candles in candle holders clipped to the tree and they were lit. I don't know who put the candles out or how.

The folks gave Aleda and me twin baby dolls and bassinets alike for Christmas, mother made the trim of netting and lace. Aleda's was pink and mine was blue. One month and one day later the twins were born, (Earl and Eleanor on 26 Jan. 1926.)

Going back to grandmother's house, I must say she had a little store in what was intended to be a garage. The Columbian School was across the street so it served as the schools store.

We grew up at 3504 "O" Street. The house was brown shake. We had a full basement and an upstairs. We had a woodlift in the kitchen that went to the basement for wood. It lifted up by turning the crank. Years later the refrigerator went in there. We had an ice-box on the back porch before that. We had an ice man. We kids used to follow the wagon in the summertime in hopes of getting a piece of ice to eat.

We had a path down through the hazelnut bushes to 39th Street and a trail on down to Burnt Bridge Creek. The fields were full of wild iris, (We kids called them flags.) and lots of berries. We ate the nuts, thimbleberries and wild strawberries. The road stopped in front of our house coming from 33rd Street. The Street car ran down 33rd to the Car Barnes and to the end of the line, on beyond you could walk to Brookside Park.

The time we lived in Guler was a wonderful time in our family life. Our dad was a Forest Ranger and we lived in the Forest Service house. It was so very beautiful in the winter months. The snow lay quietly on the split rail fence, trees, housetops, mountain and rocks. A big creek ran between our house and the hotel. A road passed the pool hall and a wooden bridge crossed the water. I remember well the sleigh ride to the dance hall in the hotel. When we go tired we went to sleep on the benches at the dance.

My upstairs bedroom had a window that opened on to the porch roof. When Ilia was there she opened the window and pulled in clean snow. We mixed it with vanilla and sugar and had some ice cream.

When spring came we had the most beautiful fields of yellow buttercups. In the fall when the huckleberries were ready to harvest the Indians would ride by on their ponies and camp down the road in the woods. They would hang the papoose board in the trees. The babies were nice and cozy in the back pack. I remember an Indian lady asking the store clerk for some skirt material at the dry goods store. She did not know how much fabric she needed. She asked for enough to be able to jump over the creek.

Our grandmother Wingert came to visit, she loved to walk, so I would go with her on the trails through the woods. We would gather trilliums for mother. Grandmother picked the white ones. I thought the pink ones were pretty, not knowing they were beginning to fade. The sheep herders drove the sheep passed our house on the dusty road. That made more dust to play in. I played in the dust as our granchildren would play in the sand at the beach.

Our brother, Paul Lester Shambaugh was b. in Guler, Washington on a beautiful spring day, the 12th of April 1923. This was a happy time indeed as Aleda and I now had a baby brother. My Aunt Ilia and grandmother came to help mother with the new baby and we girls.

When we were kids on "O" St. in Vancouver we had lots of snow and silver thaws, the milk was delivered to the door by the milkman and was in 5¢ quart glass bottles. When it froze the cream would raise and push the cardboard lids right up several inches. We had to bring it in as soon as it was delivered or the neighbors cat would get it.

One of the highlights of my youth was going to Long Beach Washington with the Camp Fire Girls on the sternwheeler "Georgianna. Late in the evening we arrived in Astoria, Oregon, then to Megler, Washington by ferry across the Columbia River, then on the train from Ilwaco to Long Beach. The coaches had red velvet upholstering. This was my first trip to the ocean. It was late in the afternoon about sunset, and I will never forget the beauty of it all, the color and the long stretch of sand. I still love the beach as do our children.

(I was eleven years old when my mother had to go to Portland for surgery, Grandma Wingert took care of us. Mother kept this letter all this time.)

Dear Mother;

I have not been missing you very much because we have been doing so much. Monday I practiced my music lesson when I got home from school, then we ate supper and I went to bed early.

Tuesday I took my music lesson and Ilia had some boys, Emmitt Richards and Harvy Adams come down because she wanted to find out about the social.

Wednesday I went to the Camp Fire pot luck and we had a lot of fun. We made candy. I made cocoanut creams but they did not get hard but they sure were good. Eileen made the same thing and it turned out very good. Mine sugared, you can't make it without sugaring very well.

Thursday (today) we went to school at 1:15. It thundered this afternoon terrible. It knocked the phone haywire so we had to have a new phone. The coils inside were all burned out. I practiced awhile tonight, after that we went outside and planted part of our garden.

Tomorrow we are going to the Legion building. Well, I guess I have written enough Mother dear and it is about 8:45 so I must close and go to bed.

Your Loving Daughter,

Nadine Shambaugh

P.S. Why didn't you write to me?

I was raised in the Presbyterian Church. When summer came I loved going to Bible School. It was a long walk out to the church from our house but I was always anxious to go. When I was 13 I received an award for making the best poster and for this effort I was given my first bible. I remember the poster yet, A big broom sweeping the clouds away. I don't remember the bible verse now. I have the Vacation Bible School Certificate yet for faithful attendance & creditable work. The bible has fallen apart.

When I was 20 I joined George's church,"The First Christian" This pleased his parents very much. In October of that year we were married.

In our adult Sunday School Class we were given the assignment "What I Believe About God" (This was in Ralph Heller's class) I felt inspired and wrote the following poem. Our pastor saw it and published it in our news letter. (Rev. Carrol Fairbanks.)

WHAT I BELIEVE ABOUT GOD

I believe, there is a God
Who made us from the earthly sod
I believe He makes the child to grow
Man to reap, and man to sow.

I believe God is the way
He'll show you how to live, today
Knows what you ask
Before you pray.

I believe God's Word is true,
Trust in Him, in all you do,
Think on Him, when skies are blue
When skies are dark, He'll be with you.

I believe God is the door
For man to enter, for evermore
I believe God bade us, "Go",
Show others, that they might know
THERE IS A GOD

In 1936 when I graduated from Vancouver High School there was no money to go away to school. I was thinking of getting a job. Needless to say when I was called for an interview with Pacific Tel. & Tel. I was delighted. The company had not hired for many years. (Mr. Conover from the high school had recommended me.) I started in the Traffic Department as an operator. In those days much of the equipment was manual. The suburban and farmer lines were many and all had to be rung by hand "two long and 1 short" was an example. The assigned numbers were so low, the business office's telephone number was 50 and I will always remember our home telephone number was 1369-J.

It was a delight to give personal service. The year President Roosevelt dedicated Bonneville Dam we were excused from the "switchbord" carrying our headsets with us to look out the window for a glimpse.

I was on the job when the "Russian landed at Pearson Airport" The Sunday morning "Pearl Harbor" was attacked, most holidays & Sundays. The starting pay was $18.00 a week. I worked til ten at night and was happy with my position.

TELEPHONE OPERATOR NADINE MIKESELL IN 1941

In 1942 I was asked to be Service Representative. I took my training in Seattle, Wa. and stayed at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel.

In 1943 we were unable to sell any service unless they were priority jobs because of the War.

When the service men came home from New Guinea I worked on the switchboard at the Vancouver Barracks completing calls to wives, girl friends and mothers. This was a very emotional period because of the long seperation from family. Many of the boys were ill.

MEMORIES ARE MEANT TO BE SHARED

Much knowledge would be irretrievably lost if not recorded. How wonderful it is that the mind stores these memories away to be played back as we wish. Most of our memories are glossed over making them pleasant to share. The longer we live the more there is to remember. Our generation remembers wood stoves, the iceman, winters with more snow, silver thaws, frozen milk in glass bottles with the cream forcing up the card board top. Your own cows with pans of milk and heavy cream on top. The grocery store with dill pickles, peanut butter, cheese stored in bulk and the little old cartons with a bail. Bread at 10 cents a loaf but mother's was still better. We picked and canned everything available and the fruit room was filled every year. We saw the scrub board, the old "Ford" that had to be cranked, visits with relatives by train or car, the "Atwater Kent" radio and grocery give aways at the "show." We walked every where and shared the same swimming suit with sisters and brothers. Going to church was the highlight of the week, picnics and riding on the street car, birthday parties, spin the bottle, run sheep run and marbles, Old Maid, Flinch and Dominoes. Home made pop corn balls and candy, hand me down and resoles, picking hazelnuts and wild strawberries, flags and other flowers that grew wild. Wooden walk ways and a go-devil made of an old orange crate and broken skate, stilts, "anti-anti-over", home made ice cream, Sunday dinners after church with friends and relatives and "Memorial Day."

IN BRIEF

Four firefighters seek assistant chief's post

Three Vancouver Fire Department officers were top scorers in testing to replace Assistant Fire Chief Harold Steele, who will become chief by next spring.

Under city hiring rules, one of the three will be chosen for the post, unless a fourth applicant appeals test results, said Ron Bartels, assistant city manager.

Lt. William Mikesell, who joined the department as a firefighter in 1973, received the top score, 85.06 points out of a possible score of 100. Capt. Don MacLardy scored second with 78.79 points, and Lt. Charles Skov was third with 76.2. Both were hired in 1974. Battalion Chief Charles Gage was the only other applicant for the post. He scored 75.65.

Mikesell named Vancouver assistant fire chief

Lt. Bill Mikesell, a 12-year department veteran, has been named Vancouver Fire Department assistant chief.

Mikesell shares the job with Harold Steele, who will become chief when Otto Jensen retires Feb. 1.

Mikesell, 35, was hired as a firefighter on March 31, 1973, and promoted to lieutenant Aug. 26, 1982. He was graduated in 1968 from Fort Vancouver High Shool and attended Clark College and Pacific University. He has an associate of arts degree from Clark and is working toward a degree in fire administration.

Assistant fire chief named in Vancouver

VANCOUVER — Lt. Bill Mikesell was selected Wednesday as the new assistant chief of the Vancouver Fire Department.

Mikesell, 35, will assume his new responsibilities Thursday. He will succeed Harold Steele, the current assistant chief who is scheduled to become chief when Otto J. Jensen retires Feb. 1.

Mikesell joined the department as a firefighter in March 1973. A graduate of Fort Vancouver High School and Clark College, he is working toward a fire science degree at Portland Community College and toward a degree in fire administration at Eastern Oregon State College through a continuing education program at Portland State University.

Other finalists for the assistant chief position were Capt. Don MacClardy and Lt. Chuck Scov, also of the Vancouver department.

SECOND GENERATION FIREFIGHTER MAKES GOOD

FROM RETIRED FIREFIGHTERS OF VANCOUVER'S NEWSPAPER

George and Nadine Mikesell are "strutting like peacocks" since word has been released that their # 1 son has been appointed Assistant Chief of the Vancouver Fire Dept. Bill will be working in conjunction with Harold Steele until Harold takes over as Fire Chief on the retirement of Chief Otto Jensen in February of 1896.

Congratulations to all involved.

Bill played ball on the vacant lot with the older kids and was ready for basketball and "Little League" in grade school. He was a Cub Scout and received his "Eagle Badge" when he was 15.

His dad taught him to love the outdoors by taking him hunting and fishing. His folks went to all his ball games from grade school through college. We still go to his games.

In 1966 Bill worked for the Southwest Washington Health District in the mosquito abatement program. He joined the Fire Dept. in March 1973. He is a graduate of Fort Vancouver High School and Clark College. He attended Pacific University for two years. He is now working toward a degree in Fire Administration at Eastern Oregon State College through a continuing education program at Portland State University.

Ralph Skov an old friend of the family and a brother fireman asked Bill if he would make some statements at his "Memorial Service." This was a real honor and Bill carried out his request on Sep. 27, 1984. As a result of that, Bill Click, Bill's basketball coach in High School wrote, "You did an outstanding job today with your part of the Ralph Skov service. I admire your ability to come through so well in a very difficult circumstance. I was also proud of you. Having such a super guy to talk about must have helped a lot. I wanted you to know I appreciated your comments very much."

Bill still loves the outdoors. He hunts, fishes, skis. plays base ball, basket ball and is a member of Crossroads Church. Bill is a close family member. He does lots of good things for his family and friends.

SHAWN MARIE, ERIC, NANCY ANN & CHRIS DALRYMPLE

TO NANCY CHRISTINE MIKESELL

Just had word of a girl named Nancy
Would sort of like to fancy
Just how she looks and how she acts
Bet there isn't much she lacks
If you don't mind I think I will see
If I can picture you. If I try
I may find
You could have eyes of blue
Eyes of blue, now let me think
Ah! yes, you bet, cheeks of pink
A dimple here, a dimple there
I'm hoping you have curly hair.
If it's red then I'll be glad
My wishes have come true
To look exactly like you Dad
Is what I have hoped for you
"Just the picture of your mother"
Is what most people say
In my opinion there is no other
Than the one you met today
A little round face and a little pug nose
All dressed up in sweet baby clothes
Little fingers dimply and sweet
Great-Grandmother's booties on tiny wee feet
A chubby sweet baby, all gurgly with smiles
Is just how I've pictured you
Across the long miles.

Junction City, Ka.

Dear little Nancy;

Your "great aunt" Virginia ia very happy to know that you have arrived safe and sound. I can hardly wait to get acquainted with you. Do you know something? You are just going to love going home with your Mommy to all the lovely things she and your Daddy have planned for you. That isn't all, no it isn't, wait till all the folks, Grandma's a great grandmother, even grandpa's, uncles, aunties, yes and great-uncles and aunties come and see you. Won't that be great fun to get acquainted with all those people?

A little girl does not want too big a letter, so until I see you, your mother and daddy, I will wish all of you just oodles of good luck and all the happiness in the world always.

Auntie Virginia.

Oct. 23- '53.

Dear Nancy-

May you have a nice, nice birth-day. Will you be 9 yrs? We are having a good visit Myra & D. Uncle Robert had Wed. off- so we drove to Menlo Park for a picnic lunch- then on to a tour thru The Sunset Magazine Publishing House. Very old furnishings and just as "California" as possible. Before I left Vancouver I bought you a dolly for your collection. She is not very valuable except in the way of a lesson on the Frugality of Old Country People. I think she is Checkoslavokian. They are trying to give work to women and childrey, too, in order to increase their income. You will see the cost mark still on the forehead- showing how very little the country could realize from the sale of a gross of Dollies, by time all the Middlemen recieved their Profit. I wanted so much to come to visit you all before I started South, so I could tell you about the Doll and see her in your shelves.

Very much love to all

Granma W.

EMERY RECORDS FROM THE PARISH REGISTERS OF ROMSEY, HANTS, ENGLAND

John and Anthony Emery, both carpenters, from Romsey, County Hants, Eng. embarked on the "James" at Southampton in 1635 for New England. John settled in Newbury, Massachusetts and Anthony at Kittery, Maine.

In January of 1935 Miss Marian K. Dale, a former assistant of Miss Lillian J. Redstone and now engaged in genealogical research, examined the parish registers of Romsey with the object of obtaining all entries at the proper period under the name of Emery and its variants. Miss Dale stated that the vicar of Romsey said to her many people had searched the records, duplicating their work so she went on to get all the information from Romsey registers beginning with the year 1569 and were examined for all entries until 1635 and for burials until 1640.

1594 June 16	John Emery buried.
1597 Oct. 24	Thomas Emery & Thomasine Carter married.
1599 Nov. 29	John son of John Emery baptized.
1601 Sep. 7	Ellin Emery baptized.
1601 Aug. 29	Anthony son of John Emery baptized.
1604 Oct. 6	Hugh son of John Emerye baptized.
1610 Sep. 14	Margery Emery buried.
1624 Nov. 7	Helena daughter of John Emmorie baptized.
1626 Nov. 1	Anne Emry buried.
1627 June 25	John Emry buried.
1628 Feb. 3	John son of John Emry baptized.
1631 Sep. 18	James son of Anthony Emry baptized.
1632 Mar. 18	Ann daughter of John Emry baptized 1632.

As the registers contain no Emery entries between 1569 and 1594, it seems certain that this family came to Romsey from some other parish at a later date. A copy of a Hampshire subsidy roll (1620-1628), in the office of Alfred T. Butler lists four Emerys in the parishes of North Baddesley, Bisterne, Upham, Middleton and Forton.

Both brothers married before they came to New England.

GILBERT D'ARMERY (NORMAN KNIGHT) of Tours in 1066 fought at Hastings with William the Conqueror. The roll of battle Abbey where the names of the Conquerors Chieftons are recorded gives the name as Darmey.

Gilbert was given large landed estates from William the conqueror. He owned Thackington and a half dozen other Manors near Oxford which were held by his descendants until 1376 when the Baron Richard D'Armery died. They long dwelt at Manor Berkwel ten miles from Oxford where still stands the church they built. The property went by heiresses to other names but JOHN represented the County in Parliament as late as 1423.

Another JOHN settled in Devon and his heir held the Manor of White Chapel at Bishops Nympton, which Frances the heiress of William the Conqueror carried to Edward Gibbon, whose tablet at Tiverton is dated 1707.

Thomas Emery, citizen & upholder of London, left a will dated 11 Mar. 1533 proved June 1534 desiring to be buried in the church yard at St. Michaels, Cornhill, London.

Edward Emery, of Mary at Rooting, County Essex, gentleman's will dated 30 Oct. 1637 proved 15 Jan. 1641 names elder brother Thomas Emery and appoints his younger brother Anthony Emery his executor.

Thomas Amery son of Robert held estates near Bristol. He married the daughter of the 19th century Lord Karry. His brother came to Carolina as Advocate General and treasurer. His daughter Sara married Gov. Arthur Middleton. His son Thomas settled in Boston.

NEWPORT, MAINE 1814

Lying on the western border of Penobscot County, Newport was originally called Great East Pond Plantation, from the large sheet of water within the area which seems to have borne that name and is now known as Sebasticook Lake.

When the town was incorporated in 1814 it received its name. The plantation received its first settlers about 1808. Great East Pond and its tributaries were fine hunting and fishing grounds. Previous to 1800 many hunters and trappers came up the Sebasticook River and spent the hunting season in and around these waters.

The first permanent settler was James Houston, who arrived about 1800 and built a log house on what is now known at Birch Point.

In the 1870 census there were 1,559 people living in Newport. When we were there in 1980 and each year after including 1985 we couldn't see that it was anything more than a sleepy little village.

TINY DROPS OF WATER

& A VERY PLEASANT LAND

This little poem was taught me as a young girl by my great-great Aunt Hannah Parsons when she came to visit us.

I remember as she neared 100 years of age she would take short naps on the sofa and wake up so bright and cheerful. It seemed she would fall asleep the minute her head would hit the pillow. We always loved having her come visit our family. She was always at the Kennedy-Ordway picnics over at Salmon Creek when she was able.

Many years after she passed on a neighbor and old friend, Mr. Ed. Gardner (brother to Mrs. Bob Nelson) invited me over to visit a sister, she had lived at Retsil, Washington The Old Soldiers Home where Aunt Hannah had been a resident. As we visited Mr. Gardner's sister told me Aunt Hannah had given her a black mantel clock and she would like to give it to me. Needless to say I was delighted, even if it didn't work and I have had it for more than forty years.

When I arrived home with the clock I called my grandmother to see if she remembered the clock, she did. The next time grandmother came over she brought the bible that had been Aunties.

HANNAH (PRESCOTT) PARSONS

The note pasted on the inside cover is dated, April 1865. This certifies that Warren A. Wyeth of Westford, Mass. & Hannah Prescott of Westford, Mass. were this day united by me in marriage. Dated 19 April

The bible was given to Mrs. Mary A. Parsons by Hannah Wyeth, later married to Wilbert Parsons. Wilbert was in the Infantry in Maine.

They are both buried in the Ordway-Kennedy family plot in Pine Grove Cemetery, at Hood River, Oregon.

Portland, Oregon
Thanksgiving Morning
The year 1909

Dear Sister Alice and All;

I received your nice letter yesterday and was glad to hear from you. Virgie has been poorly for a few days but is better this morning. We had some very hard winds and it seems dry now. I was out yesterday for a long walk without rubbers. I have been up to Salem and some valley towns. I'm trying to get a place to live. If I find a piece of land Virgie's brother Ralph will put some money in on it.

I am holding Esther so my lines are crooked. We haven't any turkey but Virgie says she is going to bake me some pies and cake, so that will be alright.

Virgie's uncle and wife are at Mrs. Kennedy's at Rainier, they sold out at Forge Village, Massachusetts. (Sherman is referring to Aunt Hannah and Uncle Wib.)

Lots of love to you all and best wishes from us all.

Sherman.

HALLDALE: Mrs. Granville Thompson died at the Maine General Hospital in Portland August 14th. She went there the 26th of last June to have a tumor removed, and bore the operation well and appeared to gain rapidly at first, but old complaints set in which baffled the skill of the physicians. Her husband was with her the last two weeks and returned with her remains Friday. Mrs. Thompson had the love and esteem of all who knew her and by her death the community has met with a loss.

A husband, two children and aged mother and a sister and many friends are left to mourn, but not without hope of a happy reunion on the other shore.

The deceased experienced religion several years ago and exemplified it in her daily life. The funeral was at the Church Sunday forenoon. Rev. H. Small, of Brooks, officiating. Her remains were interred in the family lot in the cemetery on the hill.

* "Grandma" was born Mary Ann Leathers. She married Jon/John Parsons a shoemaker in 1842 at Newport, Maine. John died there in 1857 leaving his widow with three small children. The next year she married Mr. Elliot Thompson and in due time there were three more children. Elliot died on the 28th day of January 1867 in Belgrade, Kennebec County, Maine and was buried in the Rose Cemetery at Brooks, Maine. Poor Mary Ann! again left with her heartache and six children. She wasn't alone very long for a marriage joined Mr. Jeremia Chase of Granville, Maine on the 20th of December 1870. I don't know what happened to this marriage but when Mary Ann came west she was Mrs. Pease. Now Mr. Pease was a brick layer by trade and there was no work for his craft and he didn't like the wild country anyway, so he went back to Maine by himself leaving Mary Ann without a husband again. Mary Ann became Mrs. Sondre Torguson. Their names appeared on a property record in Wasco County, Oregon on the 9th day of November 1901. His name appeared on another document dated 1903 (widower) followed his name. She had passed away on November 9, 1902. Her headstone states simply "Grandma."

BROOKS MAINE, 1816

This town in Waldo County was settled in 1798 by Joseph Roberts from Buckfild who built the first saw mills. By 1801 his brothers John and Jonathan joined him. Not long afterward Benjamin Cilley with his sons, Benjamin, Peter and Simon, also of Buckfield, took up residence near by. Phineas Ashman was the first lawyer & first postmaster. He opened a law office in Washington Plantation (now) Brooks in 1813. His home was always open to the leading citizens of the town. One of his guests was Daniel Webster.

In the early part of the year 1798 notices were posted throughout the District of Maine that settlers were wanted in that section of Hancock County, now Waldo County.

According to the census of 1790 William Cilley, Peter and Benjamin Cilley, Forbes, Leathers and Jenkins were residents of Buckfield at that time. A report shows that in 1804 there were only nine heads of families in Brooks, newcomers who for the most part were related to the early settlers began to locate in the town.

WALDO County, 1827

This county was formerly a part of Hancock County and bears the name of General Samuel Waldo. His family came first into the History of Maine through its interest in what was originally called the Muscongus Grant. About the middle of the eighteenth century, it became known as the Waldo Patent, procured expressly for exclusive trade with the natives. He served our present state as Colonel of the Eastern Regiment as a General at the siege of Louisburg. He also aided in securing foreigners to settle his patent. He was greatly interested in the Penobscot Expedition which resulted in the building of Fort Pownal, when no white inhabitant retained a dwelling place on Penobscot Bay. A county, two thriving towns and the lofty elevation of Mount Waldo perpetuate his name.

Gorham, Maine Cumberland County is about 11 miles west of Portland, Maine. In 1870 it had manufactories of cotton goods, tools and machinery.

The 1870 census showed population 868. We visited the town clerk's office this year and I'm sure the population was less than 100. We copied records from original books with beautiful entries hand written. It was a real pleasure to use the original documents.

Enoch Leathers was a Merchant. On 21 May 1850 Enoch purchased lot # 3 in Hermon from Alva Patten. He paid $200.00 for the land.

FAMILIES ARE FOREVER

Whats happening to families today? Once, generations of American families spent their entire lives together, in the same area, secure in living and dying together. Today however family members are often scattered. We are blessed to have our family not only live near us but are very close to one another.

A William Ratcliffe was freeman of Greenwich, Conn. in 1669; He was deputy to the General Court 1670; land owner 1672; after which his name is not in the records of the Colony. Persons bearing the unusual name lived in Portsmouth, Kittery & York before 1700. Wm. bequeaths to wife Jean all his lands, goods, all my tools that I now work with & all personal estate; reserved 2 bras candill sticks for his dau. Nelson and 1 shillings to every one of his grandchildren. His will was not offered for probate until all of the attesting witnesses had died, the last one dying 1720. He was m. twice. It is thought Jean m. (2) Deacon Abraham Moulton for her third husband. She probably gave birth to 1 or 2 children after the date of the will.

John Ordway joined Lewis and Clark expedition across the continent. He was appointed to keep the daily records.

John Ordway was born in 1775. His parents were John Ordway and Hannah (Morse) Ordway. He was the 6th child of 10. One record says he was born in Dunbarton, New Hampshire in Merrimack county.

John enlisted about 1800 in the United States Army and in 1803 was in Capt. Russell Bissell's Co. of the 1st Inf. stationed at Kaskaskia, Illinois.

On January 1, 1804 John joined Capt. Meriwether Lewis and Capt. Clark in an expedition across the country. He kept a journal which was lost for over 100 years. The journey was easily traced and probably the party was the first white men upon the Lower Salmon River. (East Fork of the Lewis River.)

For the trip to the Pacific Coast, John received $15.00 per month and at least 400 acres of land. He also bought claims of three other members of the party thereby acquiring 960 acres in addition to his own.

After returning to the east he visited his parents in New Hampshire and then returned to Missouri where he married. They had no children. He died a young man in 1817. His wife outlived him and applied for lands appropriated for the relief of earthquake sufferers. Their home had suffered severly in the quake of 1811.

Our knowledge of Sgt. Ordway is slight, that he was held in high esteem by Lewis & Clark is clear from their journals. He was early entrusted with the duty of keeping the rosters and the Orderly book; during the absence of the two Captains he was put in command of the camp at River Dubois.

After the return of the expedition Sgt. John Ordway settled in the Tywappity Bottom in southeasten Missouri, where he quickly attained prosperity, having within a year two plantations under good cultivation. He had peach and apple orchards and good buildings.
